

GIANT DIRIGIBLE ON WAY TO AMERICA

PRINCE OF WALES SEES STOCKYARDS

Royal Visitor Sleeps During Milwaukee Stop

More Than 1,000 Wealthy Residents Greet Heir to British Throne

RIDES SORREL STEED

Louis F. Swift Home Honored by Sojourn of Edward Windsor During Stay

Chicago—The Prince of Wales viewed the world's greatest stockyards from the back of a sorrel colt Monday. Accompanied by two expert cattlemen as aides, the prince mounted the sorrel and began riding through miles of alley at the yards.

Milwaukee — The Northwestern road passenger train bearing the Prince of Wales from Duluth, Minn., to Chicago, paused only long enough in Milwaukee to change engines and transact the usual amount of railroad business and then departed at 6:42 A. M. for Lake Forest, Ill., where the prince was to be entertained during the day.

The visit of the prince was unostentatious. There was no crowd at the depot and so far as any person except the prince knows, he did not peek out of his berth window as the train passed through the city. Railroad men said Mr. Windsor was sleeping soundly and would not show himself during the stop.

Lake Forest, Ill.—This community was astir early Monday to greet the Prince of Wales. Many of the wealthy townpeople hastened through their breakfasts and delayed departure for their offices in Chicago in order to obtain a glimpse of the royal heir as he arrived from Canada.

At the Louis F. Swift home, breakfast awaited with Countess Minotto, daughter of Mr. Swift, as hostess. There also awaited a greeting by Major Oscar Solbert representing President Coolidge and a warm friend of his royal highness.

Sixteen hours had been allotted by the prince for his visit to Chicago and every minute of his stay was measured off with careful exactness. At 10 o'clock he left by motor with his host Louis F. Swift, for an inspection of Chicago's great stock yards.

His arrival in Packingtown was set for 11. At 1:15 P. M. he arrived at the University of Chicago to attend a luncheon arranged in his honor by President Ernest Dewitt Burton.

VISITS PARKS

The luncheon over the prince was taken about Chicago's park system, the trip ending with a visit to Field museum. The evening hours England's future king had reserved to himself but society had planned to claim him again at dinner at the Drake hotel and later at the Saddle and Cycle club at both of which affairs he was to be the guest of Wolcott Blair. Thirty minutes after midnight his special train was scheduled to leave for Detroit.

The prince greeted the crowd of more than a thousand which met him at the station from the rear platform on his private car. He smiled graciously and waved his hat to the cheering townspeople. He was driven through the village along the picturesque lake front and then to the Swift home for breakfast.

The breakfast was a strictly private affair for relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Swift and the Prince's party. After a stop of more than an hour at the Swift estate the party began the 30 mile motor trip along the lake front en route to the stockyards.

MEXICO WILL GIVE UP
FUGITIVE U. S. BANKER

By Associated Press
Mexico City.—The Mexican authorities have agreed to the extradition of George W. Mitchell, recently arrested near Tampico as a fugitive from Winnie S. P. As president and cashier of the First National bank of Winner, Mitchell is charged with defalcations amounting to $350,000.

SOUTH DAKOTA CUTS
GAS PRICE ONE CENT

By Associated Press
Mitchell, S. D.—Gasoline prices at all the state filling stations in central South Dakota dropped another cent Monday. Carl Butterfield, manager of the state highway supply depot here announced. The new drop put the gasoline price at 15 cents.

Frat House Robber Taken By Students

By Associated Press
Madison—Captured by a group of university youths in the Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity house shortly before 4 o'clock Sunday morning, a man giving the name of Fred Rettinga of Peoria, Ill., was to be arraigned in Superior court Monday as one of two men who in the last few weeks have looted more than a dozen rooming houses in the Latin quarter. Rettinga, through his attorney, pleaded insanity when he was arraigned before Judge Ole A. Stolen late Monday morning. Judge Stolen will appoint a commission to examine the boy and determine whether he is insane.

BADGER EXPENSES SHOW LARGEST RISE

Report Compiled by Illinois Central Railroad Shows Large Increases

By Associated Press
Chicago—Nine out of thirteen states responding to an inquiry from the Illinois Central railroad as to the cost of state government in 1900 and 1923 showed increased costs of more than 500 per cent, the railway company announced Monday. The company pointed out that while taxes are the means of paying the cost of state government, freight and passenger revenues are the means of running the railways.

"The home state of Senator LaFollette, chief critic of the railroad candidate for president on a platform of government ownership of railroads, shows the greatest increase in the cost of state government, the increase in Wisconsin being 1,608 per cent," said the statement. "LaFollette first was elected governor of Wisconsin in 1901 and has been the dominant figure in Wisconsin politics ever since."

HIGHT-SWEETIN CASE BEFORE JURY

By Associated Press
Mount Vernon, Ill.—The Jefferson county grand jury was scheduled to meet here Monday to take up the investigation of the Sweetin-Hight poison plot case. Indictments charging Mrs. Elsie Sweetin and the former minister, Lawrence M. Hight, both of Ina, Ill., with murder, were expected to be voted at the close of the investigation.

A confession made by the former clergyman and that of Mrs. Sweetin in which the two related details of their plot framed so they could marry, was expected to furnish the principal evidence in the case. Then, too the reports made by a Chicago chemist on the finding of poison in the stomachs of Mrs. Ann Hight and of Mrs. Sweetin's husband were to be submitted as evidence.

Hight is being held in jail here, while Mrs. Sweetin is a prisoner at Salem, because the jail here has no quarters for women prisoners.

BRYAN RETURNS FROM TOUR OF FIVE STATES

Lincoln, Neb.—Governor Bryan returned to Lincoln early Monday after a campaign tour in five western states. As soon as attention is given to accumulated work at the capitol the Democratic vice presidential nominee will start on the final lap with day and night speeches that will keep him busy until election eve.

MRS. HART GETS DIVORCE FROM "PERFECT LOVER"

Cincinnati, O.—Mrs. Rosamund Hart obtained a divorce from Frederick William Hart, "perfect lover" of Mrs. Alfred Lawrence Hallquest, in the domestic relations here Monday. Alimony agreed upon out of court consisted of $5,000 cash and one third of Hart's income for the remainder of Mrs. Hart's life.

IGNORANT OF END, CHINESE CARRY ON WAR

Armistice Signed Sunday Is Virtual Victory for Central Government

By Associated Press
Shanghai—Chekiang forces holding defense lines west of Shanghai, unaware that they were fighting for a lost cause, uninformed that an armistice had been signed Sunday night in which their leader virtually admitted defeat, continued firing into the enemy lines Monday afternoon.

A train from Nanshang, 12 miles west of here, brought in 300 Chekiang soldiers, who, when apprised of the turn of events, joined other Chekiang troops at the railway station north of here where an impromptu auction of clothing and equipment was held. A number of military motor cars were knocked down to bidders for $10 and upward.

Their defeated armies retreating in confusion towards Shanghai, General Lu Yung-Hsiang, military governor of Chekiang province, and his chief aide, General H. O. Feng Ling, defense commissioner of Shanghai, Monday announced they had signed an armistice with invading Kiangsu forces representing the central government of China.

General Lu and Ho who have led the defense forces fighting west and south of Shanghai for the past six weeks, Monday sought refuge in foreign concessions while the report was in circulation here that they had been bribed to betray their leaders.

While the Chekiang army was retreating towards the environs of Shanghai Monday, every unit of foreign defense forces in the city including United States Marines and foreign warships, was being drawn up for the line of defense of the foreign settlement to put up a defense against attempts on the part of the Kiangsu troops to enter the concession.

The confusion in military quarters incident to the signing of the armistice made it possible to weigh the benefits to the central government forces Monday. If the terms of the armistice strip the Chekiang military governor of his power, the result is a victory for the central government which will now extend its jurisdiction to the district surrounding Shanghai.

GUARDS FRUSTRATE ATTEMPTED BREAK

One Convict Killed, Another Wounded While Trying to Escape

By Associated Press
Moundville, W. Va.—One convict was killed and his companion was wounded at the West Virginia state penitentiary here Monday when guards frustrated their attempt to escape. Earl Blankenship of Fairmont serving a term for robbery, was shot and killed while attempting to throw a rope over the prison wall. Harry McCracken, Blankenship's companion in the plot, escaped into a cell house. He was shot in the shoulder when he resisted the guards.

The convicts escaped from their cells with a key they made. The man who shot Blankenship was armed with a revolver and a gun. Two guards and locked them in a cell before obtaining the rope with which they hoped to scale the walls.

COOLIDGE FACES DOUBLE PROBLEM

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Two government problems face President Coolidge for probable decision this week. Additional data which the president asked from government departments in connection with the report of the tariff commission on the sugar duty is expected to reach the White House. Three members of the commission are understood to have recommended a cut in the duty. Mr. Coolidge has asked for further facts on the sugar industry in this country before reaching a decision.

The matter of appointment by the president of the commission he has proposed to investigate agricultural conditions also has been expected to receive further attention from the executive. Farm leaders who conferred with him last week suggested this be deferred until after election or delayed for at least a week, lest the investigation become involved in politics.

Lost To World

Anatole France one of the greatest French writers of the century, died Sunday night after a long illness. His remarkable vitality which astonished his physicians kept him alive and mentally lucid long after medical experts who attended him foresaw the end.

TARIFF VIOLATES CONSTITUTION, IS OPINION OF DAVIS

Democratic Standard Bearer Attacks Fordney-McCumber
Bill in Address

By Associated Press
Indianapolis, Ind.—It is the opinion of John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for president and former president of the American Bar Association that the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill violates the constitution of the United States.

Mr. Davis announced his belief in an attack made here on the tariff act and reiterated Monday that law "not only violates the constitution of the United States, but also violates one of the deepest traditions of the liberalizing peoples of the world."

"In support of this contention the candidate cited the clause contained in the bill which, he said, gave the president uncontrolled discretion to raise the rates of the income tax or lower them as much as 50 per cent. It made no difference, he pointed out, that the act had stated that the president must be advised by the tariff board before rates specified in the bill were changed."

The clause was written into the law, Mr. Davis charged to give the people an "anesthetic while they swallowed it." The candidate was prepared Monday to continue his attacks on the tariff, on questions of foreign affairs and others concerning the administration of government in Washington. He had rested during the week end here and was faced again with the railroad schedule worked out by his managers, to take him into Illinois from Springfield to Quincy and thence to Chicago for a two day program. On his itinerary for Monday were a number of Indiana points where brief addresses were called for before he arrives Monday night in Terre Haute.

U. S. COURT DISMISSES SUIT AGAINST SOVIETS

Washington, D. C.—The supreme court dismissed Monday for want of jurisdiction a case against the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet republic brought by M. Wolfson and Co. raising the question whether the Soviet can be sued in the courts of this country.

The plaintiff sought to recover for property it alleged the Russian Soviet republic had taken. The New York State courts held that the Russian government existed although it had not been recognized by this government, but that it could not be sued without its consent.

MILWAUKEE JEWELER
ROUTS BANDIT PAIR

Milwaukee—Irwin Metzke, proprietor of a jewelry store here, is unafraid of holdup men. He proved it early Monday at his store when he frightened away two youthful bandits who demanded that he "stick 'em up." Instead of complying, Metzke darted into a rear room, obtained a revolver and fired at the invaders.

Death Claims France After Long Illness

Paris—The death at Tours of Anatole France created a profound impression throughout the country and the newspapers Monday morning print columns about his life and works.

The aged writer's long struggle against death had been watched with interest and admiration. His vitality amazed the doctors. Weeks ago they announced that his end was but a question of hours, yet he held his own and even made surprising rallies. Almost to the last he maintained consciousness and lucidity. Only Sunday he lapsed into semi-consciousness, murmuring in a faint voice from time to time "I am dying," calling his mother.

The end came peacefully shortly before midnight in the presence of his wife and his physician, while Lucien Peychari, his little grandson who is also the grandson of the late Ernest Renan, slept in an adjoining room.

BRITAIN READY FOR GERMAN LOAN

Reparation Commission Announces Completion of Dawes Organization

London — Underwriting arrangements are now proceeding for Great Britain's portion of the $200,000,000 Dawes plan loan to Germany, for which the Bank of England will issue a prospectus Wednesday.

Investors will be asked to subscribe 5 per cent on application, 25 per cent in November, 30 per cent in December and 2 per cent in January, making 92 per cent for the bonds which will bear 7 per cent interest. Montagu Collet Norman, governor of the Bank of England, declares that the British quota, undoubtedly will be quickly subscribed.

Paris—The reparation commission formally announced Monday that the Dawes plan organization had been fully established and that the German government had complied with all of the requirements to date under the agreement made at the recent international conference in London.

The commission approved the plans for American, British and German participation in the $200,000,000 loan to Germany and suggested that the agent general for reparation payments ought to be ex officio one of the trustees representing the bond holders.

POTHIER, FREED OF CHARGE, STRANDED

Tacoma, Wash.—Former Sergeant Bugler Roland H. Pothier, acquitted Saturday in federal district court by a jury on the charge of killing Major Alexander R. Cronkhite, spent Sunday his first day of freedom in more than six months, in renewing acquaintanceship with those he had met in Tacoma while he was stationed at Camp Lewis during war time.

Pothier says he intends to go to his wife and child in Central Falls, R. I., just as soon as he can but that he is entirely without funds and does not know when he will be able to apply for his old job as brakeman on an eastern railroad, one on which he was employed when arrested on the Cronkhite charge.

A local motion picture theatre was Sunday night seeking his services as a singer, Pothier having sung many times before Tacoma organizations during the war.

ENGINEER KILLED, FIREMAN
MISSING IN TRAIN CLASH

New Milford, Pa.—The engineer of a freight train into which a Lockport railroad express train crashed near here Monday was killed and several passengers injured.

The fireman of the freight engine could not be accounted for soon after the collision. The express train was running between Buffalo and New York City.

SUPREME COURT REFUSES TO REVIEW CLEMENS CASE

Washington, D. C.—The supreme court Monday refused to review the conviction of B. H. Clemens and other employees of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad on the charge of conspiracy to obstruct the mails and interfere with interstate commerce during the shopmen's strike in 1922.

WALTON FIGHT BOOSTS DAVIS IN OKLAHOMA

LaFollette Probably Will Poll
100,000 Votes, David Lawrence Says

ROW HAS ITS DANGERS

Governor Bryan Makes Favorable Impression in State With His Speeches

By David Lawrence
Copyright 1924 by The Post Pub. Co.
Oklahoma City, Okla.—John W. Davis is reasonably certain of Oklahoma's electoral vote. When the Democratic voters are apathetic this state sometimes turns upside down.

There's no such danger in 1924, as the fight for and against former governor J. C. Walton, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, is making Oklahomans sit up and take notice.

When Robert L. Owen, Democrat, and the present senior senator from Oklahoma sees fit to call on the Democrats of the state to repudiate Walton and cast their votes for his opponent, W. B. Pine, Republican, some idea of the intensity of the battle may be conveyed to the outside world.

Walton won in the Democratic primaries as a minority candidate. He has raised the anti-Klan issue. Newspapers like the Daily Oklahoman which are and have been anti-Klan, decline to allow that issue to influence their feeling about Walton's candidacy, so one finds here the spectacle of most of the Democratic newspapers supporting John W. Davis and the Democratic state ticket, but bolting the Democratic nominee on the senatorship.

Walton's impeachment and his record in office are given by Senator Owen as reasons for refusing to support the man nominated to succeed him. Naturally a row inside the Democratic party has its dangers. Pressure is being put on many old-time Democrats to vote for the whole ticket including Walton, the argument being made that defections in one place might lead to others and that might carry with it a certain peril to the Democratic nominees for Supreme court judges. Six are to be elected, which makes up a majority of the court and the thought is being distributed among Democrats that if the Republicans win the court they will knock out the Tim. Clegg laws, a subject on which Oklahoma is as tender as South Carolina or any other state of the old south.

Senator LaFollette will get a big vote, perhaps 100,000. This would be little less than a fifth of the total vote expected to be cast. But there always has been a Farmer Labor vote here and a Socialist movement. It has been somewhat obscure and hasn't always gone to the polls because of the known futility of that errand. With LaFollette conceded to be a factor in the presidential contest, at least in being able possibly to deadlock the contest the radicals are coming out to vote. Then there is the protest against both parties. It always amounts to something. Rising agricultural prices tend to some extent to erase discontent but it hasn't been enjoyed long enough to squelch all of the protesting farmers.

Governor Bryan has been making a favorable impression with his speeches in this state. The Democratic campaign is well organized and the state probably will get an exceptionally large vote which would mean a Davis victory by anywhere from 15,000 to 25,000 votes this time, even counting defections to LaFollette.

WESTERN RAILROADS LOSE COURT CONTEST

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—Western railroads lost in the supreme court Monday their fight to compel their terminal railroad association at St. Louis to revise its present practices. The western roads had contended that although some of them had predatory interest in the terminal association the eastern railroads were given material advantages over them in the matter of terminal charges.

By Associated Press
Washington, D. C.—The supreme court Monday refused to review the conviction of B. H. Clemens and other employees of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad on the charge of conspiracy to obstruct the mails and interfere with interstate commerce during the shopmen's strike in 1922.

By Associated Press
Bloomington, Ill.—Stephen A. Wilson, grieving over the death of his wife, which occurred three months ago, committed suicide by shooting himself while kneeling beside her grave.

GRIEF CAUSES SUICIDE ON GRAVE OF HIS WIFE

By Associated Press
Copenhagen, Denmark.—Queen Alexandra has postponed her projected visit to Germany, owing to the illness of Dowager Queen Louise who was stricken on Saturday with a severe attack of bronchitis and was declared Sunday night to be suffering from pneumonia. The dowager queen is 73 years old.

Radio Reports

New Navy Zep Above Azores

Crew Rests
While Blimp
Is Repaired

By Associated Press
San Diego, Calif.—Officers and men of the big navy dirigible, Shenandoah, which arrived here late Friday night and which is prolonging its visit to allow for repairs to a broken girder, a damaged rear gondola, and some minor engine trouble, were Monday taking advantage of the changed flying schedule to get some much needed rest.

Lieut. Commander Zachary Lansdowne, commander of the Shenandoah, said Monday morning that repair work was progressing rapidly. The ship is expected to be ready to resume her flight northward to Seattle Tuesday. Captain Lansdowne expressed hope that the storm which weather bureau reports warned as threatening the north Pacific route of the Shenandoah will have blown itself out before Tuesday morning.

LAFOLLETTE TRIES FOR FARMER VOTE ON MIDWEST TOUR

Wisconsin Senator Starts Tour of Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota, Nebraska

By Associated Press
Kansas City, Mo.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette invaded the vast agricultural territory west of the Mississippi Monday prepared to make a determined bid for the farmer vote. The Independent presidential candidate will open his drive with a speech Monday night on Kansas City and plans to devote a week or more to stumping in Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska and probably other states in the wheat and corn belt.

From Kansas City the Wisconsin senator will swing eastward to St. Louis for an address Tuesday night, then north for speeches before the end of the week in Des Moines, Ia., Minneapolis and Sioux Falls, S. D. He is also scheduled to speak a week from Monday night in Omaha but no engagements beyond that have been listed.

Before leaving Chicago Sunday night Mr. LaFollette discussed campaign problems with several of his advisers, among them John M. Nelson, national campaign manager. Some of the candidate's lieutenants are urging him to give up his plan to make a whirlwind trip to the Pacific coast and instead to spend the last weeks of the campaign in the middle west and east, and it was indicated Monday that he might do so, although he is now of the opinion that he should carry his fight into the northwest and Pacific coast states.

REDS HISS RIVALS AT CHICAGO SPEECH

By Associated Press
Chicago—Republican Democratic and Independent candidates for president were booed and hissed at a political rally here Sunday night at which William Z. Foster, Communist candidate for president, and Ben Gitlow, his running mate, were the principal speakers.

"The LaFollette party" said Foster, "is the last bulwark of capitalism. The capitalists will try to elect one of the old party tickets but failing in that will still be safe with LaFollette—the Fascist—leading the workers." Gitlow said that his party was allied with the Communist party of Russia and that it was the party's purpose to overthrow the present form of government in the United States and replace it with a revolutionary government.

DOWAGER ILL: QUEEN
MUST STAY AT HOME

Copenhagen — Queen Alexandra has postponed her projected visit to Germany, owing to the illness of Dowager Queen Louise who was stricken on Saturday with a severe attack of bronchitis and was declared Sunday night to be suffering from pneumonia. The dowager queen is 73 years old.

American Naval Officer on Airship Will Take Command at Destination

FOLLOWS SOUTHERN ROUTE

Usually Dangerous Passage Over Bay of Biscay Is Made Safely

BULLETIN
Horta, Azores Islands.—The Giant dirigible ZRS passed Fayal at 2:56 o'clock this afternoon (Local time) on her way to Lakehurst N. J. She was flying in a westerly direction traveling at a good rate of speed.

Washington, D. C.—The Zeppelin ZRS, which floated Monday over the broad expanses of the Atlantic, and the navy, on the alert, was standing by to render any help that might be needed by the great airship in its epoch-making journey from Friedrichshafen, Germany, to Lakehurst, N. J. No direct word from the ZRS had reached the navy bureau of aeronautics, because her radio range had not reached a point where navy apparatus could make contact, but through ships at sea and through its other sources of information efforts were made to keep in touch.

Captain George W. Steele, American Naval officer aboard the ship, who will take command of her on her arrival at Lakehurst, told the navy department in a belated radiogram Monday of her departure from Germany where she was built for the American Government in conformity with the terms of the armistice, adding that she sailed smoothly from the start and passed over the Bay of Biscay without incident.

The southern route is being followed, putting the big craft on the steamship route across the Atlantic, which goes by way of the Azores to Bermuda.

Paris—The Zeppelin ZRS, Monday was well out over the Atlantic, having covered 1,000 miles of her journey from Friedrichshafen, Germany, to Lakehurst, N. J., according to the latest advices.

The next definite word as to her progress is expected to be in the form of wireless communication either from some vessel sighting her at sea or from the Azores islands over which she is expected to pass in following the sound of her transatlantic route. This route was chosen because of the adverse conditions reported over the shorter northern route.

Leaving Friedrichshafen, where she was built on the war reparations account of the United States, the great aircraft Sunday flew over Basle, Switzerland. Then she swung about and followed the Rhine until exposed to Belfort, where she turned westward and then gradually to the southwest following a fairly direct line from Belfort to the Bordeaux region.

Few people caught a glimpse of the giant ship in her swift passage high in the heavens over France. The amateur wireless enthusiasts were all at their receiving sets, but generally speaking the first Zeppelin to fly over this country since 1911 passed like a ghost. Dyon saw her shortly before noon Sunday and also Rochefort on the Charente coast, near which Clemenceau spends most of the year.

There the airship appears to have flown southward over the mouth of the Gironde passing the seashore resort of Royan, then altering her course to the west over the Bay of Biscay. After following the northern Spanish coast she took to the open ocean at Cape Ortegal, on the northwestern tip of the Spanish peninsula.

The weather over the Bay of Biscay which holds such terrors for navigators when storm tossed was as nearly perfect as possible Monday.

Rich
Richard Says:

IT IS in vain to learn wisdom and yet live foolishly. And there's no point in knowing the Post-Crescent's Classified Ads can save you money, and then not letting 'em.

VETERAN EMPLOYEE OF BANK IS DEAD

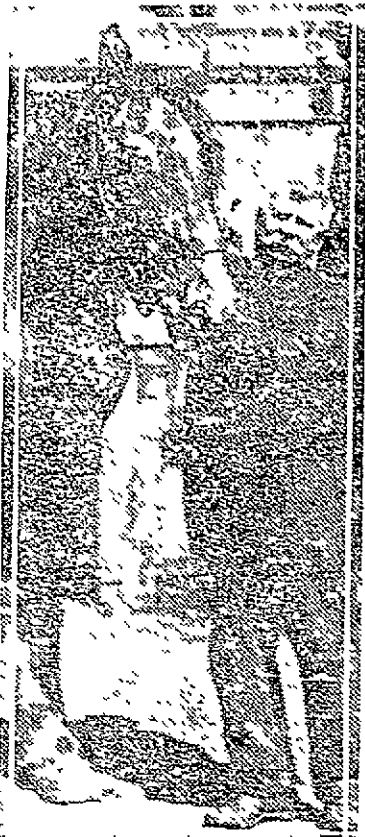

End Comes Suddenly to Thomas Franklin, First National Employee for 53 Years

Thomas J. Franklin, 72, who was employed at the First National bank for more than 53 years died at his home at 630 Harrison st., at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. His health had been failing but his death was unexpected as he was about as usual Saturday. Heart disease was the cause.

Mr. Franklin was born Dec. 22, 1851 at Clintonville, N. Y., and came to Appleton in 1887. He was married to Lavinia B. Thickers Feb. 6, 1887 and her death occurred Nov. 24, 1904. The decedent became an employee of the bank when it was organized Nov. 11, 1870 and at the time of death was general bookkeeper and custodian of the safety deposit vaults. He had been on a three months leave of absence due to failing health. None of the men on the present board of directors was serving at the time he first came to the bank.

Mr. Franklin is survived by two children, Roger of Los Angeles, Calif. and Doris Franklin, Appleton; five brothers and sisters, Mrs. Hubert Cronk, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. H. B. Ke'logg, Antigo, F. W. Bacter, Antigo; Mrs. E. A. Bacter, Oshkosh; Mrs. A. Witterding, Waubesa. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at All Saints Episcopal church and burial will be made in Riverside cemetery. The body may be viewed at the Berer funeral home up to Thursday noon.

45 AND HAPPY

ACCIDENTS MANY IN SAFE AMERICA

Chicago — "America presents the anomalous situation of being the most advanced nation in accident prevention and at the same time having the highest accident rate on earth."

Thus does William H. Cameron, managing director of the National Safety Council sum up the efforts of safety advocates in this country to educate workmen toward greater care in their work.

The reason for the paradox, he says lies in the beginning of a prodigious movement for safety.

It takes time to develop the safety habit in individuals," he replies. "Safety costs only 25 per cent in the shield around the buzz saw and 75 per cent in the cautious brain and habits of the worker."

Yet this fundamental idea of industrial accident avoidance is realized by less than one tenth of one per cent of the workers in this country, and by an almost imperceptible few abroad, Cameron estimates.

But the United States is taking the lead in safety.

to the acting mayor, General Li Fu Lin. On the following day many small streets in the center of the city had been barricaded.

Mat. 10c
Eve. 10c-15c

MAJESTIC

3 DAYS STARTING TODAY

GLORIFYING CHILDHOOD

The Lad of 'Everybody's Dreams in his Latest and Most Human Photo Play.

A Picture for the Youngest and Oldest

COMEDY—DRAMA—Beauty and Simplicity in The Sweetest
Tale Ever Told—

8 Massive Parts

The New Wisconsin Theatre at Milwaukee recently played this big production, acclaimed the most wonderful photoplay of the year, at the admission of 55c.

So that everyone can see this most wonderful picture our admission will be
MAT. 10c — EVE. 10c - 15c

All the world loves Jackie, yet he has never been so lovable as in this new photoplay. You'll laugh with a new tenderness for all living youngsters. You'll probably have to gulp back a tear or two and you'll get the thrill of your life when you see Teddy, the great dane, go out into a terrific blizzard to rescue his little master and restore him to his little sweetheart, Alois. A PICTURE YOU WILL WANT TO SEE AGAIN.

Never before has a production with a 100 per cent entertainment value been offered at these prices.

COMING — "The Common Law"

ELITE

4 DAYS
Starting TODAY

Matinee 2 and 3:30 - - - 25c
Evening 7 and 8:45 - - - 35c

Introducing--friends, once again--

AMERICA'S PREMIER ARTISTE

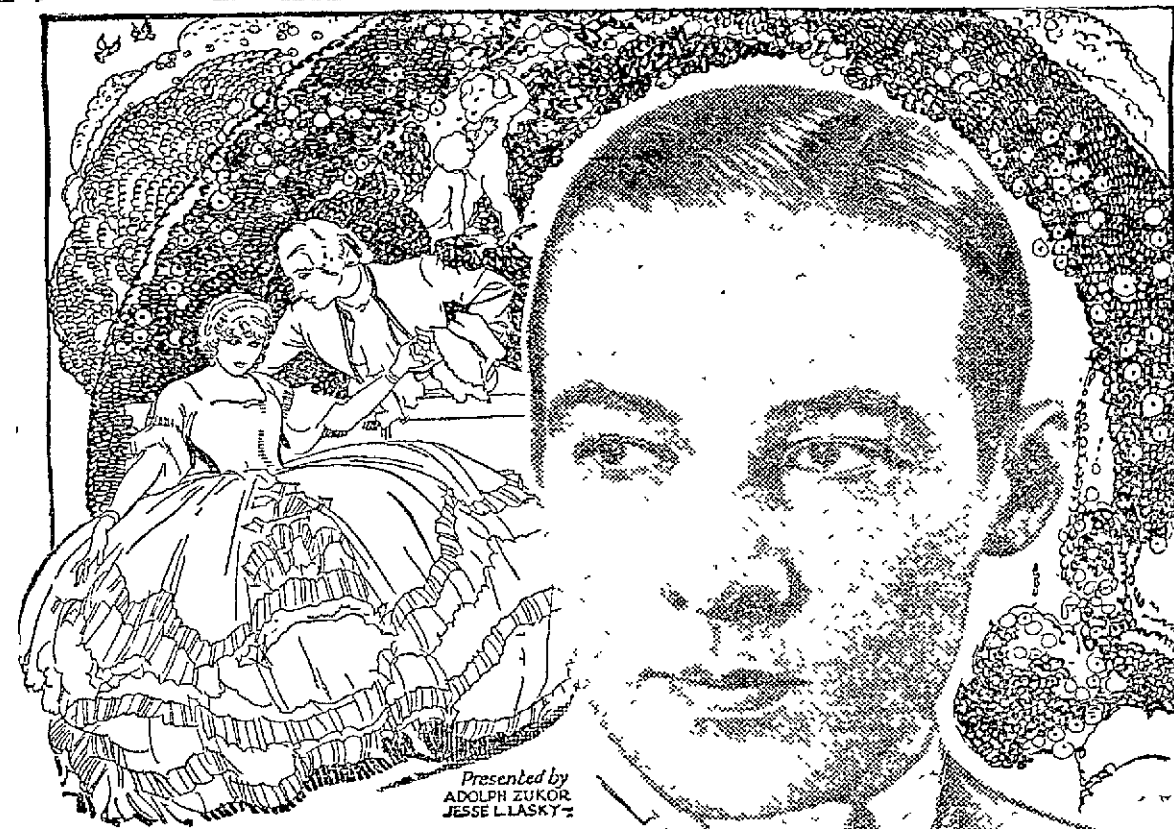

TALMADGE

"Secrets"

Presented by JOSEPH M.
SCHENCK

Eugene O'Brien supports the star—the screen's perfect lovers in a perfect photodrama.
A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION

FISCHER'S APPLETON || STARTING TODAY || Matinee - 2:15 Eve. 6:45 and 9

You've waited two years for Valentino's return, but you'll never see another such gorgeous romance if you wait a lifetime!

A Paramount Picture

RUDOLPH VALENTINO

in "Monsieur Beaucaire"

A SIDNEY OLCOTT PRODUCTION

Dance To These Favorites

"THE ANIMAL FAIR"

And

"GO 'LONG MULE"

By Fenton's Orchestra

on Brunswick Record No. 2693 75c

"HEARTBROKEN"

And

"BURMALONE"

By Vic Meyers and his Orchestra

on Brunswick Record No. 2685 75c

"TEA FOR TWO"

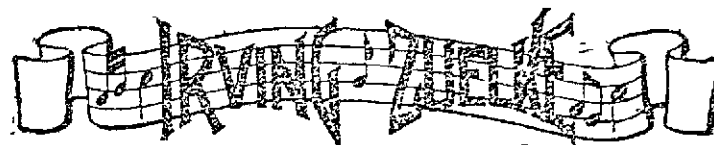

And

"I'VE A GARDEN IN SWEDEN"

By Waring's Pennsylvanians

on Victor Record No. 19438 75c

$5 Down and $5 Per Month Buys a Brunswick, Cheney or Victrola

We will be in our new store, corner of College Ave. and Oneida St., the latter part of this month.

MEN

This Is Intended For You

Hundreds of Men in Appleton are Now Taking Advantage of the "Badger" Service.

Cleaning and Pressing

That Lasts, and Improves
Your Appearance 100%

6 Hour Day Cleaning Service
If Necessary

PHONE 911

Badger Pantorium

CLEANERS AND DYERS

The Most Modern Cleaning Plant in the Fox River Valley 661 Appleton St. Appleton, Wis.

BRANCH STORES

—Rankama— —Newnash—
South, 166 W. Wis. Ave. Tel. 179 117 E. St. Wis. Ave. Tel. 621
North, Third St. Tel. 247 Kimberly Tel. 276412

ALWAYS 10c THE NEW BIJOU 10c ALWAYS

LAST CORINNE GRIFFITH in TIMES "The Single Track" TO-DAY And JIMMY AUBREY COMEDY

3 BIG DAYS, —TUESDAY—WEDNESDAY—THURSDAY

"THE MAN FROM BRODNEY'S"

Adapted From George Barr McCutcheon's Famous Novel, Read by Millions

A GRIPPING MYSTERY ROMANCE OF INDIA SEAS

One of the Best Motion Pictures of the Year in Which Romance Glitters and Lures.

All the Breath of Adventure of the Southern Seas, of Savage Natives, of Erring Husbands, of Faithful Wives and of a Great Sympathetic Love.

Thousands of Brown-Skinned Natives Fired to Fury and Lashed to Furious Hatred of Infidels, Attack a Handful of Whites Led by a Dashing Young American in a Thrilling and Realistic Battle to Protect Their Loved Ones From a Fate Worse Than Death.

THE MOST THRILLING HAND TO HAND BATTLE EVER SHOWN ON STAGE OR SCREEN

I Am Elated Over the Opportunity of Bringing This Great Feature to Appleton.

First Exclusive Showing at NO ADVANCE IN PRICES

FRANK COOK

YOU CAN SEE NO BIGGER, NO BETTER ANYWHERE AT ANY PRICE

Bijou Orchestra Every Matinee and Night
Visit Matinees and Avoid Crowds at Night

A Cast of Stars!

J. WARREN
KERRIGAN

ALICE CALHOUN

WANDA HAWLEY

MISS DuPONT

PAT O'MALLEY

KATHLEEN KEY

EARLY HISTORY OF METHODISM GOING INTO CORNERSTONE

Dr. J. A. Holmes Reads History of Church at Sunday Evening Service

A history of Methodism in Appleton, from the time Lawrence university and the first Methodist Episcopal church was founded until April 23, 1923, when the report of the building committee for the new and third church now under construction was made at the quarterly conference, was read by Dr. J. A. Holmes, pastor, at a historic service in the church Sunday evening.

The record is partly made up of historical statements found in several membership records. This record ceases with the annual conference session held at Appleton, Oct. 13, 1880, when the Rev. S. W. Griffith was appointed to the charge. Dr. J. H. Tippet, present district superintendent of the Appleton district, furnished much data for the subsequent history, especially the names of pastors and the periods they served, which he found in copies of the conference year book in his possession.

The sketch is to be transcribed on to a parchment which is to be placed in this cornerstone of the new church at Drew and Franklin-sts.

The history of Methodism in Wisconsin contains the following paragraph concerning the first church: "The first church erected in Appleton in 1854 and was destroyed by fire just before the hour of service one Sabbath morning in March, 1872. Though it was a sad sight to see a place rendered dear by so many hallowed associations consumed, yet perhaps it was a blessing in disguise." The growing congregation needed a larger place of worship, and, however it might have been but for his fire, all felt the necessity of the immediate erection of a new church.

Part of the early history follows: In August, 1847, R. H. Day, Reader Smith and H. L. Blood traveled over the river from Green Bay for the purpose of fixing upon a location for Lawrence University, which, by the terms of the A. A. Lawrence proposition, was to be located on the Fox River between Lake Winnebago and Green Bay. The examination resulted in a report in favor of Grand Chute for the location of the university, which was adopted by the board of trustees at a meeting held at the house of H. L. Blood in Green Bay shortly after on the fourth day of August, 1848, secured 83 acres of land as the site of Lawrence university.

William H. Sampson, Reader Smith, Hoel S. Wright and H. L. Blood came to Grand Chute and proceeded, as agents for Lawrence university, to survey and plat what is known and recorded as the Appleton plat and the nineteenth day of August, H. S. Blood cleared off ground for the erection of the first shanty in Appleton and commenced with four men to cut a road through the woods to Duck Creek Mills for the purpose of drawing lumber.

The Rock River conference in Kenosha in July, 1848, appointed A. B. Randall to the then Oshkosh mission. August 27, 1848, he visited Appleton, then Grand Chute, and pre-empted a tract of land, erected a log cabin, and moved his wife here in September. Elder Sampson commenced on the seventh day of October, 1848, to cut away the timber and clear off the ground for the erection of the preparatory building for Lawrence university. H. L. Blood contracted with a man at Neenah by the name of Richards to excavate for the foundation of the preparatory building. Elder Sampson and R. R. Bateman erected shanties and moved their families here in 1849. The first class was formed by A. B. Randall, February, 1849, and consisted of eleven members. R. R. Bateman, leader, the Rev. William H. Sampson, principal of Lawrence institute, Mary W. Robert S. and Amelia Bateman, Electra E. Norton, Theresia M. Randall, J. P. Johnston, Catherine Carter and Laura Tuttle. Twenty-nine others joined during the year, mostly by letter as they moved into the place.

The first funeral in Appleton was that of a child of H. N. Day, Oct. 18, 1849. A. B. Randall preached and then assisted in burying the dead.

At the fourth quarterly conference held Feb. 8, 1850, at Oshkosh for the conference year, 1848-49, H. L. Blood was elected steward, the first steward in Appleton. In the fall of 1849 Washington Wilcox was appointed presiding elder of the Fond du Lac district and Cornelius Smith was appointed to

ADVERTISE FOR BIDS FOR SCHOOL LOCKERS

E. L. Williams, city clerk, is advertising for bids on furnishing the junior high schools with steel lockers. This action was authorized by the board of public works which has the charge of the building program. The bids are ordered to be in the clerk's office by 12 o'clock at noon on Dec. 3 at the latest. This is the second time that the board is advertising for bids on lockers.

The Oshkosh mission which still included Appleton. At the conference in the fall of 1850 the Appleton mission was formed. It included Menasha, Neenah, Clayton, Greenville, Hortonville and all of Outagamie-co. William H. Thompson was appointed preacher.

The first quarterly conference for Appleton mission proper, disconnected with Oshkosh, was held in Appleton Sept. 27, 1851.

In the fall of 1852 Samuel Fellows was appointed to the Appleton charge and labored five months with good success, but before much was realized he left for the army with a 100 day regiment as lieutenant colonel. He returned again and was reappointed to Appleton at the conference of 1854, but again was appointed by the governor as colonel of a regiment and remained until the close of the war. He returned just before the conference, when officers of Lawrence university and the citizens sent a unanimous and urgent petition for his return. But the presiding bishop disregarded all petitions.

A description of the present church appeared in an issue of a local paper at the time the church was dedicated. It was furnished by Mrs. H. S. Cooke of Kaukauna, who found the account in an old scrap book owned by her mother, Mrs. Joseph Rork.

The church is described as having "an audience room that is the pride and glory of the whole house. It is 72 feet long, 58 feet wide and 30 feet high, having a seating capacity on ordinary occasions of 750 and on extra occasions of 1,000." "The decoration of the walls and ceiling is fine indeed and elicits the approval and praise of all who look on it. Here again is a mixture of styles being composed of Grecian, Roman and Japanese art. The decoration is very satisfactory and will doubtless continue to be enjoyed for many years to come, as it is of a style that does not wear out or grow tiresome with age." "The seats furnished by the Milwaukee School Furniture company are certainly very comfortable and at the same time handsome." "The gas chandeliers which are used are very much admired by all beholders."

The Womans Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church was organized on Sunday, Nov. 6, 1870, by Mrs. Jennie F. Willing of Evanston, Ill., with 135 members and 60 subscribers to the "Heathen Womans Friend."

On March 23, 1921, plans for the new edifice, now under construction, were started.

Y. M. C. A. OFFICERS MEET IN JANESVILLE

Harwood, Rosebush and Werner Will Attend State Gathering

F. J. Harwood and Judson Rosebush, members of the state board of directors of the Y. M. C. A., will attend the state meeting to be held at Janesville Monday, Oct. 20. This meeting is being held in conjunction with a campaign being put on by the Janesville Y. M. C. A. for $300,000 to be used for building purposes and will open with a banquet on Monday night.

General secretaries of Wisconsin will hold an all-day meeting, beginning early Monday morning and will then meet with the campaign organization at the banquet at night. George F. Werner, general secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., will attend. He is scheduled to lead the discussion and set up a plan on "An Adequate Religious Work Program in the Local Y. M. C. A." The purpose of the secretary meeting is to discuss a program for the Y. M. C. A. for the coming fall and winter.

C. L. Boynton, activities secretary of the Y. M. C. A., sent cards on Friday to members on which they are asked to indicate the activities they would like to take part in. These will become part of the year's program if there are enough interested in each. This also gives him the names of the men interested in an activity so they can be called if it is started. A blank space is left to be used for activities not listed. An effort is being made to get all the members interested in at least one of the many activities on the years program.

BAKER USES YOUNGSTERS TO ILLUSTRATE ADDRESS

A group of upper grade children from the Second district school, under the direction of Miss Irene Bidwell, gave a demonstration of four part singing at the music department meeting of the teachers' convention at Oshkosh on Friday. Dr. Earl Baker, of Lawrence Conservatory, gave a talk on the "Boy Voices," illustrating his principles of voice conservation with a group of boys from the Second and Fourth district schools.

TWO JUNIORS IN TIE FOR CLASS OFFICER

Carl Schiebler was elected president of the Junior class of Appleton high school at a meeting Friday night. John Powell and Darrel Myree tied for the office of vice president, necessitating a second election for this office later on. The other officers are Elizabeth Post, secretary-treasurer, and Dorothy Dunn, class sponsor. Cheer leaders will be chosen at a later meeting.

STICKERS URGE BIG VOTE NOV. 4

Appleton Chamber of Commerce has joined the "get out the vote" movement in this city and will exert its efforts to induce everyone to vote Nov. 4.

To this end the chamber has ordered a large supply of stickers in red, white and blue reading "Vote November 4th" for use on windshields of automobiles. Boy scouts will distribute as many of these as possible.

All car owner are urged by the chamber of commerce to help this movement along. They may have stickers by calling at the office if they do not obtain one in the distribution. These efforts are nonpartisan and are purely an effort to check the yearly dwindling of interest in the elections.

Kansas City Doctor Invents New Truss

New Discovery Heals Rupture Without Operation

A new discovery which, experts agree, has no equal for curative effects in all rupture cases, is the latest accomplishment of the well-known Hernia Specialist, Dr. Andrews 7468 Koch Bldg., Kansas City, Mo. The extraordinary success of this new method proves that it holds and heals a rupture. It weighs only a few ounces. Has no hard gonging pads, no elastic belt, no leg straps, no steel bands, and is as comfortable as a light garment. It has enabled hundreds of persons to throw away trusses and declare their rupture absolutely healed. Many of these had serious double ruptures, from which they had suffered for years. It is Dr. Andrews' ambition to have every ruptured person enjoy the quick relief, comfort and healing power of his discovery, and he will send it on free trial to any reader of the Post-Crescent who writes him. He wants one person in each neighborhood to whom he can refer. If you wish to be rid of rupture for good, without an operation, take advantage of the doctor's free offer. Write him today. The coupon below is convenient.

FREE TRIAL OFFER COUPON

Dr. Andrews, 7468 Koch Bldg., Kansas City, Mo.

Without any obligation whatever on my part, please send me your Free Trial Offer. Here is my name and address.

TRINITY PASTOR IN NEW PARSONAGE

Although the new Trinity English Lutheran church will not be completed for several weeks, the new parsonage which is part of the structure is finished and the Rev. F. L. Schreckenberg and family will move in Monday and Tuesday. They were making their home on 1022 Front-st.

The parsonage faces Allen-st and the church opens onto Kimball-st. The former was designed to conform with the architecture of the church. All of the mason and carpenter work on the church now is finished and only the interior finish needs to be installed and the furnishings put in place. The dedication will be about Dec. 1.

New Beauty Shop
Mrs. Mable Dunne, who operates the Comfort Shop in Pettibone-Peabody company store, will open a

Miller Cords

30x3 1/2 Wedge $9.00
Appleton Tire Shop

beauty parlor in the Conway hotel on Oct. 20. Mrs. Dunne plans to call her parlors "The Dunne Shoppe."

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Milk Bills Are Easier to Pay Than Doctor Bills

The dividends of good milk are the roses in the youngster's cheeks; the sparkle in their eyes and the vigor of their strong, little bodies.

Children kept healthy by drinking plenty of milk avoiding many of the "child's" diseases.

Give them each day as much of our wholesome milk as they can drink.

A glass of our milk is a glass of health.

Valley Dairy Products Co.

QUALITY DAIRY PRODUCTS
579 State St. Phone 2930
"Our Wagon Passes Your Door"

Deal With Appleton's Fastest Growing TIRE SHOP

Firestone Cords

LOWEST PRICES IN HISTORY

FIRESTONE GUM DIPPED CORDS			UTILITY CORDS
Built by Firestone. The best low price tires in Appleton.
30x3 1/2	Clincher	$10.60	30x3 1/2	Clincher	$ 7.95
31x4	S. S.	19.00	31x4		11.95
32x4	S. S.	21.00	32x4		12.95
33x4	S. S.	21.65	33x4		13.95
32x4 1/2	S. S.	27.25
33x4 1/2	S. S.	28.00
34x4 1/2	S. S.	28.69
33x5	S. S.	34.85

Order By Mail
We Pay The Postage

APPLETON FIRESTONE CO.

LOUIS LUTZ, Mgr.
INVITE US TO YOUR NEXT BLOWOUT

Phone 3499 630 Appleton Street

OCTOBER SPECIALS in FLOOR COVERINGS

Oil Window Shades 85c

Excellor oil opaque window shades, in solid colors, 3x6 ft. in size, mounted on guaranteed rollers, in five good colors.

Water Color Window Shades 59c

A service water colored opaque window shade, in 3x6 ft. size, in five good colors, a full value shade, complete with fixtures.

Let us show you our rugs

"Sterling" Carpet Sweepers $2.98

A strong, substantial sweeper. metal case finished in walnut or oak, has strong bristle brush, rubber bumpers on all four corners.

"Bissell" Carpet Sweeper $5.50

"Grand Rapids" is a popular priced sweeper, unexcelled in sweeping efficiency, cycle ball bearing, in brown mahogany finish.

9 x 12 Axminster and Velvet Rugs

Unequalled values in Axminster and Velvet Rugs, seamed or seamless, with or without fringe, all wool deep thick pile, in an excellent choice of patterns and beautiful colorings.

8-3x10-6 at	$39.75	7-6x9 at	$29.75
6x9 at	$19.50	8x9 at	$34.50

$45

Extra Size Room Rugs

These are extra size rugs for large rooms, in Brussels, Axminsters and velvets with or without fringe ends each size showing a good assortment of patterns.

Brussels	Axminsters	Velvets
9x15 ft. size $45.00	9x15 ft. size $59.75	9x15 ft. size $65.00
11-3x12 ft. size $45.00	11-3x12 ft. size $59.75	11-3x12 ft. size $55.00
10-6x12 ft. size $39.75	11-3x15 ft. size $72.50	11-3x12 ft. extra quality $65.00

9x12 ft. Genuine Wilton Rugs $72.50

"Akbar" 9x12 foot Wilton rug—the best low-priced Wilton on the market. Close Wilton weave and all wool pile. Choice of brown, taupe, and tan combinations. Fringed ends.

9x12 ft. Colonial Velvet Rugs $37.50

"Fringed end 9x12 all wool velvet rug—extra thick pile—sturdy weaves. seamless quality. Very choice patterns to choose from—Specially priced at only

Congoleum Rugs Without Border

3x6 ft. size $1.30	6x9 ft. size $3.40
4x4 ft. size $1.69	7-6x9 ft. size $5.65
3x9 ft. size $2.25	9x9 ft. size $6.75
6x6 ft. size $2.60	10-2x12 ft. size $7.90
4x9 ft. size $3.40	9x12 ft. size $9.00
6x9 ft. size $3.90	9x13.2 ft. size $10.15
7-6x9 ft. size $5.65	9x15 ft. size $11.25
9x9 ft. size $6.75

Genuine "Gold Seal" Congoleum Rugs

NOTE—Our regular low prices, on genuine "Gold Seal" Congoleum Art Rugs and Floor Coverings. All first quality, no imperfections or misprints. Satisfaction guaranteed.

6 ft. wide Congoleum	65c square yard
9 ft. wide Congoleum	75c square yard

Stove Squares

4 1/2 x 4 1/2 ft.	$2.25
3x3 ft.	95c

Congoleum Rug Border

24 inch width	48c
36 inch width	59c

Gloudemans-Gage Co.

APPLETON, WIS.
WHERE LOWEST PRICES PREVAIL

Congoleum Rugs With Border

11-6x8 ft. size	35c
3x3 ft. size	95c
3x1 1/2 ft. size	$1.45
3x6 ft. size	$1.85
3x9 ft. size	$2.75
1-8x1-6 ft. size	$2.25
6x9 ft. size	$6.75
7-6x9 ft. size	8.45
9x9 ft. size	$10.25
9x10 1/2 ft. size	$11.85
9x12 ft. size	$13.75
9x15 ft. size	$17.45

APPLETON POST-CRESCENT

VOL. 41. No. 108.
PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE POST PUBLISHING COMPANY,
APPLETON, WIS.
JOHN K. KLING, President
A. B. TURNBULL, Secretary-Treasurer
H. L. DAVIS, Business Manager
ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT APPLETON, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
THE APPLETON POST-CRESCENT is delivered by carrier to city and suburban subscribers for fifteen cents a week, or $7.50 a year in advance. By mail, one month $5c, three months $1.50, six months $2.50, one year $4.00 in advance.
FOREIGN ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
C. LOGAN PAYNE CO.
Chicago, Detroit
PAYNE, BURNS & SMITH, INC.
NEW YORK BOSTON
MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The A. P. is exclusively entitled to the use of publication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.
Circulation Guaranteed
Audit Bureau of Circulations

immigrant American bloods is certain to accelerate.
In Mexico the movement has been the other way—the Indian basic population gradually absorbing Spanish and Negro elements and actually multiplying much more rapidly than the conquering peoples. In Canada the French originally began the policy of amalgamating with the Indians and protecting them, which is today adopted and approved under dominion rule.
A romantic tradition clinging to “the first Americans” has encouraged this tendency in the United States, no stigma of a social sort apparently attaching to the union of white and red blood. The better Indian characteristics—endurance, a certain bold beauty of feature, courage, taciturnity, love of the open—may find their way into the future American “type” which is to evolve out of our component races. Meantime it is interesting to know that the same staying qualities which impelled the Indian of the United States region to fight stubbornly every advance of the overpowering white host are now permitting him to increase in the midst of the strange civilization which has taken over his hunting grounds.

ENGLISH SOCIALISM
By gradual degrees, and thrust onward by an accumulation of circumstances, Great Britain has been approaching its trial of socialism. The Labor party now in power is about to consider the following program of legislation: Nationalization of mines with guarantee of a minimum wage to miners; nationalization of electric power supplies; government food purchase and sale, with the fixing of standard prices; and “full maintenance for the unemployed.”

Socialism is the malcontent's retreat from capitalism when it seems to have failed. Europe blew up a large part of its wealth in war, and since the war Europe has been slow to get the wheels of production in order again. Unlike the United States, England depends chiefly upon the state of world trade for its prosperity and for the condition of its employment. When Europe shut down, capitalism in England had too little to do. Hundreds of thousands lacked jobs, so the government in common humanity taxed wealth to support them. People who had been independent came to have the pauperized psychology of the government ward. The way was paved gradually, through the intermediate ground of doles for unemployment, to the ultimate aim of socialism.

There is little logic in the change. Socialism in England will not, for example, increase the foreign demand for British products. Money paid to keep miners in wages which their own industry does not justify will not come out of thin air. It will have to be taken away from proprietors of other industries at first, in the form of taxes. The load of taxation will decrease the incentive to go out after business. Yet the hope of England lies in the determination of its citizens to rebuild the trade upon which the oversized British population must depend for subsistence. Reducing his determination is merely reducing the total fund of production, and hence the total income to be distributed among Britons everywhere.

But people are seldom rational in revolt. England may eventually carry out the entire socialist program. Even the Daves plan may fail to stem the tide. The United States in a like situation would be a wonderful field for LaFollette. Conditions fortunately are precisely reversed here, the hope of the American workingman resting not upon tax charity but upon the wage opportunities of a still lively and prosperous free industry, largely untouched by the war.

Rats in the pantry cost more than they are worth.
Where there's smoke there are bills for it.
The stuff that dreams are made of is found in the vanity case.
Men who can't fight should have pleasant dispositions.
Many a girl resembles her mother because they wear the same clothes.
“Knowing thyself” isn't much use unless you can convince others.
A wife husband makes his wife do what she wants to do.
A rolling stone may gather no moss, but a still one gathers no flies.
Men who don't pay as they go have a hard time coming back.
He who keeps his foot out of the fire in the middle of the street.
Five your shirt when you put on the slippery side of the water.
It is because the fool vote is the biggest.

DYING REDMAN A MYTH
To many Americans one of the most surprising pieces of statistical information ever handed out was the announcement by the Indian bureau that there are at the present time 346,962 Indians in the United States, or more than there have ever been since the landing of Columbus, and that the Indian population is increasing year by year.
One of our popular errors has been the notion, encouraged by sad novels of extermination, paintings of “the departing red man,” and political propaganda, that the American Indians were a doomed race. Once in a while persons “in the know” have given out statements to the contrary, but these have never carried far enough to counteract the constant flood of sentiment about a vanishing people which isn't vanishing at all.
If the blood of the American Indian ever actually disappears as a separate strain it will not be by extermination, but by amalgamation. As this nation abandons its foolish and costly habit of making dependent wards of Indians, keeping them outside the general citizenship and educating them in special schools, the intermingling of native and

Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

PERSONAL HEALTH SERVICE
THE BRADY BARGAIN
Though I sometimes nearly succumb to some minor matter, on all the big questions I am pretty consistent, for a person who has so much to say. Take for example a few of the hygienic principles or axioms which I uphold and see how perfectly they all dovetail.
1. As a working rule which has no important exceptions overweight is attributable to either insufficient exercise or overeating or an unhappy combination of the two.
2. Within reasonable limitations every individual can determine his own birth rate.
3. A man should marry a plump wife early and if necessary often.
Of course a man might overdo the thing, especially if he himself is inclined to corpulence. The ideal arrangement, from the hygienic viewpoint, is for the husband to be somewhat skinnier. Such a husband can be fairly comfortable at the movies with his own wife. This arrangement conduces to longevity. And a wife can overdo the plump business too. If she keeps on gaining after the age of 30, her present husband will probably have the opportunity of selecting another plump one before very long. Insurance statistics prove this. And if he heeds my advice about picking only the plump ones he may establish quite a record in his life time, provided he is wise enough to control his own birth rate.
A fatish man with a fatish wife is entitled to sympathy and advice. Anybody will give him the advice. I offer him sympathy. The sad thing in such a combination is that the pair are not only enslaved to the ways and wishes of their friends—ways which are seldom the ways of health for fat folk—but also to one another's failings. Each sets the other a poor pace and a bad example in the matter of eating. It requires rare ambition and determination for such a couple to save themselves from drifting on the rocks in the very middle of the race.
I am not entirely certain whether the advent of the family chariot otologically precedes the accumulation of the family corpulence or vice versa, but I strongly suspect it is usually a case of auto-intoxication. Some evidence bearing upon this point will appear here presently in a beauty specialist's column. It, so it must be true.
Two young men finished a thousand mile hike the other day. One had gained five pounds. The other had lost three pounds.
Thousands of sedentary young men drafted from offices and stores gained an average of 12 pounds in the course of the first few months of physical training in the army camps. The gain was muscle tissue. No doubt most of them lost some slack flesh—useless fatty tissue at the same time. Muscle takes up less room than fat. Women keen for a trim figure should know that. The ideal corset is a properly trained set of muscles.
Yet if there is anything that annoys me—there are of course no end of things—it is to receive a request for the Brady Symphony (a set of exercises) from some one who wants to reduce. I have my sympathy for that purpose. What you want is the Brady Exercise Book. That is forthcoming only when I consider that you should reduce, and I take no one's word for that. I must have at least the main dimensions—age, height, weight.
QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Diabetes
Kindly give directions for making a test at home to determine whether a person has sugar diabetes?
Answer—I know of no such test a layman can make.
Sugaring the Baby
How much sugar water given to a baby three months old will harm her? She will not take it unless there is sugar in it, and she always cries for water between feedings. I generally put half a teaspoonful to half a pint of water and always boil the water. (Mrs. J. H.)
Answer—Probably the feeding is faulty. I should not advise putting sugar in water the baby drinks.
Bottles to Fill
I have 12 glass bottles with glass stoppers in a leather case. Kindly tell me what you consider the 12 most important medicines to have on hand for household use. (S. S.)
Answer—Tincture of iodine, aromatic spirits of ammonia, flexible collodion, boric acid, sodium citrate, camphor, glycerin, sesame oil or sweet almond oil, acetylsalicylic acid tablets, Sedlitz, powders, syrup of ipecac or copper sulphate tablets for emetic, and a laxative such as aromatic syrup or phenolphthalein tablets or milk of magnesia.
Can't Find the Path
Let me inform you that an allopathist, is a practitioner of allopathy. Such carping savors of superciliousness and arrogance, an inherent weakness of the profession. (Ever B. Square.)
Answer—Now, if you will explain what allopathy is, we may find out what an allopath is, after all. I merely asserted that the term is a meaningless epithet applied to ordinary physicians by people who are interested in exploiting some special method or system or fad or treatment. It doesn't mean anything—there is no such “school” or method of practice.
(Copyright, National Newspaper Service.)

TODAY'S POEM
By HAL COCHRAN
THE NEWSIE
FROM early in the morning till the late hours of the night you can hear the newsie shouting out his wares. He will tell you of elections, of a ball game, or a fight as his voice the latest newsie doings bares.
Whether wind is blowing briskly or there's calmness in the air; whether snows have put the slush beneath your feet; whether sun is shining brightly, you will find the newsie there, selling news to paper buyers on the street.
Wise the man who keeps his hand on all the doings of the day. Wise the fellow who can tell you what is what. And the wisest of them all will list to what the newsie say and then purchase of the papers that they've got.
Just consider Mister Newsie! He is on his job all day and he sings his printed-matter song. He's the fellow who informs you, when your coat or two you pay, that the world's forever moving right along.
(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

More men have leaped themselves to death than worked themselves to death.
Divorce comes not when they are tired of each other, but when they are not tired of someone else.
Many a pair of pressed trousers haven't a nickel in their pockets.
Some people can't see the point unless you get down to brass tacks.
The anti-everything is all right in his place, which isn't on top of the earth.

SEEN, HEARD

and IMAGINED
---that's all there is to life

IT DOES THAT
“Your eyes! Didst stay up late
Of hour last night to guzzle?”
“Not I, old top, not e'en a drop;
It was a cross-word puzzle.”
Folks may complain about traffic congestion on the Lake-st bridge, but we know some flies who have been in worse jams than that.
Beloit is always bragging what a modern city it is. The only thing up-to-date in that town is the calendar.
Somebody has done the world a favor by inventing a snappy comeback for the old injunction, “Go to hell!” It is “Run your own errands.”
After looking over the society notes of a country newspaper we have come to the conclusion that there are no ordinary weddings any more. Every one now is a “wedding of unusual charm.”
The one drawback about a republic or a democracy is that it provides such excellent opportunities for fool majority rule.
Here's a conundrum: If barbers talk much and women talk more, how much will women barbers talk?
In Vienna they allow you to cuss over a telephone. It's a long way to go, but we know an Appleton dentist who will say it is worth it.
Some people think there has been a letup in crime. They are wrong. For the presidential election is only crowding the murders off the front pages of newspapers.
There is at least one ideal paper in this country. Nothing but propaganda appears on the front page, while murders, thefts, kidnappings, divorces are boiled down and squeezed into obscure corners on the market page. To get a kick, its readers go to the news stand and buy a copy of “True Fiction” magazine.

VERY FAME
Every few days word is passed out that the presidential campaign is about to warm up, but here it is less than a month before election, and even yet it's a very quiet affair.
It's hard to understand why.
All the early signs were for a red hot fight—three major tickets, some good scandals to talk about, some mighty strong talkers to talk about them, vital issues at stake, prohibition and Ku Klux Klan involved—all the ingredients for a first-class disturbance.
But nobody seems more than very mildly disturbed.
Either the voters are wonderfully

The Republicans, the Democrats and the Progressives are each spending from $5,000,000 to $5,000,000 to elect their man, and all the little parties also are spending no trifle. Which leads the pessimist to wonder if there is any man in the country that is worth that much.
A Grand Chute farmer has gone into the real estate business. Finding it impossible to sell his swamp by the acre, he sells it by the cubic yard. On the same basis Appleton should soon grow rapidly in area, for the gentleman is now importing land from Elkart Lake—also by the cubic yard.
ROLLO.

IT'S A WONDER THERE AREN'T MORE SERIOUS ACCIDENTS
THE BIG MAJORITY WHO DO NOT VOTE AT ALL OR VOTE WITHOUT DUE CONSIDERATION
THE SMALL PERCENT WHO TAKE THEIR VOTING DUTY SERIOUSLY FOLKS WHO DON'T PAY ANY ATTENTION TO WHERE THEY ARE GOING
THE DARN THING'S NO GOOD! IT WON'T STAY IN THE ROAD!
GOVT. MACHINERY
OUGHT NOT TO COMPLAIN IF THEY LAND IN THE DITCH

World's News

Told In Brief, Simple Style

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
The Washington National-New York Grants affair has been a good deal more important in the news lately than the World Powers' plan to outlaw war.
President Coolidge, no less, met the Nationals at the railroad station when they got back to Washington with the pennant.
This was more than he did for the Prince of Wales.
The team got a gold key to the city and a loving cup.
The greatest man living couldn't have had more adulation heaped on him than those ball players did.
Anybody who had pool-pooled the demonstration in their honor, seriously would have risked being sadly beaten up.
Yet organized baseball is as commercial as a department store.
None of Washington's players are Washingtonians. Next year, probably some of them will be playing against her.
Suppose any other business man tried to get free advertising base-ball magazines getting that kind of publicity.
The public's excitement over baseball is all right, of course, if the public gets any fun out of it, but for a non-fan it's hard to understand.
WORLD COURT
The aspiration agreement framed by the League of Nations delegates at Geneva will have to be accepted by the league's member-countries before it binds them, and it has one clause that some of them certainly won't like.
The pact, as fixed over to suit Japan, says a country may appeal to the world court even over some purely internal regulation in some other country, if that regulation hurts the interests or feelings of the complainant country—as America's immigration rules hurt Japan's.
The fact that America isn't a league country makes no difference. The world court will consider the complaint just the same, and maybe decide against the complained of country, too.
What may cause a hitch is that Canada, Australia and New Zealand feel about the Japanese just as America feels. So the British probably with fight the Japanese clause and British opposition is so potent it may knock it out.
In that case Japan, instead, is apt to quit.

DARWIN'S SACRIFICE FOR A BOOK
Would you be willing to be seasick for a month or a week for he sake of getting the opportunity to write an important book? This may seem a curious question but is no more curious than the sacrifices that Charles Darwin made for one of his early volumes. To secure the material that later became “The Voyage of the Beagle” he reconciled himself to being seasick not only for a week or for a month for five years!
Seasickness is of a course a funny disease, something that is never taken seriously, and Darwin's sacrifice for the sake of science therefore has not received the attention that it merits. Anyone who is seasick is invariably a joke, to everybody but himself and the idea of someone being seasick for five years seems to many merely an enormous joke.
But rightly considered Darwin's sacrifice was one of heroic proportion, much more heroic than many another spectacular act of bravado that has led to everlasting fame. Anyone who has ever been genuinely seasick can testify that while in that state he would almost be willing to give the world and all its wealth for relief. But Darwin deliberately subjected himself to this misery for five years for the sake of science, thereby displaying a stamina that few persons would possess. And he did this when he was only a young man of 23.
ACCOMPANIED SURVEY CREW
At that age the opportunity came to the future scientist to make a trip around the world in the English government boat, the “Beagle.” The vessel was to make a series of geological surveys in various parts of the world and the captain, himself something of a scientist, invited the young Darwin to go along. Darwin up to that time had been drifting more or less; he had not made much of a record in school and many of his masters felt that he was fooling away his time. Curiously, from our present point of view of him, he had been studying for a time to enter the church, but his heart wasn't in it. He was interested in science and he gave himself unreservedly to that. He attracted the attention of several scientists by the originality of his views and when the “Beagle” was being outfitted his great opportunity came. It proved to be the opportunity of Darwin's life and a large part of all the rest of the work done during his lifetime was based on the investigations made during those five years.
NEVER WITHSTOOD SEASICK-NESS
But he soon found that he was chronically subject to seasickness. He was as much a victim of it on the last day of his cruise as on the first. A person with less stamina or with less interest in his subject would have given it up for a bad job and would have sailed for home after a month or two. But Darwin's passion for science was so great that he was able to endure a five years' seasickness for his sake.
He was in the habit of doing his experimental work in the cabin of the “Beagle” and when the ocean became the least bit rough and sometimes even it was almost as smooth as a mirror, he was forced to leave his experiment to lie down for relief. In this way he worked by fits and spurts during the entire voyage. The only long periods of relief came when he went ashore in South America or on some southern islands to continue his investigations while the “Beagle” was making surveys in port.
But the price he paid in comfort and health during the five years of the voyage was as nothing compared with the price he was forced to pay during all the rest of his long life. As a result of the five years of seasickness he was never a well man again. The experience left its indelible mark and ever after he was hardly more than an invalid. He was able to work only a few hours a day and he was forced to dispose of his time carefully so that he would never overtax his strength.
He had plenty of money to live on and most persons under those conditions would have taken life easy. But Darwin's passion drove him to work unceasingly and his achievement was in proportion to his labors.

JUST A MOMENT
A small piece oforris root will impart a lasting fragrance to handkerchiefs.
James Fenimore Cooper could not write unless he was chewing gumdrops.
Eighty-one London policeman were bitten by dogs while on duty during 1923.
Many people claim that their corns warn them of approaching weather changes.

LADIES' FINE HOSE

All's Well That Wears Well!
FINERY CORAL BAND HOSIERY
FINERY offers these splendid features:—
1. The genuine Stop-a-run Coral Band which prevents garter runs spreading below it.
2. A Repair Service that renews the life of your worn, torn hosiery—at exact cost to us.
3. A Dye Service that's free.

$1.85
MATT SCHMIDT & SON
TWO FLOORS OF GOOD THINGS TO WEAR

Adventures In The Library

By ARNOLD MULDER

DARWIN'S SACRIFICE FOR A BOOK
Would you be willing to be seasick for a month or a week for he sake of getting the opportunity to write an important book? This may seem a curious question but is no more curious than the sacrifices that Charles Darwin made for one of his early volumes. To secure the material that later became “The Voyage of the Beagle” he reconciled himself to being seasick not only for a week or for a month for five years!
Seasickness is of a course a funny disease, something that is never taken seriously, and Darwin's sacrifice for the sake of science therefore has not received the attention that it merits. Anyone who is seasick is invariably a joke, to everybody but himself and the idea of someone being seasick for five years seems to many merely an enormous joke.
But rightly considered Darwin's sacrifice was one of heroic proportion, much more heroic than many another spectacular act of bravado that has led to everlasting fame. Anyone who has ever been genuinely seasick can testify that while in that state he would almost be willing to give the world and all its wealth for relief. But Darwin deliberately subjected himself to this misery for five years for the sake of science, thereby displaying a stamina that few persons would possess. And he did this when he was only a young man of 23.
ACCOMPANIED SURVEY CREW
At that age the opportunity came to the future scientist to make a trip around the world in the English government boat, the “Beagle.” The vessel was to make a series of geological surveys in various parts of the world and the captain, himself something of a scientist, invited the young Darwin to go along. Darwin up to that time had been drifting more or less; he had not made much of a record in school and many of his masters felt that he was fooling away his time. Curiously, from our present point of view of him, he had been studying for a time to enter the church, but his heart wasn't in it. He was interested in science and he gave himself unreservedly to that. He attracted the attention of several scientists by the originality of his views and when the “Beagle” was being outfitted his great opportunity came. It proved to be the opportunity of Darwin's life and a large part of all the rest of the work done during his lifetime was based on the investigations made during those five years.
NEVER WITHSTOOD SEASICK-NESS
But he soon found that he was chronically subject to seasickness. He was as much a victim of it on the last day of his cruise as on the first. A person with less stamina or with less interest in his subject would have given it up for a bad job and would have sailed for home after a month or two. But Darwin's passion for science was so great that he was able to endure a five years' seasickness for his sake.
He was in the habit of doing his experimental work in the cabin of the “Beagle” and when the ocean became the least bit rough and sometimes even it was almost as smooth as a mirror, he was forced to leave his experiment to lie down for relief. In this way he worked by fits and spurts during the entire voyage. The only long periods of relief came when he went ashore in South America or on some southern islands to continue his investigations while the “Beagle” was making surveys in port.
But the price he paid in comfort and health during the five years of the voyage was as nothing compared with the price he was forced to pay during all the rest of his long life. As a result of the five years of seasickness he was never a well man again. The experience left its indelible mark and ever after he was hardly more than an invalid. He was able to work only a few hours a day and he was forced to dispose of his time carefully so that he would never overtax his strength.
He had plenty of money to live on and most persons under those conditions would have taken life easy. But Darwin's passion drove him to work unceasingly and his achievement was in proportion to his labors.

JUST A MOMENT
A small piece oforris root will impart a lasting fragrance to handkerchiefs.
James Fenimore Cooper could not write unless he was chewing gumdrops.
Eighty-one London policeman were bitten by dogs while on duty during 1923.
Many people claim that their corns warn them of approaching weather changes.

Martin Is Speaker At K.C. Dinner

Green Bay Attorney on Program for Annual Landing Day Program

The annual Landing day program and dinner of the Knights of Columbus will be held at 6:45 Monday evening in Elks hall. Attorney John F. Martin, Green Bay, is the chief speaker. The program:

1. Overture, "La Colombe," Ch. Gounod..... Jebe Trio
2. Vocal solo, Selected..... Miss Barbara Kamps
3. Reading, Selected..... Miss Bertha Barry
4. Piano solo, (a) A Russian Folk Song..... Schmitt (b) Waltz in A..... Levitzki
5. Address, Supreme Director..... Mr. John F. Martin
6. Violin solo, Meditation "Thais"..... Masseret..... F. H. Jebe
7. Vocal Solo, (a) My heart is Singing..... Sun Souci (b) The Road that Brought You to Me..... Handlen
8. Who Knows..... Ernest R. Ball
9. Soprano and Tenor solo..... Miss Myrtle Farrell and Mr. Harold McGilgan.
10. Miss Beatrice Farrell, accompanist
11. America..... By Audience
12. Social and Dancing..... Music by Jebe Orchestra.

Stag Party At Formal Opening Of Club Rooms

The formal opening of the new club rooms in Moose temple will be celebrated with a stag party on Tuesday evening. The regular meeting, which is scheduled for that night, probably will be dispensed with. Accommodations for billiards, pool and card playing have been included in the new rooms. Special entertainment is to be provided for the opening night.

PARTIES

Misses Ella and Martha Proelhaus entertained at a Halloween party at their home, 526 Hancock-st. Saturday evening. Prizes at dice were won by Miss Martha Mooth and Arthur Sylvestor. Dancing also provided entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Rasey and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Heins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rohan at a dinner Sunday at the Rohan summer cottage at Berry lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bealieu, 770 Foster-st., entertained a number of their friends Sunday evening in honor of their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary. Prizes at cards were won by Mrs. Louis Watson, Josepa Schultz and Mrs. Peter Dietzen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rankin entertained a group of friends at cards at their home, 331 Richmond-st., Sunday evening. Prizes were won by Joseph Heide, Miss William Keller and William Keller, Jr.

Mrs. C. J. Waterman and Miss Irma Sherman entertained at a luncheon and bridge party at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Waterman home, 479 Theodore-st. Covers were laid for 30. Prizes at bridge were won by Miss Isabelle Wilcox and Miss Pauline Beciwith.

Miss Eunice Rehfeldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Rehfeldt, 970 Spring-st., entertained ten little friends Friday afternoon on her fourth birthday anniversary. Games provided the entertainment.

Mrs. Carl Rehfeldt, 970 Spring-st., entertained 12 ladies Friday evening at a shower for Mrs. Walter Prepp. Prizes at schafkopf were won by Mrs. Alfred Bemedum and Mrs. Otto Kluth and at dice by Mrs. George Verhoven and Mrs. Eugene Harris.

PICNICS

A group of baseball players from the Madison stables rode to Shore Acres for a picnic Sunday afternoon. During the afternoon racing and jumping contests were indulged in. Those who rode were Merceds Peerboom, Claire Rossmoissel, Margaret and Dorothy Staben, Anna McKenny, Marie Haug, George Hannagan and Albert Madison.

Social Calendar For Tuesday

- 2:00—Deaconess board, First Congregational church, church parlors.
- 2:30—Women of Mooseheart Legion Tuesday Afternoon club, Moose temple.
- 4:00—Womans Home Missionary society, Methodist Episcopal church, Mrs. J. A. Holmes, 737 Lawrence-st.
- 6:00—Missionary tea, Methodist Episcopal church.
- 7:15—Troop No. 8 boy scouts, First Congregational church.
- 7:30—Appleton chapter, Masonic order, Masonic temple.
- 7:30—Cheerful Helpers, German Methodist church, Mrs. George Knechtel, 767 North Division-st.
- 7:30—Catholic Order of Foresters Catholic home.
- 8:00—Open card party, J. T. Reeve garage, Knights of Pythias hall.

Directoire Influence

If you are tired of the straight line in coats, here is something different with a suggestion of the Directoire period. The bodice is snug, but the skirt part is cut so that it implies gracefully about the feet. This is made of fabric fur with a collar of slunk.

Baptist Y. P. S. Names Dittmore As Its Leader

Harold Dittmore was reelected president of the Young Peoples society of the Baptist church at a regular business meeting Friday evening. Mildred French was elected vice president, Lucretia Zimmerman, secretary, and Harold Eads, treasurer. New committees were appointed and the society was reorganized in preparation for this year's work. A social program took place after the business meeting.

CARD PARTIES

An open card party will be given at 8 o'clock Tuesday night by the J. T. Reeve circle, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, in Knights of Pythias hall. Bridge, schafkopf and dice will be played and refreshments are to be served.

WEDDINGS

A pretty church wedding took place at 1:30 Thursday afternoon at St. John Evangelical Lutheran church of Center when Miss Marie Kitzke became the bride of William Sachs. Both young people live at Center. Miss Luella Vitt, Miss Hulda Sachs, Harry Kitzke and Roman Sachs were the attendants. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. Werner. Those from Appleton at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. William Palatich, Richard Sykes and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sachs. Supper was served in the evening to about 80 friends and relatives.

Announcement is made by Mrs. Anna Kober, 15 Sherman pl., of the marriage of her daughter Lauretta on Oct. 11 to H. A. Havens, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., now living in Appleton.

Miss Margaret Nicholson, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Nicholson 504 John-st., was married at 9 o'clock Saturday night to Frank S. Williams of Kenosha. The ceremony, which took place at the Nicholson home, was performed by Dr. J. A. Holmes pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Williams who has been studying at Boston Theological seminary, is pastor of the Methodist church at Kingman, Ariz., where the young couple will live.

Miss Dorothy Hackworthy was maid of honor and Leonard Hendrickson was best man. The ringbearer was Benjamin Seaborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seaborne. The wedding march was played by Miss Margaret Erbe pianist and Mrs. Harold Tunison, violinist. Before the ceremony Miss Gertrude Erbe sang, "Perfect Love," and after the ceremony she sang a benediction. Active members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, of which the bride is a member, served refreshments following the service. The house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Mead and sons, Woodstock, Ill.; Frank Mead, Gleno, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Gallup, Kenosha, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, daughter, Catherine, and sons, Robert and Joseph, Chicago; Mrs. Lois Hammond, Madison; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. MacFarland, Milwaukee.

U.C.T. Has Initiation Of Large Class

United Commercial Travelers initiated a class of candidates Saturday afternoon as a part of the meeting of council of the Fox river valley here Saturday. W. D. Mowry of Kansas City, Kans., councillor of the grand lodge and a large number of state officers were in attendance. Ladies of the visiting delegates were entertained by the local women at a card party in the Conway hotel Saturday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Swope of Oshkosh, Mrs. Carl Skow of Racine, Mrs. Robbler of Green Bay and Mrs. Purves and Mrs. George Ewen of Appleton. State officials who were present at the meeting included Grand Councilor Frank Nolte of Oshkosh; Grand Junior Councilor Thomas Craig, Green Bay; Grand Secretary L. G. Everson, Milwaukee; Grand Sentinel Carl Skow, Racine and George Ewen of Appleton, member of the grand executive committee.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

The Womans Home Missionary society of Methodist Episcopal church will have a thank offering meeting at the parsonage with Mrs. J. A. Holmes at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Tuesday evening the usual missionary tea will be held at the church. The official board of the church has reserved a table at the missionary tea at 6 o'clock Tuesday night. This will be followed by a meeting of the board. The finance committee has made arrangements for a meeting following that of the board members.

The Deaconess board of the First Congregational church will have its regular meeting at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the church. Special efforts have been made to secure a large attendance as new and important issues are to be discussed at this time.

Mrs. Ida Knoke, Linwood-ave., entertained a group of women of Mount Olive Lutheran church at her home Friday evening. The time was spent sewing articles for the Lutheran orphanage at Wauwatosa.

Candidates for election to membership will be balloted on at the regular meeting of boy scouts of the First Congregational church, Troop No. 8, at 7:15 Tuesday evening in the church. Scout tests and games will take up the remainder of the evening.

The Rev. Fr. Camillus gave an address in English at a meeting of the Christian Mother society of St. Joseph church in the church Sunday afternoon. This was followed by a social hour in St. Joseph hall.

The Cheerful Helpers of the German Methodist church will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening with Mrs. George Koehler, 767 North Division-st. A social hour has been planned.

CLUB MEETINGS

The Women of Mooseheart Legion Tuesday afternoon club will meet at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon in Moose temple to play bridge, schafkopf, five hundred and dice. The hostesses are Mrs. Gustave Zuehlke, Mrs. George Culligan, Mrs. Robert Abendrota, Mrs. James Richmond and Mrs. Edward Ward.

TRAINING CAMP VETS FORM CLUB AT COLLEGE

A new club, an outgrowth of the Citizens Military Training camp which the war department obtains every summer has been formed at Lawrence college and is known as the Lawrence post of the Citizens Military Training Camp association. It was organized during the summer at Camp Custer, Mich., by Lawrence men at camp. The following men were elected temporary officers: Commander, Chester Seftenberg, '26; vice commander, Ben Kemnitz '26; secretary-treasurer, Maurice Peerenboom, '27. These officers have requested Lawrence students who are graduates of 1924 camp or of any previous camp to hand in their names in order that permanent organization of the Lawrence post may be effected as soon as possible. It is the purpose of this group to create and maintain interest in the future camps as well as in maintaining the fellowship developed by its members while in camp.

Miss Eleanor Patzer and Miss Loretta Kerrigan spent Sunday at Wau-paca.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Brereton of Madison, were guests of Mrs. Brereton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Grant, 1248 DeForest-ave., over Sunday.

The Purity of Cuticura Makes It Unexcelled For All Toilet Purposes

Fresh Mushrooms
Alligator Pears
Home-made Sausage
Jone's Pork Sausage
Brussels Sprouts
Fresh Oysters
And All Good Things to Eat
Phone 200

Century Club Has Its First Party Oct. 28

Three formal parties of the season's series have been arranged by officers of the Century club, the new social organization which began its activities last winter. The first is a Halloween party on Tuesday, Oct. 28, at Elk hall with music by Mellorimba orchestra. The others will be a Thanksgiving party on Friday, Nov. 23, and a Christmas party on Tuesday, Dec. 20. Parties for 1925 are to be arranged later. The club has 60 men as members, making the attendance of 160 at each party.

Melvin Gahrke, who is attending the University of Wisconsin, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gahrke, 933 Lake-st. B. F. Ward, who has sold his home at 317 Morrison st., will leave with his family for Los Angeles, Calif., as soon as he has disposed of his household furnishings.

LODGE NEWS

Appleton chapter, No. 47, of the Masonic order will have its regular meeting at 7:30 Tuesday evening in Masonic temple. The mark master mason degree is to be conferred.

The Fox River Furniture Dealers association will meet at a 6:30 dinner Monday evening at Manitowoc. Important business is to be discussed.

A meeting of bowlers will follow the regular meeting of Catholic Order of Foresters Tuesday evening in Catholic home. The Foresters meeting is scheduled for 7:30.

About 60 members of Deborah Rebekah lodge attended a meeting of the Oshkosh lodge Saturday night. A supper was served at 8 o'clock and was followed by a social meeting.

The young members of Junior Mooseheart chapter No. 14 plan to earn ten cents each to buy gifts to be used at the Moose bazaar this fall. This was decided upon at a meeting of the chapter Saturday afternoon in

Three Club Groups Will Meet Tonight

The Lingerie club of Appleton Womans club will meet at 7 o'clock Monday night in the clubhouse with Mrs. Dan Stansbury as instructor. A large number of girls have joined this class.

The girls who bowl at the Elk al-leya will have an important business meeting following the regular bowling period Monday night. Girls who bowl at the Arcade alleys held their business meeting last week.

The second meeting of the class in European dancing will take place at 7 o'clock Monday in the playhouse. Miss Doris Ewell, instructor in physical education, is the leader of the group.

Moose temple. The chapter accepted an invitation to visit the Fond du Lac chapter on Thursday, Nov. 13, and plans to make the trip in autos.

DODGES CAR BUT RUNS INTO HOUSE

The residence of George Stenis, 1092 Eighth-st., was struck by a Chevrolet touring car driven by Martin

Coenen, Rural Route 1, Appleton, Sunday morning. Mr. Coenen was driving north on Locust-st and at the corner he met a car coming from the west, on Eighth-st, and to avoid a collision with this vehicle, Mr. Coenen turned aside suddenly. His car climbed the curb and ran against the Stenis home. The damage to the car consisted of broken wheel and two tire blowouts. No one was injured.

CHECK THAT COLD NOW

TAKE FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

ALL PURE FOOD

OVER 60 YEARS IN USE FOR COLDS AND COUGHS

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

A Food Medicine

AUTUMN REVIEW of Home Delights

After long weeks of preparation we find our store now ready to receive you and delight you with beautiful new furniture. Because we know you wish to have your home excel in taste and comfort we are anxious that you see these displays where the choicest furniture is on view. Make provisions now for a joyous fall and winter in your home.

Small Pieces of Great Charm

The doorbell tinkles. Guests arrive. Ah, that will be an oft-repeated occurrence from now on. For it's the season when folks crave companionship and love to visit in one another's homes. Have you everything you need to make entertaining a pleasure? We've tea carts and convenient tables, footstools, hook troughs and dunks, gracious odd chairs and hundreds of lovely lamps. Really, you should visit now while the new pieces are in largest variety. It is surprising how these little things succeed in perking up a room.

New Suites Pledged to Home Beauty

Cold weather will be arriving in a twinkling, then the home will find itself exceedingly popular. Make yours one that folks will be loath to leave in its warm beauty. We have just received many handsome period Suites and feel that this is the proper time to enhance homes with them since the long season of indoor days is just now opening. Your family will take greater pride in the home as the result of your efforts to beautify it now.

SAECKER-DIDERRICH CO.

Interior Decorations
Furniture Rugs Draperies

From our model rooms you will glean suggestions for your home this autumn. New colors, new trends in furniture, novel ornaments for table and wall, the fashionable thing in lamps—all are revealed on our second floor.

Make it a special point to see all of our advertisements this month. They'll hold interesting news for you.

KAUKAUNA NEWS

Melvin Trams Telephone 329-J
Kaukauna Representative

LEGION DISPOSES OF HARDEST FOE BY VICTORY OF 7 TO 0

Manitowoc Shipyard's Team Holds Kaukauna Scoreless
After First Quarter

Kaukauna.—The American Legion football team disposed of its hardest and most important battle of the season Sunday afternoon when it hammered out a 7 to 0 victory over the loaded Manitowoc squad. The Shipyard team lived up to all expectations and managed to keep the legionnaires away from their goal after the first quarter. With its customary pep, the legion worked the ball over the line in the first seven minutes before the visitors had time to become acquainted with the locals' style of playing.

After that Kaukauna held the advantage in offensive and defensive football but was unable to pierce the Manitowoc line consistently enough to add another touchdown. Twice the team was close enough for drop kicks but two attempts by Quarterback Mertes failed by inches. Once the legion lost the oval on downs after it had been forced inside by Manitowoc's five yard line.

In the last quarter the invading squad brought up an aerial attack that opened the Manitowoc rosters to their feet calling for a touchdown. Long passes put the oval on Kaukauna's 35 yard line when Smith intercepted a pass by making a leaping catch as the pigskin bounded off the upturned hands of a Manitowoc player. After that Kaukauna kept the oval well inside Manitowoc's 40 yard line.

As is usually the case when two strong teams are matched, there were a number of injuries. Time was called repeatedly while players were taken out of the game or revived sufficiently to continue the battle. The pastime was marred considerably by entirely too much haggling on the part of Manager Herle of Manitowoc who acted as umpire and who attempted to call Kaukauna for violation of every technicality in the rule book.

Every fan recognized "Red" Pahl, a Manitowoc player, who was said to be a leader in attempts of Manitowoc players to put their opponents out of commission in last season's games and he was given a lot of attention when he went into the game during the first quarter. Pahl starred for his team. He was in on every defensive play. "Red" did not live up to his reputation, though, since he played hard every minute without resorting to "dirty" tactics.

HUGE CROWD IN KAUKAUNA FOR MONTHLY FAIR

Parade and Band Concert Enliven Day for Farmers and Visitors

Kaukauna.—The monthly stock fair, held Saturday on Dodge and the street entertainment provided in connection by officials of the Tri County Stock Fair association brought large crowds into the city. The number of farmers at the fair was only a little larger than usual but hordes of visitors came to Kaukauna.

Music was furnished all day by the Oneda Indian band. In the morning the band headed a parade in which approximately 500 children marched. One group of about 350, formed a mammoth human flag while others followed carrying flags of every nation on the globe. The Indians on horseback followed.

Clinton A. Price of Mauston and Gus Brickbauer, president of the Wisconsin Cheese Producers' Federation were among the speakers of the day. All spoke on topics of interest to the farmer.

People with more adventurous spirit had an opportunity to sail into the air in an airplane, since the management of the fair had contracted to have a plane here.

PIONEERS OBSERVE GOLDEN JUBILEE

Kaukauna.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Hurst, Sr., was celebrated at the Hurst home on Deuelville hill Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derus, Sr., reaffirmed their marriage vows at 8 o'clock mass Saturday morning in St. Mary church, the Rev. Conrad Ripp officiating. A reception for relatives was held Saturday afternoon and evening, about 35 attending.

KAUKAUNA HIGHS SCORE 19-0 WIN OVER MENASHA

Orange Team Works Smoothly to Down Invaders Before Large Crowd

Kaukauna.—The high school football squad won a well earned 19 to 0 victory over Menasha high before a booming crowd Saturday afternoon on the local park. The term "well earned" does not necessarily indicate that the teams were well matched. Although Menasha put up a good fight, it had practically nothing that was equal to Coach Smith's eleven. The Orange and Black gridder made a well earned victory through their own rather ragged playing.

It was a hectic game and time after time Kaukauna carried the pigskin near the goal only to lose it on fumbles. At times the team showed wonderful flash and made up for its raggedness. Menasha wormed the ball down the field enough to get first down about twice, aided by about 40 yards of penalties inflicted on over anxious Kaukauna players. During its period of brilliant playing, however, orange-crested warriors broke through the visitors' paperlike line and tossed the runners for great losses. Menasha lost approximately 50 yards in that fashion. The invaders, also, were penalized about 40 yards.

In the first quarter, the locals were completely off form and in addition lost out on every break of the game. Menasha, however, was unable to come within dangerous territory. In the second quarter the boys held the oval more carefully and went over the line for two touchdowns.

"Midge" Miller quarterback, was one of the heroes of the game. In the first quarter he was apparently unnecessarily trampled under the feet of a Menasha player but stuck to his job. Shortly afterward a Menasha half back broke through the Kaukauna line and ran to the Orange and Black's 20 yard line before Miller downed him. The tackle knocked Miller out and he was carried from the field and for a while it was feared he was severely injured.

Macroe played a whale of a defensive game and made good runs but Kilgas was especially conspicuous during the last half. Quarterback Bayorezon hammered continually at Menasha's right side and Kilgas was good for from 15 yards at every try. Sterling interference aided considerably as Kilgas gained ground.

Bonyo and Beyer are without doubt the most consistent players on the team. Gonro plays left tackle and Beyer right end. These two boys are mixed up in most of the plays. Others on the team also contributed their efforts, especially when on the defensive and Menasha had little chance.

The lineups at the beginning of the game were: Menasha—Saacker, left end; McLaughlin, right end; Landskron, left tackle; Schall, right tackle; Farbach, left guard; Chapman, right guard; Hess, center; Remmel, quarterback; Smith, left half; Moeil, right half; Jansen, full back.

Kaukauna—Peters, center; Mole, left guard; Tullock, right guard; Gonro, left tackle; Lecht, right tackle; Smith, left end; Beyer, right end; Miller, quarterback; Kilgas, left half; Macroe, right half; Farwell, full back.

MISS KROMER IS BRIDE AT KAUKAUNA

Kaukauna.—One of the prettiest autumn weddings of the season took place at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church when Miss Viola Kromer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berta Kromer, became the bride of Mr. Arthur Freder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Freder. The Rev. Paul Oestli was officiating pastor. The wedding took place on the forty-second wedding anniversary of Mrs. Berta Kromer, the bride's mother.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Prof. Theodore Boettcher. The couple was attended by Miss Norma Kromer, sister of the bride, and Volter Freder, brother of the bridegroom. Eunice Starke and LaVerne Kromer, nieces of the bride, were flower girls and ring bearers. Gilbert Starke and Clifford Kemp acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 154 E. Third-st. A four course dinner was served to about 60 guests. The home was prettily decorated in pink and white and with small. Out of town guests included:

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. William Hassett, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hassett, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mulhany of West Allis, Frank Doerfler, Appleton, Mrs. Chris Warrington, Hortonville, the Rev. G. A. Westerbe, Watertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Freder left Sunday on a short honeymoon trip to Milwaukee. They will reside in Kaukauna.

Reuel John, George, Nick Joseph Fred and Bernard Hurst all of Kaukauna. There also are 10 grand children and 8 great grandchildren. When Miss Zeulien and John Hurst were married on Oct. 12, 1874, there were only Catholic missions at Kaukauna and Darboy. They were married at Darboy, and went to housekeeping in a pioneer homestead, which they still occupy. At that time Kaukauna was but a little village on the north side of the river in good health. Nine of twelve children are living. They are Henry Hurst, Dover, Idaho; Mrs. Fred, of the city now stands.

ARMED TRIO MAKES AUTOIST DRIVE TO WISCONSIN RAPIDS

Mission of Strange Men Has Not Been Learned—Robert Byer Drove Car

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—Robert Byer, a resident of the vicinity of Ogdensburg was driving to his home from Ogdensburg Thursday night between 8 and 9 o'clock, when three men stepped out of the brush along the roadside and halted him, got in his Ford and forced with the use of a gun pressed at his side, to drive to Wisconsin Rapids. When near the city they got out, with the warning to Byer to drive on, but when he attempted to turn toward the city several shots were fired through the top of the car. Sheriff Svenson has found no trace of the men. Mr. Byer stated he was in no way molested except for being forced to drive to Wisconsin Rapids. Ball of $1,000 was supplied Saturday by Miss Lucy, who was arrested last week on a moonshine charge. Mr. Lucy is now at liberty awaiting trial in circuit court before Judge Parks next month.

Eight players remain in the Waukegan golf tournament; play resumed Sunday to determine who are to compete in the finals. The players remaining and the handicaps are: S. W. Johnson, scratch; J. E. Campbell, scratch; Roy Holly, scratch, C. Carroll, 15; F. R. Fisher, 2; Ralph Hoffman, 5; A. M. Christensen, 8; S. Holman, 9. The new course is in excellent shape and by the last of the week Waukegan will know who is to be the first city champion in another year a suitable cup will be presented to the winner. However, the golf club has made a creditable showing in its first year of existence.

A. J. Rieck, editor of the Waukegan Chronicle, was in the city Friday.

Miss Arlita Stillman returned from Milwaukee after visiting her sister since Sunday. She has now resumed her duties at the Fair store.

Mrs. William Doerfler and son Gordon arrived from a few days' visit in the northern part of the state.

Miss Rose Jensen made a business trip to Waukegan Friday afternoon.

MANY PRIESTS ASSIST AT ADORATION SERVICE

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Darboy—Thirteen hours adoration at Holy Angels Church was well attended. The following priests assisted the pastor, the Rev. J. W. Husslein at the services: The Rev. Deane, Rev. George Heimer, Mackville; Father Cleier Hilbert, John Hummel, Menasha; J. Welk, Menasha; Father Pacificus, Appleton; Father Polaczek, Menasha; Father Costello, Indiana; Conrad Ripp, Kaukauna; Msgr. Lochman and Edward LeBloux, Kaukauna; Father Sheuer, Mackville; Father Grler, Hilbert; Msgr. Fitzmaurice, Appleton; George Clifford, Menasha; Paul Horn, Stockbridge; F. L. Ruessman, Appleton; F. V. Van Nistelroy, Cornelius Pymakers, Kimberly; John J. Sprangers, Little Shute; Father Pufahl, Whitelaw; Francis Kernan, Appleton.

Misses Marie and Eleanor Uttenbroek were visitors at Holy Hill Sunday.

The Rev. Joseph Herbst of St. Nazianz, called on his sister, Miss Anna Herbst recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alois Bruex and sons Robert, Normand, Victor and John were visitors at Shawano Sunday.

Jacob Haak and John Behling spent a few hours hunting and also called on Mr. and Mrs. William Behling at Wittenberg last Sunday.

Edward and Joseph Koleck of Sherwood, called on friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Ashauer and daughter of Appleton, spent several days here with Ashauer Brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gregorius and Mr. and Mrs. John P. Dietzen and sons and John, Jr., attended the chicken dinner at Greenville last Sunday.

Edward Shafer of Mt. Calvary, called on his brother John here Sunday.

Barrett J. Graff will serve on the Calumet jury which will convene on Nov. 17.

Henry Hein of Sherwood, called on friends here Sunday.

Darboy defeated Brillion All Stars here last Sunday by a score of 5 to 6. This was the second defeat for the visitors out of three games. Sauer, Dorschner and Zander were in battery for Brillion while George Povan and John Massard worked for the locals. Next Sunday the team will go to Stockbridge for the last game of the season.

Miss Theresa Hartshorn of Appleton, and John Hartshorn of Sherwood spent Sunday at the home of their father, Mike Hartshorn.

The American legion dance takes place at Graff hall on Monday evening, Oct. 13, with music by Menning's orchestra.

WOMAN BREAKS WHIST
IN FALL FROM LADDER
Bear Creek—Mrs. Jennie Sweeney of Bear Creek fell from a step ladder and suffered a broken wrist. Mrs. Mary Hiker is in Maple Creek, caring for her sister, Mrs. Mose Anthony, who has been very ill.

NEW LONDON NEWS

R. V. Pahl Phone 134-J
New London Representative

ACCIDENT VICTIMS ALL WILL RECOVER

Miller and Anderson, Hurt in Fond du Lac, Will Be in Hospital Some Time

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The three New London men who were injured in an automobile-street car collision in Fond du Lac on Sunday Oct. 5, are recovering nicely. Of the three who were injured, Bernard Miller, Louis Anderson and John Herres, Jr., Mr. Herres was the most lucky, receiving only slight bruises and a gash above the left eye. He was released from the Fond du Lac hospital and returned to his home on Wednesday, Oct. 8. Upon developing of the X-ray pictures, taken the morning following the accident, it was found that Mr. Miller had suffered a broken arm and leg, and that Mr. Anderson suffered a fractured skull.

Owing to the necessity of rebreaking Mr. Miller's leg, he will be confined to the hospital longer than originally. Mr. Anderson submitted to an operation and had a piece of his skull removed, but is now resting nicely, and is expected to recover.

SOCIAL WHIRL IN NEW LONDON

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Plans are being rapidly completed for the big chicken supper and dance to be put on by the church of the Most Precious Blood in the Catholic parish hall on Oct. 29. Nearly all of the prizes have been accumulated and are now on display in the show window of the Pomeroy and Cline store.

Miss Loretta Rice entertained the Saturday evening in honor of the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Charles Rice. A pleasant evening was spent at playing five hundred and schafkopf. Those present were: Fanny Butler, Mrs. Will Butler, Miss Josephine Hickey, Mrs. George Cline, Mrs. Leonard Cline, Mrs. Catherine O'Donnell, Mrs. Charles Kische, Mrs. Louis Guyette, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. A. Melkielejohn, Mrs. Anna Deane, Mrs. Peter Dermbach, Mrs. J. W. Hickey, Mrs. Elizabeth Moriarty, Miss Katabel Croak, Mrs. Matt Clark, Mrs. Peter Schetter, Mrs. John Freiburger, Mrs. Addie Langdon, Mrs. Bert Schaller, Mrs. Jacob Werner, Mrs. William Walmer and Miss Mayne Koeding of Milwaukee.

The ladies of the Catholic church will hold a meeting at the parish hall on Wednesday Oct. 15. Hostesses will be Mesdames G. Melkielejohn, Anna Waushesock, Anna Smith, Ida Schaller, Barbara Schaller, John Klingert and Bert Schaller.

Autumn Leaf club will meet with Mrs. Leonard Cline Tuesday afternoon Oct. 14.

STOMACH UPSET? Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

WEBB HURT WHEN BUS COLLIDES WITH AUTO

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waukegan—E. Webb escaped serious injury about 7:30 Thursday morning when his Ford car was struck by the red and yellow Appleton-Waukegan bus. Mr. Webb was crossing Pine-st on Alford-st when the bus came down the hill and hit the front end of his car. The impact knocked Mr. Webb out through the rear of the car onto the ground, breaking his glasses and bruising his shoulder a little. The front of the Ford was smashed and a wheel broken off. Mr. Webb is nightman at the electric light and power plant.

H. N. LAFLIN WILL ADDRESS ROTARY

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The New London Rotary Club's regular meeting, which was to take place Monday, has been postponed and will be held at Elwood hotel on Thursday of this week. At this meeting Herbert N. Laflin of Milwaukee, the district governor of the Rotary, will be the guest of honor and will give the address.

NEW LONDON PERSONALS

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—A number of pupils of the local high school autowed to Manawa on Saturday to witness the football game.

The Rev. Richard J. Olson returned during the latter part of last week from Waterloo, where he attended a conference of the Synod of the Northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Schroeder and family of Antigo, are visiting at the Hubert Shaw home.

Mrs. L. J. Manske and Miss Elizabeth Arndt attended the football game at Manawa Saturday.

Erwin Spiegelberg of Oshkosh, visited relatives at New London Sunday.

Roy Stratton of Oshkosh, visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stratton Sunday.

Roy Runnels and family and John Platz and family visited at Richford and Coloma Sunday.

Miss Ramona McGregor, who is attending Lawrence college, spent the weekend at home.

Will Manske and family visited at Dale Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Smith, Miss Ida Stroob and Mrs. Clyde Warner of Ogdensburg, were New London shoppers Saturday.

Miss Mayne Koeding of Milwaukee, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Moriarty.

Mr. and Otto Fisher and Mrs. Milla Smith spent Sunday at Keshena Falls.

George Smith was a visitor at Kaukauna and Green Bay Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melkielejohn of Manawa, visited in New London Sunday.

Thomas Doran, contractor, who has finished his paving job at Waukegan, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Moriarty. Mr. Doran is enroute to Crystal Lake, Ill. where he has a large paving contract.

FIEDLER TRANSFERRED TO KAUKAUNA DEPOT

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Otto Fiedler, local agent of the Chicago and Northwestern railway, has been transferred to the Kaukauna office. This is a promotion for Mr. Fiedler. He is secretary of both the Blue lodge and chapter of the Masonic order here. Mrs. Fiedler and daughter Dorothy will continue to reside here until next June.

BARBARA KAMPS Teacher of VOICE and PIANO

Tel. 1460 944 Seventh-st

MARGARET SMITH BRIDE OF MUNGER AT WAUKEGAN

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Miss Margaret Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Smith, was married to Rex Munger of Waukegan, at Waukegan, Ill., Saturday afternoon. The couple is spending its honeymoon in Chicago and expects to return to this city Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Munger will spend some time with the bride's parents and will make their home at either Minneapolis or Milwaukee, as Mr. Munger has business connections at both places.

W. R. C. WILL ATTEND DISTRICT CONVENTION

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The seventeenth annual convention of the fourteenth district of the Womans Relief corps, department of Wisconsin, is to be held at Marion Saturday, Oct. 18. The New London corps plans to attend. A special meeting will be held at Odd Fellow hall on Thursday, Oct. 16. All members and officers are expected to attend to prepare for inspection.

EVEN OPERATION FAILED TO HELP

So Mrs. Feist Turned to Tanlac and Got Relief.

"That Tanlac should bring back my health after everything else failed makes it seem all the more wonderful to me," says Mrs. Cyril W. Feist, 1129 Wilt-St., Fort Wayne, Ind. "I had suffered for years and finally submitted to a serious operation. Following this I remained so nervous discouraged. After eating I suffered from indigestion which was accompanied by headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, restless sleep and that awful tired feeling. To say I was worried doesn't begin to express it. Tanlac surprised me with a fine appetite, good digestion and then my energy and strength came back rapidly. Four bottles did away with my troubles, increased my weight twelve pounds, brought the color of youth to my cheeks and left me enjoying splendid health for five years. I certainly have good reasons for praising Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC adv.

Miller Cords

80 x 3 1/2 Reelins $8.00
Appleton Tire Shop

BARBARA KAMPS Teacher of VOICE and PIANO

Tel. 1460 944 Seventh-st

The Cook's Best Friend—

CALUMET

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

The Last Spoonful is as good as the First

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

Vera B. Hoyer D. C. PALMER

587 Appleton St. Spector Bldg. Phone 3397

CHIROPRACTOR

FROELICH STUDIO

ARTISTIC PORTRAITS

Phone 175

Schaefer Bros.

SPECIALS FOR TUESDAY ONLY

PEACHES, per bushel $2.45
This is your last chance to get Peaches. Order early!

5 lb. can Calumet Baking Powder 99c
100 lb. sack Best Cane Sugar, per sack ... $7.99
35c bottles Best Grade Catsup 26c
$1.65 jars Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco $1.15
Pabst Brand Malt Syrup, the best on the market, only 49c (Per dozen $5.50)

49 lb. sack Big Jo, Pillsbury's, Gold Medal or Quaker Flour. Your choice while our supply lasts, only $2.39

Schaefer Bros.

Phone 223 1008 College Ave.

RADIO

HOW ABOUT THAT HOME MADE SET?

We have heard several people make the remark that although the best of materials and parts had been used in building their own sets, yet they did not seem to perform as good as expected. This can easily be true for no matter how excellent the apparatus it means nothing without that experienced finishing touch essential to a GOOD RADIO.

In case you are having trouble of any kind with your Radio Set and cannot find the source of the trouble, let us look after it for you. Years of experience and study make it possible for us to guarantee that you will be perfectly satisfied with results we obtain.

RADIO SERVICE COMPANY

(IN WILSON ELECTRIC SHOP)

H. Wiemar Phones: Laboratory 3373-W; Salesroom 530 E. Gust

MICHIGAN GRAPES - For All Purposes

Large Jumbo Baskets — Small Baskets

The Michigan Grape deal is now on in earnest. The quality is very fine—never better. Prices are reasonable.

We believe that this is a good time to buy Grapes for Jam, Jelly, and Juice and urge you to buy large jumbo baskets for these purposes. It is cheaper.

For eating purposes, buy the small baskets. See your dealer today. The demand is very good.

Wisconsin Distributing Co.

— Wholesale Distributors —

NEENAH-MENASHA NEWS

CHAS. J. WINSEY, News Representative
Menasha News Depot, Menasha
Korotev Bros., Neenah
CIRCULATION REPRESENTATIVES

Pythian Women
Plan For Card Party, Bazaar

Neenah—The Pythian Sisters gave a supper Friday evening preceding their business session which was attended by 75 persons. At the business meeting the members made preliminary plans for the bazaar of Dec. 2, 3 and 4 which they will hold jointly with the Knights of Pythias. They decided on a booth at which all kinds of fancy goods and articles of food will be on sale.

It was decided to hold a card party at their next meeting which will be attended by members, Knights of Pythias and their friends. It will follow the business meeting.

Neenah Social Activities

Neenah—A group of young ladies of Anspach department store held a dinner party at the As You Like It tea rooms at Appleton Thursday evening.

Miss Margaret Stridde gave a shower at her home on Doty-ave Thursday for Miss Lucille Jensen, whose marriage to Paul Miller is announced to take place soon. The evening was spent informally.

A delegation of members of the Knights of Pythias visited Ripon Saturday, where they disposed of a large number of tickets for the bazaar to be given early in December. Another delegation visited Berlin Tuesday on a similar mission.

Suess Sells Out

Menasha—George Conley has purchased Theodore Suess' place of business, 333 Tayco-st, and will conduct it in the future. The transfer was made Friday.

MACDONALD HOLDS COMMONS RECORD

By Associated Press
London—Premier Mac Donald has talked more in the House of Commons than anyone else, and is 31 columns of the official report of the Parliamentary Gazette ahead of his nearest competitor. According to the record from January to the Easter recess, the Premier's speeches covered 126 columns, William Graham, financial secretary to the treasury, being next with 95 columns and Sir Kingsley Wood third with 76 columns. Lloyd George only fills 47 columns, and Henry Asquith 36, while Stanley Baldwin takes fifteenth place with 46 columns.

It is noticed that the Clydeside members are comparatively reticent. Tom Johnstone and Neil Maclean fill in only 30 columns each. James Kirkwood is not mentioned, because only those who can fill 20 columns are recorded.

In the matter of asking questions, Commander Kenworthy easily holds first with 239 questions, or 108 more than Sir Kingsley Wood, who is second on the list.

With power and office comes criticism, and this is indicated by the number of oral questions answered, the premier having 561 answers to his credit, Minister of Health John Tom Shaw 252.

AUSTRIAN PRISON HAS HONOR SYSTEM

By Associated Press
Vienna—Conducting a penitentiary without guards whence no prisoner has ever escaped, is the record claimed for the Wiener-Neudorf prison near Vienna where more than 300 women are serving terms of from one year to life. The honor system is employed, the penitentiary being in charge of about 40 sisters of charity under leadership of a supervising director who does not even live on the grounds.

The women do all their own work, attending the heating apparatus, laundry, gardens, bakery, kitchen, and look after the live stock and poultry which keeps the penitentiary supplied with milk, fresh meat and other produce. All the work is systematically done that the prison has become almost self-supporting, and is known as the model penitentiary of all Europe.

Scarcely a day passes that some representative of a foreign government does not visit the Wiener-Neudorf penitentiary to inspect the institution, and consult with the sisters as to their way of conducting it.

ENGLISH QUEEN
VALUES PRESENTS

By Associated Press
London—What happens to all the mementoes and souvenirs that are presented to the queen, is a question often asked, but seldom answered. The Weekly Dispatch claims to have ascertained from "some one in a responsible position," however, that these presents are not put away in a store cupboard.

This source of information added:

Twin City
Personals

Neenah—Miss Lillian Gibson of the city clerk's office is spending the weekend with friends at Oshkosh and Madison.

Mrs. Joseph Coopman, 970 De Pere-st, Menasha, was conveyed to St. Elizabeth hospital at Appleton Saturday in the city ambulance.

Menasha—W. E. McCrady, assistant postmaster and family have gone to the Chain o' Lakes at Waupaca, where Mr. McCrady will spend his vacation.

City Treasurer Joseph H. Stommel and H. C. Vetter were Appleton visitors Friday.

Menasha—Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Haugh were at Green Bay Monday, where Mr. Haugh attended a convention of Realalt dealers.

TWO DRIVERS HELD FOR EXCEEDING SPEED LIMIT

Neenah—Joseph Elsch, a driver of the Homan bus line was fined $10 and costs Friday by Judge O. B. Baldwin for exceeding the speed limit. Jake Spall, an employee of the Wisconsin Traction, Light, Heat & Power company, was before Judge Baldwin Friday charged with exceeding the speed limit. He pleaded not guilty and an adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

FEDERAL BARGES
MOVE BIG CARGOES

Line Established As War Emergency Proves Of Big Aid To Shippers

St. Louis—"There ain't no such animal," was the attitude of the Mark Twain school of old-time Mississippi River pilots when they first saw the smallish, ugly, oil-burning, tunnel-type, screw-propelled power boats of the federal barge line.

And the ghostly timbers of the Robert E. Lee and the Natchez probably shiver to this day in their muddy graves when the newcomers puff up and down their river.

But romance is not so apparent as when planters from broad verandas used to watch slim, white packet boats come racing 'round the bend.

"What is being done now on the Mississippi River," says Theodore Brent, manager of the barge line, "is as romantic as railroading—and no more so."

"Its facilities are as practical as those of the best organized railroad. Its methods are aimed at applying the best in railroad practice to transportation by water."

The picturesque crews of steredores and deckhands which used to put color and song into the landings along the river have been crowded out, too. In their places are giant concrete wharf barges or permanent docks, equipped with cranes and tracks, for quick mechanical loading and unloading.

In exchange for the traditional picturesqueness, the federal barge line gives efficient, businesslike common carrier service. It has converted the river from a mere drainage ditch to a highway.

Even old "Steamboat Bill" and his mates warmed up to the newcomers when they saw them get behind a fleet of steel barges and walk off with them 7000 tons upstream or 15,000 tons downstream.

The federal barge line was conceived as a war measure and started in September, 1918, with a makeshift fleet. Now it is operating about ten towboats, two self-propelling barges and more than fifty cargo barges, most of them of 2000 tons and some of 3000 tons capacity.

It maintains a year-round schedule between New Orleans and Cairo, Ill., and between St. Louis and Cairo except during the frozen-up months.

Co-operation with hostile railroads has been effected to obtain a connecting, feeder service. Boats leaving St. Louis on Friday evenings reach New Orleans, 1154 miles by water, on the following Wednesday night. Dispatching is by wireless, each towboat reporting its position every three hours.

Last year the barge line carried 327,511 tons of freight southbound, and 267,604 tons northbound. The charge is approximately 80 percent of railroad rates. Saving to the shipper is estimated at an average of $1.35 a ton.

"The queen is very proud of her collection of souvenirs, and she treasures every one of them. I do not think there is another woman in the world who takes such a keen delight in preserving her mementoes of happy and interesting occasions."

The Wembley Exhibition has swelled the queen's collection considerably, and recent additions include damask and linen, canaries "Felix" the cat, cards, lace fans and musical instruments. The queen makes practical use of her gifts whenever possible. The damask is pressed into the Ulster Linen Trade is in constant use at Buckingham Palace.

Rids You of Pile Torture

Pyramid Pile Suppositories work so quickly, stop pain so suddenly, relieve sores so completely, so to speak, and you to the thousands who believe it the best, safest, quickest, better known for itching, burning, bleeding, protruding piles. Get a 50-cent box at any drug store.

WOMEN WOULD BAR
CHILD MARRIAGES OF FLORIDA GIRLS

Clubwomen Plan Campaign to Obtain Amendment to Marriage Laws

Tallahassee, Fla.—The clubwomen of Florida plan to make a strong fight at the forthcoming biennial legislative session, in April and May, 1925, to have the marriage laws of the state amended, setting a limit upon the marriageable age of girls.

The matter was a subject of great interest at Tampa recently when a girl bride was brought before the county probator officer. It was discovered that the child's parents were dead and that she had been left in the care of her aged grandmother. The grandmother had given her consent, the only legal requirement, to the child's marriage to a man 34 years of age. The union resulted in grief to the young wife. Now the club women, backed by judges, probator officers, and others plan a fight to bring about enactment of laws designed to prevent a recurrence of such tragedies.

"As it is at present, the county judges are helpless," declared Mrs. Amos Norris, Tampa clubwoman, in making it known that her organization would carry the fight before the legislature. "If the parents or guardians of a child consent, there is no law to prevent children of 11 or even younger marrying. In the recent case of the 11-year-old bride which has brought this matter again before the public, Judge Hazard at first refused to issue the license but upon further examination of the law he realized that he had no legal right to deny it when the grandmother's consent was given and so issued it. He could do nothing else."

"We hope to alter this condition by

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

Read Post-Crescent Want Ads

John Harding, Cadillac, Michigan cabinet maker, is mighty proud of his boy, Jack. Why, was he not one of the 'round the world flyers?' And now the elder Harding is waiting anxiously for a visit from his son, Lieutenant Harding of the plane, New Orleans, before he settles down to the routine of his home station, McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

JACK'S DAD

DISEASE PLAYED HAVOC WITH ARMY OF GREAT BRITAIN

General Townsend Lost Many Men Through Illness at Kut-el-Amara Siege

London—A vivid description of the hardships suffered by General Townsend's army at the siege of Kut-el-Amara during the World War is given in the British Medical History of the war, 11 volumes of which have just been completed and published. Scurvy, dysentery and malaria were prevalent, and many men actually died of starvation.

The army's rations early in March of 1916 consisted of 10 ounces of bread, one pound four ounces of meat, one ounce of jam, half an ounce of salt, half an ounce of ginger, two ounces of oatmeal and one and a half ounces of dates to the man. For the Indian troops the ration consisted of 10 ounces of barley flour, four ounces of unhusked barley, one ounce of Ghl, half an ounce of ginger, half an ounce of turmeric, eight ounces of meat and one and a half ounces of dates. This was just over the subsistence diet for the British troops and just under it for the Indians, and an epidemic of scurvy resulted.

During the latter part of March and early in April the rations were further decreased, and many of the men began to suffer acutely from hunger. Two pounds of opium were obtained by airplane and one grain pill were given by the surgeons in selected cases to ameliorate the intensity of the pain. Sugar was not obtainable, and as the supply of saccharine was small, it was used only for hospital cases. Tobacco was at a premium, and every variety of substitute, in

John Harding, Cadillac, Michigan cabinet maker, is mighty proud of his boy, Jack. Why, was he not one of the 'round the world flyers?' And now the elder Harding is waiting anxiously for a visit from his son, Lieutenant Harding of the plane, New Orleans, before he settles down to the routine of his home station, McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about a state law that will define the minimum age limit for marriages with guardian's consent. Sixteen years has been suggested as the limit.

bringing about

HIGH STANDARD
IN U. C. T. URGED
BY SUPREME HEAD

W. D. Mowry Tells Fox River Valley Travelers U. C. T. Is Business Optimist

That Commercial men are the representatives of business and as such must lift up their viewpoint to compare with their position was the keynote of the talk given by W. D. Mowry of Kansas City, Kansas, supreme councillor of the United Commercial Travelers, the principal speakers at the Fox River valley U. C. T. meeting Saturday evening at the Conway hotel.

The meeting started with a banquet at 6 o'clock during which music was furnished by Behnkens eight piece orchestra. George Packard acted as toastmaster.

Mr. Mowry said that people are beginning to appreciate the order as they assume their responsibilities. Traveling men are a representative class by themselves. As a traveling man thinks so is his organization, he said. The U. C. T. can be just as great and influential in the business world as the members make it. To do this they must come up to the expectations of themselves and friends. As the representative man of great business they must do this by building up the mentality, thoughts and character of the organization so that its members are well thought of throughout the country.

The traveling man of today is coming more toward stabilizing commercial conditions in the country than any other class of men because they represent business to the smaller retailers with whom they come in contact, Mr. Mowry said. They spread optimism and so keep the stores open and help the retailers to make a further effort. Only bona fide traveling men are eligible to the organization and ought to make an important actor in the affairs of the country. The ladies auxiliary is a big help in keeping the organization going, he declared.

Fred Wright of Milwaukee, junior supreme councillor and probably next supreme councillor said that the traveling men are well thought of by the big men of the country. He promised big things for next year.

C. F. Nolte of Oshkosh, grand councillor, thanked Mr. Mowry for the state for visiting the meeting. He said that mingling together was the best thing for the U. C. T.

Short talks were given by T. J. Craig, grand junior councillor, and C. E. Skow, grand page.

L. G. Dwyer, grand secretary, gave a talk on the U. C. T. insurance, its worth and the loopholes usually found in insurance.

MRS. HOLTZ IS GIVEN PARTY ON 50TH BIRTHDAY
(Special to Post-Crescent)
Center Valley—A surprise party was tendered Mrs. Henry Holtz Monday evening Oct. 6 in honor of her fiftieth birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Uhlendruck, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleck, Mr. and Mrs. August Blebow and son Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kohler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holtz and family, Mrs. Charles Tiedt, Mr. and Mrs. John Seubitz and son, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reisenweber, Mrs. J. T. Otto, Mr. and Mrs. William Uhlendruck, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. William Uhlendruck Jr., Edward John, William and Ida Otto, Agnes Wipplert, son, Elmer Koehler, Leslie Plamann, Lucille Otto, Ray Reisenweber, Edwin Arnold, Orville Tiedt, Lawrence Schroeder, Estelle Gossie, Lena Miller and Erma Pamparth.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Saper of Greenfield, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Huebner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bungert of Appleton and Mr. and Mrs. George Wehling of Center Valley, attended to the party. Sunday they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Peeters.

Ellie Sopela and Anna Wehling of Appleton, spent Sunday at the George Wehling home here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tracy were at Oshkosh Sunday to visit their son Edward who is at the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Backer returned Monday from a trip to Rockford, where they visited with the Rev. W. Kandler and family.

A son was born at St. Elizabeth's hospital Monday Oct. 6 to Mr. and Mrs. William Miller of Chicago. Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tracy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reed of Sinton visited at the home of the former's parents here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lyster of Winchester called on friends here Sunday.

J. Berger of Shiocton has rented the John Spear farm in Edgemoor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rich, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Puhl were Appleton callers Tuesday.

R. E. C. Tiedt and Fred Knapp of Appleton, spent Sunday at the L. H. Knapp home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vick and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Sander and family and Mr. and Mrs. Y. A. Tiedt and son Donald were Sunday visitors at the Louis Keger home.

Mrs. and Mrs. Anton Otto, Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Holtz, called friends at Neenah Sunday.

William, John and Edward Otto and Henry Holtz attended to Tietgen for a day last week.

Miss Emma Witt of Unity is visiting at her home of her sister Mrs. W. F. Idehl.

Neighbors in this vicinity are busy getting ready for the week.

Center Valley Live stock Puppington association shipped two cribs of livestock to Chicago Wednesday.

John Swares of the U. C. T. is on tour Tuesday for this season.

Rummage Sale! St. Agnes Guild, Parish Hall, All Saints Church, Tues., 9 A. M.

MEET TONIGHT TO PLAN SCHOOL WORK

The board of education of the Appleton high school, together with the school heads and principals of the city, will meet tonight in the school building Monday evening to discuss the entire system of schools and plan of administration of the junior high schools.

School officials will be guests of the third district at a $80 dinner which will precede the business meeting. A. C. Bosser, city attorney, will in response to a request made at the last meeting of the school boards as a social occasion present a summary of the procedure necessary for the establishment of a union school system. The union school problem is closely linked with the problems of the reorganization of the administration of schools that will become necessary with the establishment of junior high schools and it is this plan of administration that will be studied Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Engel and Mrs. Anne Kuylenburg, for Los Angeles. They arrived at 4:30 a. m. from Chicago, where they continued their journey by train. They will spend the winter in California.

Mrs. Helen Hartung, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kuttner and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warner, all of Keshena, Pa., Sunday.

The Gland That Causes Men To Get Up at Night

The gland that causes getting up at night is known as the prostate gland and is a notorious trouble maker. It is estimated that 55 out of every 100 men past 40, and many under that age, have prostate disease which, if unchecked, often leads to a serious operation. The prostate surrounds the neck of the bladder like a washer. Naturally, when the bladder becomes inflamed by poisons which the kidneys filter out of the blood, the irritation spreads to the prostate. As the gland swells it closes the neck of the bladder making urination difficult and painful and causing pains in the back, head and legs.

An easy way to treat these annoying and dangerous conditions is to take one or two Renex pills after each meal. The Renex formula has been famous in thousands of such cases. On average, it says it also has a valuable tonic effect and tends to reinvigorate the body, which is a great value of the formula. It can get a full-size two-dollar treatment of the pills under a money-back guarantee by sending the attached coupon to the address given there. If you prefer, you can try the pills for two weeks and return the money if you are not directly satisfied. The purchase will be refunded at once upon request. This is a thoroughly reliable company, so you need not hesitate about ordering the Renex if you need it.

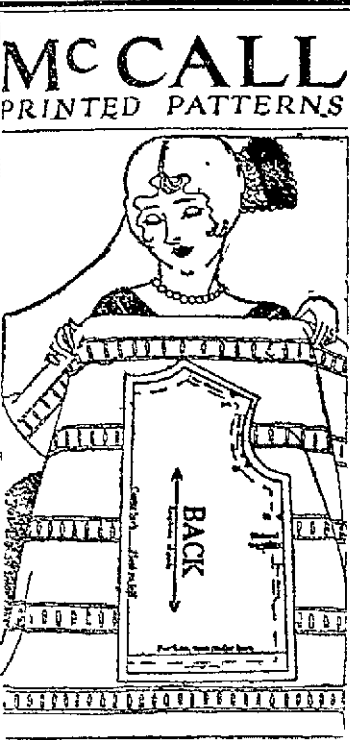

GUARANTEE COUPON
Gentlemen: Send me a regular-size Renex treatment as guaranteed. Unless you find $2 enclosed I will pay $2, and postage on delivery, but you are to refund the purchase price at once upon request. If I do not return it within 10 days that I am not satisfied.

Name
Address
City State
Fill out and mail to The Renex Co., Dept. 1888, Kansas City, Mo.

MALONE-LEMMON
"Super Of Neutrodynes" $175.00
The interior mechanism marks a distinct advance in Radio Engineering.
The set contains two stages of R. F. Detector and two stages of Audio. It employs 5 tubes preferably (201 A), but will operate on dry cell tubes also. It operates with any size antenna. Approximate over all dimensions 24 in. x 41 in. x 12 high.
A demonstration of this set in your home will convince you of its high quality.

Meyer-Seeger Music Co.
816 College Ave.

McCALL
PRINTED PATTERNS

Only one woman in three makes her own dresses. The other two have always been afraid to try. And afraid with good reason when there was nothing but the clumsy old-fashioned pattern to use. But now with McCall Printed Patterns—every woman can sew successfully. In our Pattern Department 15c to 45c. Winter Quarterly Out Today.

Trimmings
Satin Neckwear—Collar and cuffs in grey, tan, white and red, $1.25 a set.
Linen Collar and Cuff Sets in green, red, tan and blue, $1.25 a set.
Collar and Cuff Set—Net trimmed with Irish Crochet and Felt Lace, $4.50 $4.75 a set.
Fur Collars—$7.50 $12.00 each.
Fur Trimming in black, coyote, beaverette sealine sable, coney, sable fox $1.00-$1.00 a yard.
Bands in Steel and Antique—4 1/2 inches wide $1.75 a yard.
Edge in Steel and Antique to match band, 2 1/2 inch, 89c a yard.
Colored Bands in all the new shades from 1 to 6 inches, 69c to $3.00 a yard.
Cream and White Net Frilling, trimmed with rows of lace and insertion for collars and cuffs, $1.00-$1.50 a yard.
Cream Net Frilling—Trimmed with Irish Crochet Lace, $2.25 a yard. Band to match, $1.75 a yard.
Maribou in brown, black, and grey, 75c a yard.
Ostrich Trimming in peach, black, plum and tan $1.00-$1.50 a yard.
Lace Panels for trimming, $1.25 each.
Venise Bands in white, cream and ochre 89c to $2.19 a yard.
Buttons
Rhinestone Buttons—28c to 45c each.
Filigree Buttons—$1.00 to $2.00 a dozen.
Fancy Buttons—25c to $1.25 a dozen.
Coat Buttons—in plain and fancy—$1.00 to $7.00 a dozen.
Lone Buttons—in black, brown and navy, 25c to $1.00 a dozen.

McCALL
PRINTED PATTERNS

Plain As Print
Because it is printed—and every single name and necessary direction on a McCall Printed Pattern is printed directly on the pattern pieces.
Every woman who reads can use a McCall Printed Pattern. In our pattern department, 15c to 45c.

GEENEN'S
QUALITY DRY GOODS
DISTINCTIVE SERVICE — SATISFACTION

Sewing Week

Oct. 13, 1924.

Dear Madam:
Back in the days of Napoleon, from whence originated many of the new Fall styles, it took much material and much more time to make lovely ladies' gowns. Seldom it was that a wardrobe included many frocks.
And in China, from whence came the inspiration for some lovely trimming touches for Fall, it takes weeks to complete one pattern.
Just think how fortunate is the American woman today! Styles are so simple; patterns are so easy to follow; it requires comparatively little material; there are sewing machines—everything doesn't have to be done by hand — —and there is Sewing Week! Think of the countless values such an event offers. Sewing Week at Geenen's begins Tuesday morning. You will find everything from needles to the finest fabrics remarkably interesting in prices.
We are telling you of this in advance to give you time to look over your Sewing Cabinet and see just what you need.
Very truly yours,
GEENEN'S.

TIME TO SEW AND SAVE

Silks
Satin Canton — Mohawk, rust seal, Pekin, navy and black. 40 in. $3.25 yd.
Satin Canton—Good line of Autumn shades. 40 inch. $2.50 yd.
Satin Canton—Extra nice quality Rich dull lustre. Black only. 40 inch. $4.25 yd.
Bengaline—Navy, cocoa, seal and black. 40 in. $3.00 yd.
Crepe Faille—Zine, seal, navy, shutter, cocoa, bonnie and black. 40 inch $2.75 yd.
Satin Charmeuse—Fashion calls for satin finish materials which makes charmeuse very popular. Good range of colors. 40 inch. $2.25 yd.
Printed Silks—We have a nice assortment of the latest ideas in prints. 40 inch. $3.00 and $3.25 yd.

Lingerie Fabrics
Silk Jersey — Pink, Peach, Orchid, Tan, Navy, Brown, Black. 54 in. $1.69 Special yard Silk Jersey—Vesting, in the dainty lingerie shades, vest length 36 inches wide. 85c Special

Wools
Pencil Stripe Poirer Twill and Wool Bengaline. Popular for the one piece dress, straight line. 56 in. $3.75 yd.
Charmeuse — In Mohawk, shutter green, rosewood and navy. 56 in. $3.75 yd.
Poirer Sheen—A high grade fabric with a pretty luster. Navy, brown, tan and black. 56 in. $3.75 to $4.50 yd.
Ottoman—A wool, corded material. Shutter green, rosewood, Burgundy, plum, navy, brown and black. 40 in. $2.00 and $2.25 yd.
Broadcloth—Chiffon Broadcloth. Has a very nice luster. Extra fine grade. Navy, brown, black, plum, tan and gray. 54 in. $3.50 to $4.25 yd.
Wool Plaids and Checks.—For school dresses. A good assortment. Beautiful material and color combination. 36 in. .75c to $1.50 yd.
Flannels—in the Wanted Autumn shades. 56 inch. $3.25 yd.
Flannels—in Stripe effects, beautiful patterns. 30 in. $2.25 yd.

McCALL
PRINTED PATTERNS

McCall Printed Pattern 3883
Plaids are fashionable. So are stripes, checks and still more plaids. That is why the combination of a plaid material and a tunic style is so particularly good this season.
Winter Quarterly—Just Out

Notions
Clarke's Nine End Thread—150 yard spools. All numbers 5c.
Robert's Sewing Needles—Assorted sizes. 25 in pack age 13c.
Kohinoor Snap Fasteners—12 on card. Black and White. All sizes, a card 10c.
Carnation Pins Rustproof—Extra smooth finish. 300 count 10c.
Smith's Collar Bands—Made of Linen. Finish Cambric. Cushion Back. 4 1/2 inch allowed for shrinkage. Each 15c.
English Twilled—Tape 10 yards on roll. White and Black. 10c to 28c a roll.
Brooklyn Dress Shields—Regular and Crescent Shape. Fines and white. All sizes 29c to 90c a pair.
Linen Tape—All widths. White only. 10c a roll.
Dainty Bias Tape—6 yards on card. All widths and colors. 10c and 12c a card.
Justrite Ric Rac—Mercerized White and Colors. 3 yards for 10c.
Butting Edge—Colors black, pink, rose, lavender, red and white. A yard 5c.
Elastic Webbing—2 1/2 inches wide. Pink and white. A yard 45c.
Warren's Belt Lengths—With Hooks. Riveted on. Length up to 30 in. and 36 in. 25c, 30c and 35c.
Justrite Hooks and Eyes—Rustproof. 10c a card.
Do Long's Hook and Eye Tape. White only. 25c a yd.
"Three Mers" Snap Fasteners—15 on card. Black and white. All sizes 10c a card.
Hickory Elastic—Washable. Black and white. All widths. 8c to 25c a yard.
Warren's Lingerie Tape—4 and 2 1/2 inch width. Pink, white, lavender and peach color. 4c and 8c a yard.

McCALL
PRINTED PATTERNS

McCall Printed Pattern 3891
The coat dress is fashionable every fall and this season just a little more fashionable than usual since it often combines certain features of the tunic styles with its own distinctive lines. Sketched here is a model that is new and distinctive.
Winter Quarterly Just Out

NEW HOSPITALS WILL CARE FOR WORLD WAR SICK

Seven New Institutions Will Advance Hospitalization of War's Victims

Washington—Steps taken by the Veterans Bureau to hospitalize the sick of the World War will be considerably advanced when the seven new hospitals and additions, just completed at a cost of many thousands of dollars, are ready for opening. Four more hospitals and many new additions are in the course of construction.

The hospitals and supplementary units just completed were built by the construction division of the army quartermaster corps, the navy bureau of yards and docks, treasury newly enacted Reed-Johnson veterans' servicing architects and the Veterans Bureau and will provide approximately 2,600 beds for tubercular and neuro-psychiatric patients. Under the relief act, extending the tubercular presumptive period to Jan. 1, 1925, many former service men are expected to be treated in the new institutions.

The hospitals just completed are: Chulicthe, O., 482-bed neuro-psychiatric built by the war department, Knoxville, Iowa, 456-bed neuro-psychiatric addition, constructed by war department.

Northampton, Mass., 462-bed neuro-psychiatric, built by the navy.

Tupper Lake, N. Y., 368-bed tubercular, built by the navy.

Northampton, Mass., 42-bed neuro-psychiatric, built by the war department.

Chelms, N. Y., 400-bed tubercular, built under the first Langley bill by the supervising architect of the treasury.

Little Rock, Ark., 203-bed addition for neuro-psychiatric patients, built by the Veterans Bureau.

More than 1,300 additional beds will be made available for sick veterans with the completion of the following institutions:

Camp Custer, Mich., 527-bed neuro-psychiatric, completion estimated around August 15.

St. Cloud, Minn., 263-bed neuro-psychiatric, August 15.

Livermore, Cal., 268-bed tubercular, 10 percent ahead on contract which calls for completion March 15, 1925.

Contract recently was let for a 250-bed tubercular hospital at Aspinwall, Pa., and work is expected to begin soon. All of the hospitals and additions recently built or building are of modern, fireproof construction.

W. E. C. Rummage Sale, Armory G., Wed., Oct. 15, 9 A. M.

Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien in "Secrets"

AT THE ELITE THEATER FOR FOUR DAYS BEGINNING MONDAY.

FALL THROUGH FEED CHUTE INJURES MAN

Bear Creek—Harold Wisniewski of the town of Bear Creek was injured by a fall through a feed chute in the barn. Ligaments of his leg were badly torn.

Misses Katherine Honisch and Helen Noak spent Sunday at their homes at Clintonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ritchie of New London visited at M. M. McClone's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson and family of Maple Creek, visited Mrs. A. McClone Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Lendred and son, Gordon Richardson of the Jolly Corners have moved to the village and are occupying rooms in the J. J. Dempsey home.

James, Hazel and Loretta, Thebo and Mrs. Simon Brisco visited their sister, Mrs. Frank Young of Maple Creek, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray and family of White Lake, visited relatives in the village Sunday.

Ambrose Guyette who has been a patient at St. Elizabeth hospital has returned to his home and is recovering nicely.

Carl Culver of Appleton, called at the John Ratz home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Alberts and family of New London, spent the weekend at the Ed Roberts home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Horn, Mrs. George John, and Mrs. Adolph Meyer autoed to Green Bay Monday to visit relatives and friends there.

Mrs. Melissa Holt returned to Rhinelander Monday, after a visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Miller and daughter Agnes visited at the Cornell home at Appleton Sunday.

Joseph Balzhazar of New London was injured by having his arm caught in a corn husker while working on the farm of his son in Maple Creek.

Mrs. Delphine Ardell of Wausau.

DRUNK PAYS FINE TO WIFE; WILL BE GOOD

Two drunkards are doing penance for a weekend spree. Charles Fulcer, 933 Lawrence st., was arrested at his home by Patrolman B. H. Carnes at about 5:30 Saturday night upon complaint of his wife. The patrol conveyed him to the city jail where he was lodged until Monday morning. Mrs. Fulcer was unwilling to press prosecution, therefore Judge A. M. Spencer directed the defendant to turn over $25 to his wife and pledge his good behavior. Robert Lang of Green Bay was arrested the same evening by Detective John Duval at the corner of Oneida st. and College av., where he was found staggering. The celebration cost him a fine of $10 and costs in municipal court Monday morning.

FIND SUICIDE SUSPECT IN BUSHES WHICH HID FRANKS

By Associated Press
Chicago—Living hidden in the bushes where Nathan Leopold Jr. and Richard Loeb hid the clothing of Robert Franks whom they kidnaped and killed, and for whose murder they are now serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary, mushroom hunters Sunday found the body of Grant R. Seely who is thought to have committed suicide. A revolver with one cartridge expended was found near the body.

is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Harriet Brisco and Mrs. Charles Baltazar.

George Rebman and family have moved to New London where they will make their future home.

Miss Mathilda Beauvais of Waukegan, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Louis Lehman and Mrs. Henry Babine.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller of New London visited at the C. L. Miller home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Huebner and daughter Isla of New London and Mrs. Harry William were visitors at the Alvin Miller home Wednesday.

OUR 571-STORE
BUYING POWER SAVES YOU MONEY

J.C. Penney Co.
A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION - Incorporated
571 DEPARTMENT STORES

BUYING MOST WE BUY
FOR LESS—SELLING MOST WE SELL
FOR LESS

Offerings of Corsets and Underwear

Which Will Interest You
At This Time Especially On Account of Our Unusual Values

You can make a long, determined search for values in Corsets and Underwear without finding the equal of those we are presenting. Comparisons will interest you in the savings you can make here.

Heavy Unions
For Men
Heavy weight "Random" Union Suits, all lined.
$1.79 and $1.98

Union Suits
For Boys
Heavy weight Union Suits, ribbed, crew
$1.69 to $1.98

Union Suits
For Women
Wool finish, mercerized stripe. Good values.
$1.98

Union Suits
Fleece Lined
Men's fleece lined Union Suits. Good weight.
$1.19 and $1.59

Underwear
Fleece Lined
Boys' fleece lined Union
Suits, good weight.
69c to $1.29

Heavy Unions
For Women
Heavy weight ribbed Union Suits, bleached.
$1.49

Union Suits
For Men
Heavy cotton ribbed Union Suits. Good values!
$1.59

Union Suits
Grey Wool
Men's Union Suits.
Splendid values.
$2.25, $2.98, $3.98

Union Suits
All-Wool
Men's Union Suits.
White or grey $4.98

Underwear
For Men
Heavy ribbed shirts and drawers, each 89c

Fleece Lined
Shirts and Drawers
Men's Heavy Fleece Underwear, long. Each 89c and 98c

Children's Underwear

Children's Vests and Drawers, fleece lined each 39c to 69c
Children's Part Wool Vests and Drawers, each 69c to 89c
Misses Union Suits Dutch Neck, elbow sleeves 89c-$1.29
Misses Gray Part Wool Unions $1.49 to $1.99
Misses Silk and Wool Union at $1.69 to $1.98

Wool Hose
For Children
Children's tuck ribbed wool hose, black only 59c to 89c

Men's Pajamas

Of Amoskeag Cloth

Cut extra full throughout. Chests measure 46 in to 56 in. Extra large through crotch. Wide arm holes. Long cut coat.
$1.98

Night Shirts

For Men

—good weight flannelette
—chest finished 52 in. to 60 in.
—cut full 54 in. long, 4 in longer than most night shirts
—wide arm holes and elbows.
—sleeves 33 in and 34 in.
long Remarkable Values

98c

Union Suits

For Women

Ribbed Union Suits,
bleached, good weight.
98c

Underwear

For Women

Ribbed Vest and Pants, heavy weight bleached.
89c

Women's Part Wool Vest
and Drawers each at $1.39

Women's Wool Union Suits

Women's Part Wool Union Suits $2.98.

Women's Silk and Wool
Union Suits $3.98.

Underwear

For Misses

Medium weight Union
Suits, bleached, ribbed.
89c to $1.29

Union Suits

For Misses

Ribbed Union Suits,
good weight, bleached.
89c

Costume Slips

Excellent Values!

Costume Slips, such as these, are indispensable to wear with dresses. Made of Jacquard silk and cotton Canton in light and dark colors, and black. Hemstitched bodice top and self straps. Gathered and fitted over hips. Shadow proof skirt lined up 20 inches with self material. Our price, only

98c to $1.98

Net Curtains

Newest Fringed Ideas

You will like these lovely new fringed Curtains, an economically priced.
Curtains made of Felt and novelty nets in neat patterns and all-over designs, with fringe 36 inches wide, by $2.60, $3.98, $4.50
Beautiful fringed Curtains in several designs, fine Felt and shadow nets. Each $1.69, $2.25, $2.69

Curtains

Ruffled Style

The popular Ruffled
Curtains with tie-backs to match.
Priced at a saving!
Ruffled Curtains of
serim 2 1/2 yards long 98c Ruffled Curtains of mar-quisette, hemstitched, lainty and serviceable.
Pair $1.25
Ruffled Curtains of dotted marquisette
Vel. attractive Pair $1.98

In These Days of High Priced Fuel STORM SASHES

For your home, will mean dollars in your pocket and insure the comfort of a warm house.

Order Yours Now—Before Cold Weather
Phone 365

Standard Mfg Co.

Manufacturers — Wholesalers — Retailers
LUMBER and MILLWORK

Ride 'Em Cow Boy
and Good Luck to you "Tom"

We'll do our part and keep the Wrinkles out
PHONE 623

Novelty Cleaners & Dyers

BIGGEST Cleaners In Valley

QUALITY PHILCO TELLS

Like a Human Dynamo

Is the battery. When working at top power it generates the life that makes your motor turn over. But, like human beings it gets out of order—sometimes and needs an expert's attention. We are battery experts.

PHONE 196
COURTEOUS SERVICE
STARTING BATTERIES
BURKE
RADIO BATTERY REPAIRS SERVICE

18 CIVIL WAR VETS AT 1924 REUNION

W. McCollum of Neenah, Is Elected President at Hortonville Gathering

Special to Post-Crescent
Hortonville—Eighteen veterans of the civil war met at the opera house here Wednesday to live over in memory the fighting days of '61 and '65. They gathered for the annual reunion of Company D, Twenty-first and Company I, Thirty-second regiments of the Wisconsin Volunteers, which is always held on Oct. 6, the anniversary of the battle of Perryville Ky.

The comrades present were: R. H. Stewart, W. K. Ridenour, Oshkosh; William Wilson, A. W. Priest, Dr. A. W. Kanouse, E. H. Wilbur, J. D. Hancock, Appleton; W. McCollum, Neenah; Thad Sherr, Menasha; F. J. Fawell, Ogdensburg; C. W. Cornish, New London; Sol. Rhoads, Madison; Hugh Hagen, Janesville; C. F. Burk, H. T. Kack, Frank Schmidt, B. Young, Hortonville.

The business meeting which was opened at 10:30 by Commander Hugh Hagen, was attended by veterans and members of the Women's Relief Corps and Grand Army of the Republic. Menasha was named as the place where the reunion of 1925 would be held. W. McCollum of Neenah was elected president, and Mrs. Carrie Winch of Menasha, was elected vice president. The appointment of a secretary and treasurer was left to the president who appointed Miss Marie Schulz of Hortonville.

Dinner was served in the basement of the opera house by the Baptist Ladies Aid society. The afternoon session was opened by President Hagen at 1:30. The following program took place:
Song, "America," by assembly.
Prayer, by the Rev. J. R. Shaw, address of welcome, W. B. Brown, president of the village, response, by Dea Snyder Stewart of Oshkosh, past department president of the Ladies of G. A. R. song, "The Boys in Blue and Gray," by a male quartet, consisting of James McKeeth, the Rev. T. Holland, J. D. Farmer and Hugo Schwab.

An address was made by R. H. Stewart of Oshkosh, who gave a talk on the Civil war, calling to the attention of the audience that the first gun of the Civil war was fired at 20 minutes past 4 o'clock on April 12, 1861 at Fort Sumter.

CHILD STRUCK BY AUTO HAS ONLY MINOR HURTS

Bear Creek—The five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hurley of Le-manon was struck by an automobile on the hotel corner in the village recently. He received bruises on the face and head but is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rabino and daughter, Dorothy and Phil Lechner left for Bowler Monday where they will be employed in a lumber camp. Mrs. Lawrence Thebo and children returned Monday to her home after spending two months at Hudson, where Mr. Thebo is stationed. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ballhorn visited relatives at Bondell Sunday. Miss Lillian Mansfield is employed at the A. J. Briscoe home. The Rev. M. Air visited the Rev. Father Van Bokart of Tigerton Sunday. A. Landred of Green Bay visited his family in the village Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield and daughters Violet and Lillian and Edward Pieper of Clintonville attended the birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Korth, South Pearl St., New London, Saturday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mansfield and daughter Violet were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred home at Maple Creek Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wilson of Chicago, visited at the D. J. Flanagan home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dempsey and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Armstrong visited at Madison Sunday. Misses Sarah and Alma Ziebert and Hermine Edna and Elsie Hahn of Fremont were guests at the Mrs. James Dempsey home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Horn and Mrs. George John of Conrath, spent Saturday afternoon of last week at the Adelphi Meyer home. Mrs. George and Mrs. Arthur Armstrong and Mrs. John Armstrong were Appleton visitors Saturday, Oct. 4. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ritchie and Miss Margaret Bessette of New London visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bessette of the village Sunday evening. Earlier Mr. Cline of Appleton spent the weekend with relatives here. Jake Mares of Appleton spent Sunday at the George Mares home.

WICHMANN ADMITS HE BEAT FORMER WIFE
Herman Wichmann, former proprietor of the Blazing Stump, who was arrested in Neenah Friday on charges of assault and battery committed on his divorced wife, pleaded guilty to a similar charge in municipal court at Appleton Friday afternoon. The offense for which he was arraigned here was committed a few weeks previous. He was ordered by Judge A. M. Spencer to pay a fine of $5 plus $3.50 in costs.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Doris Stewart, Mrs. Ella Adams, Mrs. W. K. Ridenour, Oshkosh; Mrs. Elizabeth Stumm, Martinsburg; Mrs. Dr. H. H. Hagen, Appleton; Mrs. J. D. Farmer, Appleton; Mrs. A. W. Kanouse, Appleton; Mrs. C. W. Cornish, New London; Mrs. Sol. Rhoads, Madison; Mrs. Hugh Hagen, Janesville; Mrs. C. F. Burk, H. T. Kack, Frank Schmidt, B. Young, Hortonville.

HONOR BIRTHDAY OF BLACK CREEK MAN

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Black Creek—Mr. and Mrs. William Stern and children, New London, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bick and children, Port Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kitzinger, Seymour; Mr. and Mrs. George Kronschnable, Kimberly; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bick and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Stadler, Nicholas Bick, Mr. and Mrs. George Kronschnable and children, Leo, Genevieve, Norbert and Anthony, Black Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bick and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bick, Appleton, were entertained at a six o'clock dinner Sunday evening, Oct. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fischer, 625 Harrison St., Appleton. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of Mr. N. Bick, who celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday anniversary. He is a resident of this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Darrow were honored guests at a shower Saturday evening of last week at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Witzke, who live near Mackville. A large number of relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Darrow were married at McNominee, Mich., last week and will make their home at Appleton where Mr. Darrow is employed at the Mory Ice Cream Co.

John Kuhl and family, Mrs. William Buchholz and son, Mrs. Joseph Buchholz, Kiel, Carl Buchholz and family, New Holstein, Mr. and Mrs. George Enrich and children, Appleton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krull and son Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bick and family and Henry Blake, Black Creek, were luncheon and dinner guests Sunday, Oct. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Peters. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goertl and son Rogers, Mrs. William Hoeft, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoeft, Appleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Neuman of Briar-ton, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoeft Sunday evening, Oct. 6. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shipman, Oshkosh, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilcox and Mrs. Mary McCarty, of Allenville visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw Sunday. Miss Ida Hilligan is spending a few days at Appleton. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kaphingst and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fahrback at Appleton. Mrs. Carl Johnson and daughter of Oshkosh, spent a few days here last week with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Braemer and children were Green Bay visitors Sunday. Henry Zable and family were guests of relatives at Waubesa over the weekend. R. H. Gehrke and family were Sunday visitors at New London. Miss Helen Kronschnable of Chicago, is spending a two week's vacation at the home of her parents, Misses Esther, Laura, Zeta and Orville Meyer, Port Washington. Barbara Jean Gerl and Andrew Riese, autoed to Wausau Sunday. A bazaar and chicken dinner will be given next Sunday by the women of St. Mary church, at the auditorium.

Mr. H. J. Staebgen of Seymour spent a day here this week. Mrs. Minnie Brandt and daughter Miss Marie and Mrs. Henry Brandt and children, called on Mrs. Sophie Plamann at Grand Chute Sunday. Black Creek baseball team was defeated at Manawa Sunday by a score of 11 to 0. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Grunwaldt spent a few days this week at Abrams. Miss Margaret and Cyril Kronschnable of Appleton spent Sunday here. Mrs. Mary Kohls of Lesterville, S. D., who has been a guest of relatives and friends here, returned home Monday. Thomas Hilligan of Appleton was a Sunday guest at the Hilligan home. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw autoed to Green Bay Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. M. Breitenbach and children, LeRoy and Dorothy Jean were Green Bay visitors Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Haus and children, Evelyn, Mildred and Lex and Earl Peters, autoed to Green Bay and DePere Sunday. Mrs. Margaret Holmes of Bondell, spent a few days with Mrs. John Day. She formerly resided here. Mr. and Mrs. A. Zuehlke, Mr. and Mrs. V. Perry and children of Sheboygan, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Krause and son of Merrill, were guests at the J. P. Servatius home over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Frank of Oshkosh, spent Sunday at the home of the latter's brother, John Day. Mr. and Mrs. John Chiracks of West Bend, who were guests at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. G. I. Sassman, for a few days, returned home Monday.

LEGION WILL BUY HORNS FOR SAXAPHONE BAND

Authorization for the purchase of saxaphone for the American Legion Saxaphone band was made at a meeting of the executive committee Friday night in Attorney A. C. Besser's office. The legion plans to buy the musical instruments, such as a bass saxaphone and others, while members of the band will furnish the others. Capt. Fred B. Rogers is director of the organization.

cago, is spending a two week's vacation at the home of her parents. Misses Esther, Laura, Zeta and Orville Meyer, Port Washington, Barbara Jean Gerl and Andrew Riese, autoed to Wausau Sunday. A bazaar and chicken dinner will be given next Sunday by the women of St. Mary church, at the auditorium. Mrs. H. J. Staebgen of Seymour spent a day here this week. Mrs. Minnie Brandt and daughter Miss Marie and Mrs. Henry Brandt and children, called on Mrs. Sophie Plamann at Grand Chute Sunday. Black Creek baseball team was defeated at Manawa Sunday by a score of 11 to 0. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Grunwaldt spent a few days this week at Abrams. Miss Margaret and Cyril Kronschnable of Appleton spent Sunday here. Mrs. Mary Kohls of Lesterville, S. D., who has been a guest of relatives and friends here, returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shipman, Oshkosh, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilcox and Mrs. Mary McCarty, of Allenville visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw Sunday. Miss Ida Hilligan is spending a few days at Appleton. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kaphingst and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fahrback at Appleton. Mrs. Carl Johnson and daughter of Oshkosh, spent a few days here last week with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Braemer and children were Green Bay visitors Sunday. Henry Zable and family were guests of relatives at Waubesa over the weekend. R. H. Gehrke and family were Sunday visitors at New London. Miss Helen Kronschnable of Chicago, is spending a two week's vacation at the home of her parents, Misses Esther, Laura, Zeta and Orville Meyer, Port Washington. Barbara Jean Gerl and Andrew Riese, autoed to Wausau Sunday. A bazaar and chicken dinner will be given next Sunday by the women of St. Mary church, at the auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shipman, Oshkosh, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilcox and Mrs. Mary McCarty, of Allenville visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shaw Sunday. Miss Ida Hilligan is spending a few days at Appleton. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kaphingst and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Fahrback at Appleton. Mrs. Carl Johnson and daughter of Oshkosh, spent a few days here last week with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Braemer and children were Green Bay visitors Sunday. Henry Zable and family were guests of relatives at Waubesa over the weekend. R. H. Gehrke and family were Sunday visitors at New London. Miss Helen Kronschnable of Chicago, is spending a two week's vacation at the home of her parents, Misses Esther, Laura, Zeta and Orville Meyer, Port Washington. Barbara Jean Gerl and Andrew Riese, autoed to Wausau Sunday. A bazaar and chicken dinner will be given next Sunday by the women of St. Mary church, at the auditorium.

HOLD TWO PARTIES AT FREMONT HOMES

Fremont—A lawn party was held at the Hahn home near the "pines" in honor of Miss Elsie Hahn. The guests included: Albert, Arthur and Carl Hahn, Edwin and Lester Kar-ton, Leland Drews, Robert Billing-sus, La Verne Brewster, Rexford Clow, Misses Doris and Viola Schmidt, Evelyn Arndt, Hattie and Laura Benn-ke, Lula Sommers, Linda Neubauer, Vivienne Billington, Della Clow and Elsie Hahn. Games were played, fol-lowed by a marshmallow roast.

Miss Illida Jasman entertained a party of young people at her home Thursday evening of last week. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ot-to, Clifford Lind, Alex Gunther, Elmer Martin, Edwin Kargus and the Misses Marie Martin, Ruth Dewart and Della Clow. Games were played. The Royal Neighbors had a week-ly meeting at the village hall Fri-day evening. Private business was under discussion. The Reformed Ladies Aid society met with Mrs. Menker, Thursday af-ternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Quinby and chil-dren of Waupaca, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Q. A. Quinby. William Hummel and daughter Margaret spent Monday at Green Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walrath spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olely at Dale. Mrs. H. Reinelt has returned from a visit with relatives at Dale and Readfield. Mrs. Carl Leiby and daughter Mar-garet of Dale, spent a few days at the R. W. Sommers home. Mrs. E. Billington spent a few days with relatives at Neenah last week. G. Wagner entertained friends from Milwaukee and Chicago at his sum-mer home on the Wolf river. Mrs. Travis was a business caller at Menasha Tuesday. C. W. Allen of Berlin, was on busi-ness here for the Allen Lumber Co. Charles Clow spent last Sunday at Poygan. Miss Hermine Hahn spent a few days last week with Oshkosh friends. Mrs. Guy Pitt was called to Col-by by the death of a cousin. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pitt of Sher-born, spent Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pitt. Misses Elaine and June Brewster spent a day at Waupaca. Albert Gruppe of West Allis, spent a day with local friends. About 25 young people attended the dance at Dale Thursday of last week and Tustin Sunday night. Miss Lydia Dews of Weyauwega, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Ir-ma Fisher for a few days. Herman Redeman of Neenah, spent the weekend at his home here. Harry Vollenhopper and children of Neenah, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Potratz. Mrs. Herman Redeman has returned from Stevens Point where she was called by the serious illness of her mother. M. S. Cartes of Cairo, Ill., was the guest of local friends for a few days. He was a former principal of the local school. Mrs. J. Whitney and son Gilbert, Mrs. A. Joerns and Mrs. A. F. Paggi of Weyauwega spent Sunday with local friends. Mrs. Emma Griener has left for Ontario, Canada, for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. A. Zuehlke and chil-dren of Weyauwega, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Rohls. Miss Margaret Gee spent the week-end with friends at Omro. Mrs. M. Libman and daughter Miss Rose spent Friday of last week at Oshkosh. G. K. Ives of Milwaukee, is paint-ing and remodeling his garage. Miss Esther Allender spent the weekend at her home in Shiroton. Mr. and Mrs. John Pitt and son Merlin, Misses Irene and Anna Zueh-ke and Alfred Zuehlke, all of Appleton, spent the weekend with rela-tives. Charles Clow and Frank Illide-brand spent Sunday at Split Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schroeder and children of Neenah, spent the week-end with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt. Mrs. Julius Jorgenson and daughter Blanche of Waupaca, and Lloyd Jor-genson of Oshkosh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewster. Lloyd Kavil of Omro, spent the weekend at the M. J. Verdon home.

Win Three Games

Roses won three straight games from the Thorns in the young wo-men's volleyball series of St. Paul

ed from Stevens Point where she was called by the serious illness of her mother. M. S. Cartes of Cairo, Ill., was the guest of local friends for a few days. He was a former principal of the local school. Mrs. J. Whitney and son Gilbert, Mrs. A. Joerns and Mrs. A. F. Paggi of Weyauwega spent Sunday with local friends. Mrs. Emma Griener has left for Ontario, Canada, for a visit with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. A. Zuehlke and chil-dren of Weyauwega, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Rohls. Miss Margaret Gee spent the week-end with friends at Omro. Mrs. M. Libman and daughter Miss Rose spent Friday of last week at Oshkosh. G. K. Ives of Milwaukee, is paint-ing and remodeling his garage. Miss Esther Allender spent the weekend at her home in Shiroton. Mr. and Mrs. John Pitt and son Merlin, Misses Irene and Anna Zueh-ke and Alfred Zuehlke, all of Appleton, spent the weekend with rela-tives. Charles Clow and Frank Illide-brand spent Sunday at Split Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schroeder and children of Neenah, spent the week-end with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt. Mrs. Julius Jorgenson and daughter Blanche of Waupaca, and Lloyd Jor-genson of Oshkosh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewster. Lloyd Kavil of Omro, spent the weekend at the M. J. Verdon home.

ton, spent the weekend with rela-tives. Charles Clow and Frank Illide-brand spent Sunday at Split Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schroeder and children of Neenah, spent the week-end with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt. Mrs. Julius Jorgenson and daughter Blanche of Waupaca, and Lloyd Jor-genson of Oshkosh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewster. Lloyd Kavil of Omro, spent the weekend at the M. J. Verdon home.

Have You Appendicitis And Don't Know It?

Much so-called stomach trouble is really chronic appendicitis. This can often be relieved by simple glycerine, buckthorn bark, etc., as mixed in Ad-lerika. Most medicines act only on lower bowel but Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, and removes all gasses and poisons. Brings out matter you never thought was in your system. Excellent for obstinate constipation. Voigt's Drug Store, 785 College Ave. adv.

BABY'S COLDS are soon "snipped in the bud" without "dosing" by use of VICKS
VapoRub
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

WATCH, CLOCK AND JEWELRY REPAIRING
Prompt Service
Guaranteed Workmanship
C. F. TENNIE
JEWELER
West College Ave.

DEAN'S TAXI SERVICE PHONE 434 —or—
RENT A CAR
Drive It Yourself!

LYDIA R. DUNN
Instructor in Voice
555 Meade-st Phone 3157

Just rub on the new application called Joint-Ease if you want to know what real joint comfort is. It's for stiff, swollen, or pain-tured joints whether caused by rheu-matism or not. A few seconds' rubbing and it soaks right in through skin and flesh right down to ligament and bone. It oils up and limbers up the joints, subdues the inflammation and reduc-es the swelling. Joint-Ease is the one great remedy for all joint trou-bles and Voigt's Drug Store and other live druggists are dispensing it daily—a tube for 60 cents. Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in joint agony gets out—quick. adv.

Like Money in Bank, and It Earns 7% Paid Four Times Each Year
Original buyers of the cumulative pre-ferred shares of The Electric Company and its associated utilities have always been able in case of need to resell them quickly at the price paid for them, less $1 a share resale charge, through our Securities Department. Meanwhile, they have drawn cash dividends regularly every three months.

Lutheran church in the school hall Thursday evening. This gives the former a lead of four games. Games will be played each Thursday during the winter.

ton, spent the weekend with rela-tives. Charles Clow and Frank Illide-brand spent Sunday at Split Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schroeder and children of Neenah, spent the week-end with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt. Mrs. Julius Jorgenson and daughter Blanche of Waupaca, and Lloyd Jor-genson of Oshkosh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewster. Lloyd Kavil of Omro, spent the weekend at the M. J. Verdon home.

ton, spent the weekend with rela-tives. Charles Clow and Frank Illide-brand spent Sunday at Split Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schroeder and children of Neenah, spent the week-end with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt. Mrs. Julius Jorgenson and daughter Blanche of Waupaca, and Lloyd Jor-genson of Oshkosh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewster. Lloyd Kavil of Omro, spent the weekend at the M. J. Verdon home.

ton, spent the weekend with rela-tives. Charles Clow and Frank Illide-brand spent Sunday at Split Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schroeder and children of Neenah, spent the week-end with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Pitt. Mrs. Julius Jorgenson and daughter Blanche of Waupaca, and Lloyd Jor-genson of Oshkosh, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brewster. Lloyd Kavil of Omro, spent the weekend at the M. J. Verdon home.

BLUE SQUAD SWAMPS NORTHWESTERN, 55 TO 0

ORANGE COMES BACK TO BEAT FONDY, 7 TO 0

Lawrence Makes First Touchdown 3 Minutes After Play Is Started

Catlin Gives Second, Third and Fourth Stringers Chance to Get Into Action in Easy Contest

Lawrence college opened its conference season with an easy win over Northwestern college of Watertown, burying the Lutherans under a 55 to 0 score. From the first play it was evident that the only thing in doubt was the size of the score. Northwestern did not make a single first down and was in Lawrence territory only once when it recovered a fumble on the Blue forty-eight yard line and was rapidly pushed back into its own territory.

Northwestern held Lawrence once on its own five yard line, but during the remainder of the game the Lawrentians were able to gain almost at will. They were forced to punt only three times.

Coach Mark Catlin made numerous substitutions and at the end of the game Stoll and Kotal were the only regulars remaining in the lineup. He used more than three complete teams during the afternoon.

Lawrence scored its first touchdown within three minutes after the kickoff, Fein going over on one of Catlin's famous spread plays. After that it was a procession of touchdowns, Lawrence scoring in every period.

Most of the Lawrence gains were made on straight football and pun spread plays. Forward passes were used sparingly and were uniformly successful except in the final period when the team was made up almost entirely of third string men.

Northwestern presented a fairly good line but its backfield had little driving power.

Bretzman, right end; K. Bretzman, right guard; and Kusk, left tackle, played good football. E. Bretzman and Kusk smeared a number of Lawrence plays, going through consistently.

FIRST QUARTER
Dunham kicked off to the Northwestern 15-yard line. Northwestern got the ball and returned it to its own 35-yard line. Briese caught the Lutheran's punt and returned it to the 20-yard line. On the next play Heidemann broke through the line for a 5-yard gain. Stoll recovered Heidemann's fumble and made a slight gain, followed by another advance of five yards by E. Kotal. Briese carried the ball across the Northwestern goal line three minutes after the game started on a spread play, and Stoll kicked goal.

Bluttdorf kicked to the Lawrence 15-yard line where Heidemann caught the ball and returned it 25 yards. Fein made another punt. Lawrence penalized the same distance for offside. Briese went over the left guard for a few yards and Kotal broke through the Watertown left tackle on the next play. Lawrence was forced to punt and Briese kicked the leather to the Northwestern 25-yard line. The Northwestern right tackle was thrown for a loss and then the Lutherans punted. Kotal returned the ball to the 50-yard line for a 10-yard gain. After Briese broke through the center of the line for a 5-yard advance, Kotal ran around the left end for a 20-yard gain. Another penalty set the Blue back five yards.

With Lawrence on the Northwestern 25-yard line a pass to Fein, who worked like a charm and gave Lawrence 12 yards after which Fein again carried the ball over. Stoll kicked goal for the extra point.

It was Northwestern's ball on their own 20-yard line after Dunham had kicked offside, and the Lutherans punted. Fein failed to gain on two plays. Kotal caught the punt on the Watertown 45-yard line, returning it to the 25-yard marker. Heidemann slipped through right tackle for a big gain and carried the ball across the goal line on the end run after Briese had gained 5 yards. Stoll again kicked goal for the extra point.

Boettcher carried the pigskin from the Lawrence 20-yard line for 10 yards on Northwestern's kickoff, and Kotal and Heidemann brought it to the middle of the field when the quarter ended with Lawrence leading, 21 to 0.

SECOND QUARTER
Immediately after the period started Kotal made a twist run from the 50-yard line for a touchdown through the entire Watertown squad. Stoll's kick did not count for the extra point as there were less than seven men on the line when it was made.

After Dunham had kicked off to the Northwestern goal line the ball was returned a few yards on the play and Northwestern punted to the middle of the field from where Zussman returned for 5 yards. Heidemann went over the left guard for a 9-yard gain, and after a pass was incomplete Nason broke through for another 10 yards. Lawrence was penalized 5 yards for offside. A pretty pass, Kotal to Packard, netted Lawrence 15 yards and put the Blues on the Lutheran's 5-yard line from where Kotal went over through right guard. Stoll kicked goal for the extra point.

Kotal returned from his 5-yard line to the 27-yard line on Northwestern's kickoff, and after Nobles had made a short gain, Lawrence again was penalized 5 yards. Nason broke through for an 8-yard gain, but on the next play Nobles fumbled the ball and Nason, an Appleton man, playing in, recovered it. Kotal intercepted a pass and went to the Northwestern 30-yard line. After making 5 yards through left tackle Zussman made a pretty catch of Kotal's pass for a big gain. Northwestern stood firm on the next play and Lawrence was given another 5-yard penalty. After a series of short gains Lawrence failed to make downs and it was Northwestern's ball

In New Role Blier Blocks Punt And Goes 35 Yards For Only Touchdown

HARRY KIPKE
One of the greatest athletes ever turned out at Michigan was Harry Kipke, star at football, baseball and basketball. Kipke, no longer an active collegiate player, is now coaching football and baseball at University of Missouri. This shows him at work on his new job.

Saturday's Grid Scores

FOOTBALL SCORES
Carroll College 27, Milwaukee Normal 0.
Marquette 21, Navy 3.
Lawrence 55, Northwestern 0.
St. Norberts 6, Ripon 0.
Wisconsin Mining School 13, Campion 0.
Stout 7, Stevens Point 0.
St. John's Military 29, Great Lakes 3.
Whitewater 14, Mount Morris 2.
Oshkosh 48, Northland 0.
Beloit 12, Carleton 11.
La Crosse Normal 52, Platteville 0.
Manitowish H. S., 23, Sturgeon Bay 6.
Marquette 12, Kenosha 7.
Case 19, Otterbein 6.
Ohio 0, Iowa 0.
Oberlin 13, Ohio 7.
Ames 15, Kansas 10.
Louisiana 20, Indiana 14.
Michigan U. T., Aggies 0.
Wisconsin 7, Coe 7.
Notre Dame 34, Wabash 0.
De Pauw 27, Hanover 7.
Chicago 19, Brown 7.
Minnesota 20, Haskell Indians 0.
Grinnell 14, Washington U. 0.
Oklahoma 14, Nebraska 7.
Northwestern 42, Cincinnati 0.
Purdue 41, Rose Poly 3.
Drake 10, Knox 10.
Illinois 40, Butler 10.
South Dakota 5, University of North Dakota 0.
Colgate 41, Clarkson 0.
Williams 14, Cornell 7.
Army 20, Detroit 0.
Yale 7, Georgia 6.
Butgers 35, St. Benaventure 0.
Syracuse 24, William and Mary 7.
W. and J. 25, Grove City 0.
Bucknell 33, Muhlenberg 0.
Columbia 35, Wesleyan 0.
Princeton 0, Lehigh 0.
Yale 7, Georgia 6.
Harvard 16, Middlebury 6.
Johns Hopkins 21, Mount St. Mary 0.
Bowdoin 16, Amherst 14.
Bucknell 27, Muhlenberg 0.
Pennsylvania 25, Swarthmore 7.
Tufts 12, Bates 0.
Colgate 41, Clarkson 0.
Springfield College 2, St. Johns 0.
Dartmouth 38, Vermont 0.
Birmingham 6, Millsaps 0.

CARLETON BOWLS TO BELOIT, 12-11

Beloit—Beloit defeated Carleton, 12 to 11. Saturday before a big homecoming crowd. Quarterback Dawson's toe doing all the scoring for the victors with four drop kicks in the first half. Carleton scored a touchdown in a long pass, a forty yard drop kick and a safety. An offside penalty took a second touchdown away from the visitors, who climaxed the closing period with a dangerous forward pass offensive that baffled the Beloit backs and ended Dawson's four consecutive successful kicks for goal in the same game. A record in the Midwest conference. Beloit had a better line and the breaks were in favor of the home team.

WEST
Remington L. E. L. E. Bugler
Blodgett L. T. L. T. Olson
Low L. G. L. G. McGaw
Lindersmith L. C. L. C. Rowbottom
Spink R. G. R. G. Kunk
Perrin R. T. R. T. Barnes
Helming R. E. R. E. Roscoe
O'Brien R. Q. R. Q. Dawson
Cassell, Capt. L. H. L. H. VonDraschke
Stewart F. F. Nelson, Capt.
Nelson R. H. H. Cutter

EAST
Substitutions—Beloit: Anderson for Olson. Von Draschke for Roscoe. Grady for Von Draschke. O'Brien for Cutter. Van Dolin for Nelson. Nelson for Von Draschke. Carleton: Cooper for Lindersmith. Albers for Low. Damman for Blodgett. Veum for Spink. Rogers for Remington. Street for Nelson.

SOUTH
Summary—Touchdown, Helming; field goals, Dawson, 4; Street, 1; safety, Carleton.
Officials—Kerr, Chicago, referee; Graham, Michigan, umpire; Reitsch, Illinois, head linesman.

MUENCH, LEOPOLD OPEN NEENAH BOWLING ALLEY

Joe Muench and Harry Leopold, two of the Neenah-Menasha State league stars, have embarked on the sea of business as bowling alley proprietors. They have purchased the Neenah alleys and their many friends are giving them a thriving patronage.

Both Muench and Leopold were members of the Valley Bowling league last year in which Appleton was represented with three teams.

TIGERS FORTIFIED AT FIRST

In case Lu Blue's injured knee gives him trouble, Detroit is well fortified for 1925, with Neun of St. Paul, star first sacker of the American association.

THREE-TIME CAPTAIN

Captain Koppich, the outstanding star of the Columbia varsity, has three been honored as team leader. He is the big hope of Coach Percy Haughton for a successful season.

Red and White Squad Unlimbers Passing Attack in Final Quarter Which Threatens to Score

Appleton high school Saturday staged a comeback and defeated the Fond du Lac grid squad, 7 to 0, in a contest in which straight football predominated. The only touchdown of the game came in the second quarter when Blier blocked a punt on the Fond du Lac 35-yard line, grabbed the ball and carried it across the line. Stammer kicked goal for the extra point. During the first quarter the ball was carried up and down the field several times, but neither side was able to get within scoring distance.

With 1 1/2 yards to go for second down in the third quarter Wenzel fumbled the ball and Fond du Lac recovered it. The man who had the ball started running toward the Appleton goal with a clear field ahead of him but Bowby's speed saved the day for his team when the little quarterback raced after the runner and caught him on the 50-yard line. Near the end of the period Appleton failed to make downs and again lost the ball on the Fond du Lac 6-yard line.

FONDY TRIES PASSING
During the final quarter Fond du Lac unlimbered a passing attack and several times threatened to score. The passes were effective for long gains as a rule, but at the crucial times the Orange youngsters showed a strong defense and averted the danger.

The Appleton youngsters showed an entirely different spirit from their first contest and played a good game. There still is room for great improvement especially in aerial work, but if the gridders keep on improving as they did through the past week they promise to regain their old form which made them a dangerous outfit last season.

THE LINEUPS:
Appleton: L. E. Courtney, L. T. Stearns, L. G. Liethen, C. Blier, R. G. Johnson, R. T. Voelck, R. E. Frazer, Q. B. Bowby, L. H. Stammer, R. H. Bachme, F. B. Wenzel.
Fond du Lac: Fitzpatrick L. E. Maus L. T. LeMoult L. G. Muell, (capt) C. Jesus R. T. McMillan R. E. Cohen R. E. Hutchins R. B. Dolan L. H. Howerson R. H. Burnet F. B.

NEW LONDON HELD TO SCORELESS TIE

Manawa Plays Good Game Against Weakened Rivals Saturday Afternoon

Manawa Saturday afternoon held the strong New London high school gridders to a scoreless tie after dropping the first contest last week. The New London team lacked spirit and time after time missed chances, but at no time did Manawa threaten to score. Both teams were handicapped by numerous chuckholes in the field and also by a winnow of hay through the grid. New London attempted a number of passes but all of them were incomplete. In the second half New London reached Manawa's 2-yard line but was unable to push the ball across.

Radtke kicked a field goal in the same period but the kick did not count because the ball was held improperly according to the official's decision.

Radtke and Ladwig played a fair game, but the rest of the squad was far below its usual standard.

STURDUEY NEW LONDON INVADERS
The first preliminary brings together Young Zwick of Kaukauna and Speedy Davis of Milwaukee. This is a four round go at 116 pounds. In the second fray on the card, Ernie Berger of Milwaukee and Julius Zacho of Racine will tangle six rounds at 136 pounds. Both of these bouts have the earmarks of classy scraps as the battlers are well matched.

EXPECT BIG CROWD
Tickets will be placed on sale immediately and the boxing club magazines are expecting a good turnout as the card is as good as one as has been arranged for a Green Bay ring in a long time.

PACKERS BLANK KANSAS CITY, 16-0

Tillie Voss Starts Scoring on 20-yard Pass From Captain Lambeau

Green Bay—Displaying a slashing attack, the Green Bay Packers chalked up a 16 to 0 victory over the Kansas City Blues here Sunday afternoon in a pro league game before a capacity crowd.

Tillie Voss started the Badger state champions on the right track when he grabbed a pass from Lambeau and scampered twenty yards for a score. Buck added the extra point.

In the third period the Packers' air drive worked nicely and the Kansas beat a hasty retreat. Lowell scored a touchdown and later in the period Dutch Hendrian kicked a field goal from the thirty yard line.

Several times in the last quarter the Packers tried to score a touchdown march, but intercepted forward passes halted their advances. Dowitz, Bassett and Berquist were luminaries for the visitors. The lineup:

Green Bay
O'Donnell, lc
Buck, lt
Woods, lg
Earps, c
Gardner, rg
Rosatto, rg
Voss, re
Mathys, q
Basing-Lewellyn, lb
Lambeau, rh
Hendrain, f
Touchdowns—Voss, Lewellyn. Field goal—Hendrian. Goal from touchdown—Buck. Referee—Johnson. Umpire—Wyman. Head linesman—Williams. Timers—Rondou and Cheate.

Kansas City
Webber, lc
Krueger-Andrews, lt
Berquist, lg
Peterson, c
Owens, rg
Bassett, rg
Corran, re
McElmore-Milton, q
H. Hill, lb
Dewitz, rh
Strauss, f
Touchdowns—Voss, Lewellyn. Field goal—Hendrian. Goal from touchdown—Buck. Referee—Johnson. Umpire—Wyman. Head linesman—Williams. Timers—Rondou and Cheate.

ST. NORBERT RALLY BEATS RIPON, 6 TO 0
Ripon—After playing in the shadow of their own game for several eighths of the game St. Norbert Saturday opened up a passing game in the last six minutes which gave them a surprise win, 6 to 0, over Ripon college here Saturday. Ripon had the ball within twenty yards of the St. Norberts goal line, time after time, but were unable to put it across. Five drop kicks failed to count. With two minutes to play, Bunker shot a pass to Lando, who ran across the goal on the only score of the game. The lineup:

Ripon
L. E. Christison
L. T. Rasmus
L. G. Lavallee
Parsons
C. Rose
R. G. Gauthier
R. T. Stamm
R. E. Glennie
L. H. T. Olson
Bunker, R. H.
F. Olson
Q. Murray

St. Norberts
Fox-Lando L. E.
Klouse L. T.
Ouradnik L. G.
Villiesse C.
Nett R. G.
Schneider R. T.
Riley R. E.
McKough R. E.
Hughes L. H.
Bunker R. H.
Steinmetz R. H.
Masse Q.

NUSS AND CONLEY CLASH IN WINDUP OF BAY PROGRAM

Archie Meissner Meets Jack Heinemann of Milwaukee in Double Finish

Green Bay—The opening show of the 1924-25 fistic season will be staged by the Green Bay Boxing club at Turner hall on Friday evening, Oct. 17. A corking good ring program has been arranged with a double wind up on tap.

The ten round engagement will bring together Roy Conley of Green Bay and Jimmy Nuss of DePere. After about a year of wrangling, the rival managers, Al Fain and Jack Walsh, finally agreed on a weight of 154 pounds. This Nuss-Conley battle should be a humdinger as both boys are willing mixers and each of the boys is anxious to start off his fall campaign with a victory.

MEISSNER-HEINEMANN
In the other half of the double wind up, Archie Meissner of Marinette is to give battle to Jack Heinemann of Milwaukee. This is an eight round affair at 150 pounds. Heinemann has been burning things up around the Cream City and he should make things interesting for the husky boy from the Twin Cities.

The first preliminary brings together Young Zwick of Kaukauna and Speedy Davis of Milwaukee. This is a four round go at 116 pounds. In the second fray on the card, Ernie Berger of Milwaukee and Julius Zacho of Racine will tangle six rounds at 136 pounds. Both of these bouts have the earmarks of classy scraps as the battlers are well matched.

EXPECT BIG CROWD
Tickets will be placed on sale immediately and the boxing club magazines are expecting a good turnout as the card is as good as one as has been arranged for a Green Bay ring in a long time.

MARINETTE DEDICATES STADIUM WITH VICTORY

Marquette—Coach Bud McCaw's Kenosha high school gridders threw the scare of a lifetime into the Marinette footballers and 3,000 frenzied fans and came near putting the "dead" in dedication of the new Laurman athletic field here on Saturday. But Marquette won, 12 to 7, in a loosely played game. Kenosha held the upper hand for more than half of the game with a score of 7 to 6, both teams scoring touchdowns within three minutes of half time. The forward pass figured in the scoring of both teams.

Jamestown, N. Y.—Richard Smith, 20, playing football, was killed when his skull was fractured as he attempted a tackle.

STRONG EASTERN TRIO WILL MEET WORTHY RIVALS

Army, Colgate and Dartmouth Clash With Notre Dame, Nebraska, Yale

New York—Army, Colgate and Dartmouth, the only three prominent eastern football eleven which have won all of their games without an opponent crossing their goal line, will meet opponents capable of smirching their records next Saturday.

Dartmouth will go to New Haven to meet a Yale team which had difficulty in defeating Georgia by a 7 to 6 score, and which appeared to be below the standard, of the great eleven of last season.

Colgate, with Tyron again starring, will roll out across the prairies to Lincoln for a battle with Nebraska, defeated Saturday by Oklahoma, but always a severe opponent in an inter-sectional game at home.

Army will come to the Polo Grounds to meet Knuts Rockne's blue comet of Notre Dame in the annual classic. The contest with Harry Wilson, Penn State star, added to Wood and Hewitt in the backfield and boasting an all star center trip in Captain Garbisch, Farwick and Ellinger, had only a practice workout in winning from Detroit Saturday, 20 to 0. Cornell gambled and lost in the defeat by Williams which ended an unbeaten string of 23 victories over the final being 15 to 7.

Navy, smothered by Marquette speed in the final quarter, for a 23 to 3 defeat, and Princeton, held to a 0 to 0 tie by a strong Lehigh eleven which constantly threatened the goal in the second half, will meet at Princeton.

Harvard with power, lacking in the 1923 backfield, restored by Irvine Gehrike, a star of 1922 not available last season, appeared to be the best of the Big Three in its triumph over practically the same Middlebury team which held it to a 6 to 6 tie last season. Columbia hinted at the firm rooting of Percy Haughton's system in a 35 to 0 win from Wesleyan and will receive its first real test Saturday when it meets Pennsylvania, which won from Swarthmore, 25 to 7.

PIGSKIN PRIMER

What are the various types of passes used in football? There are four distinct types of passes.

The spiral pass calls for the ball to be sent through the air with a whirling motion.

In the end-over-end pass the ball rotates from end to end. This is a difficult method and is seldom used.

In throwing the grip pass, the ball is gripped and thrown somewhat like a baseball with either the thumb or fingers on the lacing.

The non-grip pass calls for the ball to rest lightly on the palm of the hand and is given a whirling motion as it is thrown.

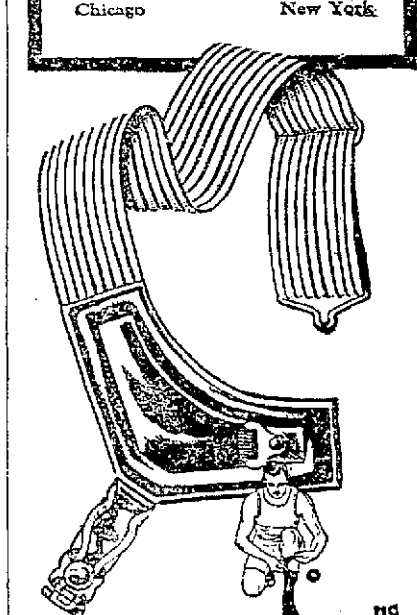

Montreal—The New York Giants defeated the Chicago White Sox in the first exhibition game of their winter tour, 13 to 5.

Time for a fresh pair? PARIS GARTERS

Own an extra pair of Paris so you can always have a clean, crisp, fresh pair handy. You'll find it a great convenience.

As low as 35¢

A. STEIN & COMPANY
Also Makers of Hickory Products
Chicago New York

actual size

44 Cigar is made by Consolidated Cigar Corporation, New York Distributed by Lewis & Leidersdorf Co. Milwaukee, Wis.

"APPLETON'S EXCLUSIVE RADIO SHOP"

APPLETON RADIO SHOP

John Harriman 745 College Ave.
Sets, Supplies, Service
Next to Fair Store
D. Janson Phone 3812

"The Nervous Wreck"

By E. J. Rath

Copyright 1924 by NEA Service Inc.

(Continued from our last issue.)

"At last, father, we've got somebody who can cook," said Harriet. "Remember how awful it was last summer?"

The boss of the ranch nodded and reached for the omelette platter. "Tell your wife that she's a good cook," he said. "Tell her to keep it up. Tell her to have fried chicken tonight, and browned potatoes, and beans, and corn, if she's got any—and more biscuits. Understand?"

More biscuits. Coffee too. And I want her to make some pie. If she hasn't got stuff to make pie out of, we'll send for it. And tell her to cook a lot of everything."

Harriet Underwood frowned and glanced at her brother.

Remember, father, the doctor said—"The doctor's in New York," interrupted Underwood. "What he doesn't know will never get into his bull. Don't forget, Williams—whatever you said your name was—have your wife keep right on cooking."

The Wreck, passing the biscuits again, acknowledged the command with a nod. He was hungry, and he was tired, and he hoped there would be something left of the omelette, although he could see that the chances were against him. He did not need to be told that Sally Morgan could cook; he knew it before they did, back at the Bar-M, where Sally often shooed her mother out of the kitchen, and ran things to suit herself.

"People can eat more out in this country," observed Underwood, apparently talking to himself. "It's the dry air and the altitude. Back in New York—"

There was an uncertain tinkle of the telephone bell in the next room. He lumbered hastily out of his chair in answer to it.

"Yes; this is Underwood. Got him, have you? All right. Put him on. That's the Sheriff. Great Scott! You're a hard man to get. Never mind. This is Underwood. Get me? What? Yes; that's right. Off in the northeast corner of the county. New listen:

"I was held up last night in my car. About thirty miles from the ranch, I should say. West of it, on the main road; there's only one road. We didn't come here direct, drove around by way of Duncan. The road's better. Had my son and daughter with me, and a driver. Are you getting this?—"

"Four men... Yes; four. Blocked the road with their own car and held us up. We never had a chance. Took watches, valuables, money. What? Took everything we had that was worth carrying off. Stole all the gas out of our tank and left us flat on the road. Let the air out of our tires with a knife. How's that?—"

"How the devil can I give you a description? It was pitch dark. They had handkerchiefs over their faces. I'm not supposed to furnish a set of Bertillon measurements, am I? You didn't expect me to take fingerprints, did you, with a gun stuck under my nose? You're what?—"

There was an inarticulate rumble from the living room, then a booming of the heavy voice. "You're surprised?" roared Underwood. "You don't think there was anybody working the road over this way? Well, if you're surprised, what do you think I am? Doesn't a property owner get any protection in this county? I'm so worried I've got a place here. If you want to know whether I pay any taxes just look up the books. What? Oh, you know about me, do you? Well, I'm damned glad somebody knows about me. Now, the best advice I can give you is to get busy. How's that?—"

"How do I know what direction they went in?" They started east when they left us, that's all I know. I want action—understand? I'll pay any reward and any expenses that are necessary, but I want action. I'm going to find out whether a taxpayer in this county has any protection against highwaymen. All right. You're getting on the job at once; is that it? Yes; I'll be here for some time. I'll expect to hear from you without much delay. Your name is Wells, isn't it? All right."

The Wreck, who was pouring coffee for Chester, spilled some into the saucer, but recovered himself. So the sheriff's name was Wells!

Jerome Underwood came back into the dining room, wearing the expression of a man who has achieved a stroke of business. "Made it pretty strong, didn't you father?" suggested his son, with a faint smile.

"Strong? Certainly I did. You don't suppose I wanted to give him the idea that it was a tea party, do you? When I've got a hand I play it to the limit. I don't want him leading on the job. He knows who I am. If he doesn't it won't take him long to find out."

He made another dive at the omelette.

"Says he'll get a posse on the road at once. Well, he'd better. A posse? What they need out here is a few New York Policemen."

The Wreck, seeing no immediate need of his services, disappeared through the pantry in the direction of the kitchen. He had a queer look as much a look of triumph as any thing else.

Sally jumped up from a chair at the window and shot a glance of inquiry at him.

"Where are my spectacles?" he demanded. "Mr. Wells is here."

She found them and the Wreck began to look like himself again.

"Now, tell me everything," she ordered.

"He's been at the telephone, ringing the county against four desperadoes," said the Wreck. "He made a regular yarn of it by the time Sally came in. I guess they'll hang us sure. Sally—"

The Wreck contemplated her for a few seconds. He wondered just how she was going to take the news. "He's a good liar, he piled it on. And he pulled all the old stuff about influence, and how much taxes he pays, and all the New York dope. He made me thank God I came from Pittsburgh."

"Could you get any idea of what's being done about it?" asked Sally, with the practical aspects uppermost in her thoughts.

"Oh, there's a posse getting on the job," said the Wreck, wearily. "A posse," mused Sally, nodding. "Yes, I'd imagine that. Who did he have on the phone?"

"He was talking to the sheriff."

"The sheriff? Uh-huh. Well, that means—"

Sally stopped and stared at the Wreck. Something had startled her. "What county are we in?" she demanded.

He shrugged. He never tried to keep track of counties and he did not know. But she read something in his eyes that caused her to clutch at his arm.

"Henry Williams! He wasn't talking to—"

"Yes, he was. That's exactly who he was talking to."

She walked back to the chair by the window and sat down, suddenly limp. For half a minute the Wreck was unable to figure just what sort of reaction she was having. It seemed to him that every possible emotion flashed into her face, one succeeding the other so rapidly that all was a confused blur. And then, with her head tossed back and her eyes wide with excitement, she began to laugh.

"Oh," she gasped. "Oh, Henry, do you ever hear of such a joke? Bob Wells, Bob—out with a posse—to catch me."

"I'll admit it's a joke," said the Wreck, cheerfully. "Why, it's a perfect scream! I might have known you were in the same county; it's so terribly big. But I never even thought about it. And now he's got the sheriff—Bob Wells."

She passed into another phase of laughter while the Wreck watched. Any time they wanted to laugh about Bob Wells the Wreck was a willing listener.

"I start out for a trousseau, and I get turned into a hold-up man, and I'm chased by Bob Wells!"

"It's great," he affirmed, solemnly. Then he saw that another change was coming. She was getting control of herself and the laughter was fading. There was a questioning look in her eyes, a chewing of her under lip.

"Hm. It's rather embarrassing at that," she said slowly. "I don't know that it's so funny, after all. It complicates things. Bob Wells is a perfectly good sheriff. When he goes after people he's a perfect bloodhound. He got a murderer last year, that nobody ever dreamed he could get. And if he should ever find us—"

She broke off and plunged into another period of reflection. Presently she was frowning, and the Wreck saw that she was chewing her fist.

"Henry Williams," she said, standing up and facing him. "I don't like it. I don't like one bit. Bob Wells hasn't got any business to be chasing me."

The Wreck had never been able to make anything out of women, and now he knew that he never would.

CHAPTER XX

The Wreck fought

ed out and classified in an orderly manner for the rest of the day. They insisted on mixing themselves up; they refused to stay where she tried to put them. Ordinarily she was of a temperamental quite serene and obedient to her will except, of course, when the Wreck charged into her like a "risky steer. Even on those occasions her departure from a "normal" train was brief and largely superficial. But the news that Sheriff Bob Wells was going out with a posse upset her; it struck deeper and affected her in so many different ways that she seemed to be spinning like a weather vane in a whirlwind.

She laughed, she was serious, she was scornful, she was angry, she was incredulous; she was alarmed—all these and other moods took possession of her, one giving way to another, only to come back and repeat itself after a while, so that the final result was to leave her in a very uncertain state of mind.

"Strong? Certainly I did. You don't suppose I wanted to give him the idea that it was a tea party, do you? When I've got a hand I play it to the limit. I don't want him leading on the job. He knows who I am. If he doesn't it won't take him long to find out."

He made another dive at the omelette.

"Says he'll get a posse on the road at once. Well, he'd better. A posse? What they need out here is a few New York Policemen."

The Wreck, seeing no immediate need of his services, disappeared through the pantry in the direction of the kitchen. He had a queer look as much a look of triumph as any thing else.

Sally jumped up from a chair at the window and shot a glance of inquiry at him.

"Where are my spectacles?" he demanded. "Mr. Wells is here."

She found them and the Wreck began to look like himself again.

"Now, tell me everything," she ordered.

"He's been at the telephone, ringing the county against four desperadoes," said the Wreck. "He made a regular yarn of it by the time Sally came in. I guess they'll hang us sure. Sally—"

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

"They'd better wait till they can hang us."

LITTLE JOE

A LOT OF FOLKS OUGHT TO USE THEIR ADVICE INSTEAD OF GIVING IT AWAY!

©1924 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

MOM'N POP

MEANWHILE OSWALD NUTMES CONVERS WITH ATTORNEY RACE WHO HAS FILED THE SUIT FOR $50,000 DAMAGES AGAINST THE MAGIC MUD CO.—THEY HAVE AGREED TO SPLIT THE SPOILS EQUALLY—TO OSWALD THE CASE IS ALREADY WON.

WELL, ATTORNEY—WHEN I GET THAT CHECK FOR MY HALF OF THE $50,000 I'M GOING TO INVEST IN A BIG TOURING CAR—I LOOKED AT ONE THIS MORNING—ONLY $5000.

THEN I THINK I'LL GO DOWN TO THE STEAMSHIP OFFICE AND BUY MYSELF A TRIP TO EUROPE SO I CAN MINGLE WITH THE ARISTOCRATS AT MONTE CARLO THIS WINTER—

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

OH, PROF TUTT, HERE'S SOME BLACK-EYED SUSANS I BROUGHT YOU—OR AS WE BOTANISTS WOULD SAY, U4—RUDBECKIA HIRTA.

WHY—OH YES, YES—PRETTY, AREN'T THEY?

AH, A MEMBER OF THE COMPOSITE FAMILY! A GOOD FLOWER TO COMPARE WITH THE ONES WE HAVE BEEN STUDYING!

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

WAIT A MINUTE, SUM, AN' I'LL WALK T' SCHOOL WITH YOU.

ALL RIGHT—SAY, DID YOU GET ALL TH' CAPITALS FOR T'DAYS LESSON?

OH, SURE—I GOT 'EM ALL LAS' NIGHT B'FORE I WENT TO BED.

He's Right

NEW MEXICO HAS TWO CAPITALS.

SURE—NEW MEXICO HAS TWO CAPITALS—N AND M!

SALESMAN $AM

DANGONIT $AM—TH' ONLY WAY WE CAN KEEP OUR CUSTOMERS NOW IS TO GIVE CREDIT—SO MUCH DOWN AND TH' BALANCE MONTHLY.

ONLY ONE WEEK MORE OPEN OCT 20.

OUT OUR WAY

FER GOSH SAKES! HOW WE GONNA GET UP ANY SPEED WITH AT KID HANGIN' ON? GIT HIM OFFN THERE!

LETTIM ALONE! NA POOR SIMPLINGTON, CANTCHA SEE TH' MORE WEIGHT WE GOT BEHIND IT—TH' MORE NUTS IS GONNA COME DOWN?

By Williams

MOMENTS WED LIKE TO LIVE OVER—A BUMPER CROP.

©1924 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

Come Back to Earth, Oswald

A FELLOW ONLY LIVES ONCE, YOU KNOW, SO I MAY AS WELL HAVE MY FUN AT OLD MAN GUNN'S EXPENSE.

YES, BUT BEFORE YOU GO LET ME HAVE YOUR CHECK FOR $1000 TO COVER SOME ADDITIONAL EXPENSES IN THIS CASE!!

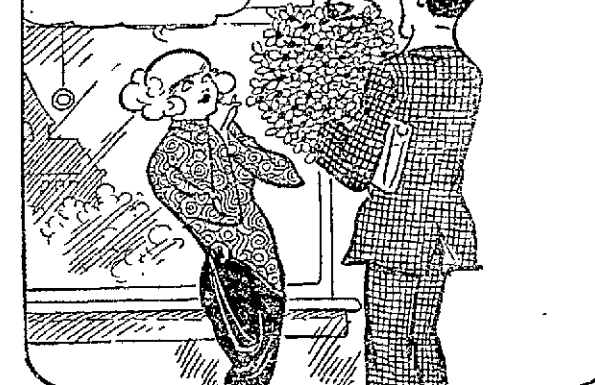

By Taylor

Oh, Yes!

I WENT WAY OUT IN TH' COUNTRY AN' PICKED 'EM JUS FOR YOU, PROFESSOR!

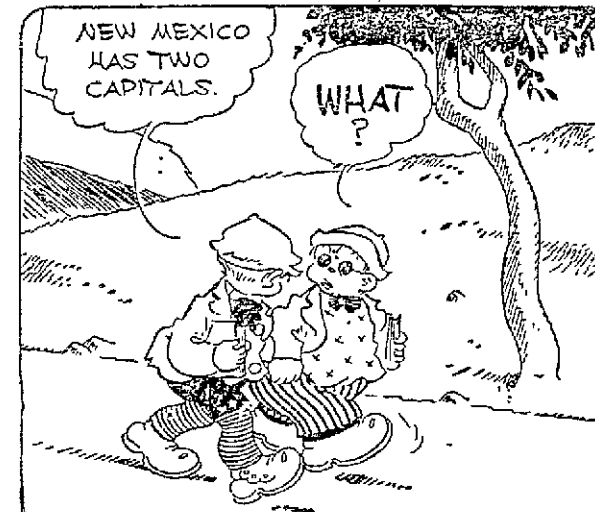

DID YOU NOTICE THAT THE RAY FLOWERS HAVE NEITHER STAMENS OR PISTILS?

By Martin

©1924 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

By Blosser

©1924 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

No Sale

THASS A DANDY FOR $300 CAN I GET IT ON CREDIT?

YOU BET YOUR LIFE YOU CAN.

JUST LET ME HAVE YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS.

AW, HECK—I MIGHTA KNOWN THERE WAS SOME CATCH TO IT.

By Swan

©1925 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

By Ahern

WHOA—SLOW UP BEN HUR, YOU'RE WHEEL IS COMING OFF!—WHY TH' HASTE—AN' WHAT'S THAT PACKAGE UNDER YOUR FIN, IF I MAY BE SO BOLD TO ASK?

INDEED SIR—YOUR RUDENESS IS PLEBIAN, INDEED! IF YOU FEEL IT IS ANY OF YOUR AFFAIRS—WHY—I AM MERELY TAKING A PACKAGE OF WING COLLARS TO THE LAUNDRY, SIR!

WELL, THERE GOES TH' BOX OF CIGARS BACK TO TH' FACTORY, BEFORE THEY SEND HIM A BILL!

YEH—CLYDE PUT 'EM BACK AGAIN ON TH' MAJOR'S DRESSER, AN' HE'S HAPPIER THAN A HYENA FULL OF LAUGHING GAS!

THE CIGARS, MINUS THE SIX SAMPLE ONES—

THE "LAUNDRY" HAPPENS TO BE THE POST OFFICE!

©1924 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

FICTION

A PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

RECIPES

"Don't" Rules That Lead Toward Happiness, As Judge Sees It

San Francisco.—After all, the easiest solution of the divorce problem is pecking the right sort of husband or wife.

Judge Thomas J. Graham, who has presided over divorce action in San Francisco for more than 20 years, and who is known the country over as the "great reconciler," testifies to that. And he ought to know for he has granted thousands of divorces and annulments and has brought about a great many reconciliations.

Judge Graham has made an intensive study of the cause of divorces in his 20 years of experience. He has compiled a list of 10 "Never's" for men and the same number for women contemplating matrimony.

"NEVER'S" FOR GIRLS

1 Never marry a man who does not read the newspaper, sport secures Young fellows who are not interested in athletic sports are not apt to be interested in anything but themselves.

2 Never marry a man who plays cards for money. Love for games of chance is almost certain to supplant other loves.

3 Never marry a man who says he has no bad habits. He is pretty sure to have a vice much worse than drinking or smoking. If he is of the "holier-than-thou" variety he soon will be come a pest.

4 Never marry a man your parents object to unless your parents are most unreasonable. Sixty-five per cent of the elopements and in divorce courts.

5 Never marry a man who says he does not care for children. He's unnatural, selfish and not to be trusted.

6 Never marry a man because he's a good dancer. Men who live in tattered feet seldom have anything in their heads.

7 Never marry a man who detests dogs. He is incapable of loving any thing even himself.

8 Never marry a man who thinks on the fly. If he isn't fair and square on that count he'll deceive you in other things.

9 Never marry a man who speaks slightlying of your parents or of old people. He'll neglect you when you begin to get gray and wrinkled.

10 Never marry until you are old enough to know what you are doing. Sixteen-year-old brides go often are 17-year-old grass widows.

"NEVER'S" FOR MEN

1 Never marry a girl who has soft white hands when her mother's are roughened by hard work. She won't be a good helpmate.

2 Never marry a girl who wants you to take her to a show every night and is never content to sit at home. She's not the type who will make a home for you.

3 Never marry a girl who keeps her room or the parlor littered with tattered photographs or former beaux. She's a collector of heart throbs and she won't stop flitting after she marries.

4 Never marry a girl who is ashamed of her parents and doesn't want you to meet them. She's the wrong sort for any man.

5 Never marry a girl whose only thought is clothes. She will always be a clothes hanger and she'll keep you broke.

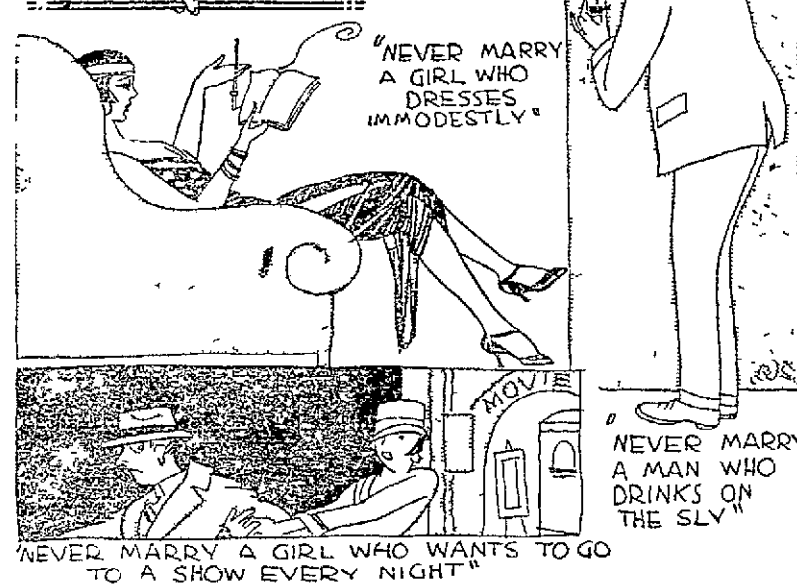

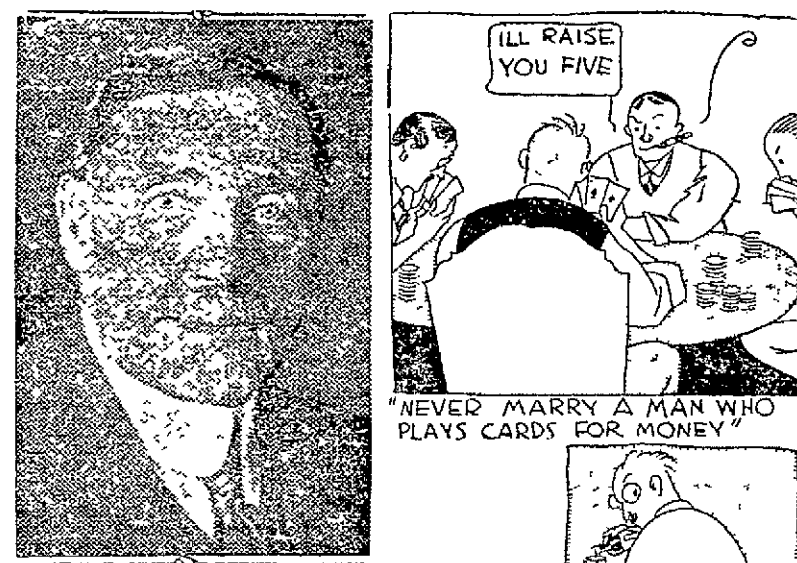

6 Never marry a girl who insists that you spend more on her than you can afford. She will have no thought for your financial affairs after marriage.

7 Never marry a girl who is immodest in dress. No man wants to blush for his wife's appearance. On the other hand a girl who is slovenly and untidy will kill the most ardent love.

8 Never marry the promiscuous. She'll cause lots of grief and heart pangs later.

9 Never marry a girl several years older or many years younger than yourself. The difference in ages will cause many a "spat" and "spats" are harbingers of misery.

10 And never marry a girl who is not fond of children. Childless homes except in unusual cases are not en during.

JUDGE THOMAS F. GRAHAM

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN (A Menu for the Stout and Thin) EAT AND— Lose Weight—Gain Weight

Half grapefruit, 3 tablespoons baked beans, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 1 head lettuce 1 lamb chop or 3 ounces boiled mutton 1 boiled turnip 4 tablespoons lemon gelatin pudding 1 tablespoon whipped unsweetened cream, 1 pint skimmed milk 2 thin slices crisp gluten toast, 1 toasted bran muffin 1 gluten roll Total calories, 3080 Protein 257 fat 258, carbohydrate, 555. Iron 0.229 gram

Every person every day should eat some green vegetable. Lettuce, either leaf or head celery, radishes or cabbage can be included in every diet and used interchangeably. Remain the endives and watercress offer variety.

The greens come into their own when spring and furnish necessary vitamins.

Buttermilk can be substituted for skimmed milk if desired. Plenty of water should be drunk during the day.

The toasting of bread does not change its food value, it merely makes it necessary to "chew" and is more easily digested.

Adventures Of The Twins

WHAT HAPPENED ON VENUS

The Twins ate along on the black night mare behind Snuggles the Dream Man's second son. They were looking for the gnome who stole the sleepy sand.

Venus is a queer place. Quicker than Mars," said Nick to Nancy.

Hey, what a fat," asked an old man who happened to be passing.

What did you say? My nose isn't going so I can't hear very well out of my eyes."

I said that everything was strange," said Nick.

"I see what you mean. I see what you mean exactly," said the old man. "And you are entirely right. I always said that fried cakes were a bad thing to eat going to bed. If I eat more than my little toe keeps me awake all night."

Oh, goodness," whispered Nancy. "He's as deaf as a post. We'll have to ask somebody else. Good-bye, old man."

"Yes, I certainly will," called the old man after them. "A week next Sunday."

People in Venus were getting breakfast because it was so nearly bedtime.

Some were sweeping the streets and brushing the dust into the houses.

"My, oh my!" cried a woman near them. "I have the most dreadful time! I can't keep the house dirty to save me. It's so clean and cleared up at night that I am perfectly ashamed of it. I do hope these sweepers aren't coming to see me."

"Did you see a funny little fellow with a bag over his shoulder?" asked

An Invitation Must Have A Formal Reply

Writing and acknowledging invitations may seem a trivial task, but is often a puzzling problem, especially with one not often called upon to perform such social duty. That it is important to have this information one realizes keenly when an invitation is received that denotes a lack of understanding of social usages and comes from a source from which better things are expected.

In acknowledging all invitations there is one rule that never fails, and that is to reply to all formal invitations in a formal way and of course, according to all social dictates, in the kind person. This includes all invitations worked in a formal way, whether they are written by hand or engraved.

TO INFORMAL AFFAIRS

When inviting friends to an informal affair of any kind invitations may be given over the telephone, nice friendly notes may be sent, or the more popular form of invitation the calling card with the date of the social affair written on it may be used. All invitations to luncheons are considered informal unless the affair is given for some distinguished guest and then the invitations are sent out in the regular formal manner. If a hostess has help when calling on her guests she must not make the unavoidable mistake of asking any friend to wait while she speaks to some one or finishes some task but must be careful to be within easy call to give her invitation.

The acceptance of an invitation to a wedding depends entirely on the invitation. If it is for the church only no reply is necessary. An invitation to a reception of the wedding breakfast requires an acknowledgment. This should be written on the front of a sheet of plain white note paper and in a formal way as if engraved.

ACCEPTANCES AND REGRETS

Asking for an invitation for a house guest is sometimes awkward, but it never need be if one understands correct social custom. One should never ask for an invitation for a stranger not even a house guest to a luncheon or dinner, but it is permissible to ask for an invitation to a dance, afternoon teas, bridge parties, musicales or any form of general entertainment. The matter of asking an invitation for a friend is one which a person must handle with discretion and an usual tact, and be very sure that the request is not one that would be in any way distasteful to the hostess.

All acceptances of invitations and regrets must be written in formal fashion by hand, and under no circumstances can the engraved form be used.

Problem Of Disposing Of Bobbed Locks

After you have plucked your courage to the point of facing the executioner and being bobbed, the next is how to dispose of the locks. A disposition should be made of what you have just severed.

There is something appealing and pitiful about a handful of newly-mown hair. Only a calloused woman with little vanity can leave it scattered on the barbershop floor particularly if it happened to be a lovely shade of red gold or curled of its own accord.

A practical woman of course has it wrapped up as she would a suit waist or a sausage and puts it in the attic looking forward to the day when switches and puffs may be fashion's whim.

COMBINES SENTIMENT AND SENSE

An even more practical woman sells it outright for whatever it will bring. Clara Ogilvie, a beauty operator in New York, gave a little serious consideration to the matter and evolved a plan for using this commodity which combines sentiment and sense in equal proportions.

She had the severed hair made into doll wigs which are grafted in turn on the heads of expensive French dolls that are now the rage. And she thus started a fad that is catching on splendidly.

The idea has many possibilities. Such a doll would be a most appropriate gift to the husband or sister who objected so violently to the shearing.

HELPS STUFF CUSHION

Or it makes a very personal gift to the dear friend who accompanied you to the block the day you had such need of moral support.

Miss Ogilvie also originated the idea of burying the treasure beneath a heart-shaped patch on a soft cushion.

"I had to solve the matter of what to do with hair, because I was constantly confronted with it," Miss Ogilvie says.

"Virtually all of our patrons asked my advice in the matter. It was a question that never troubled me though, because I never bobbed my hair."

Haunting Comedy Has Powerful Attraction

Hollywood.—In the picturization of Andrewey's "He Who Gets Slapped" Lon Chaney achieves the peculiar effect of posing a figure who inspires pity as a symbol of persecution but who as an individual arouses little sympathy.

As "He" Chaney dominates the film, brilliantly directed by Victor Seastrom for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and having in the cast such excellent players as Tully Marshall, Marc McDermott, Norma Shearer and John Gilbert.

The man "who gets slapped" first as a scientist robbed of his toil, and then as a circus clown, buffeted for the low pleasure of the multitude is one of the most definite and stirring characterizations in Chaney's gallery of garroves, cripples and misfits.

But "He" is subtly repulsive precisely because he goes beyond the ordinary range of pity in permitting himself to be repeatedly outraged. A fixed smile in the face of life's smacks may infuriate an audience of the screen or of the streets, quite as much as a perpetual scowl. It revolts the normal healthy self-respecting human who in the mass has never subscribed to turning the other cheek for a slap.

In similar tragicomic mood and stress on grimace Tully Marshall does the role of the degraded aristocrat who would force his daughter, the circus rider into marriage with a lecherous noble. It is a novel conception, this role speeded with odd humor.

Vivid, flesh human contrast to these other characters is provided by Norma Shearer, coveted by the noble Marc McDermott, worshipped by the clown Chaney, and loved and won by John Gilbert fellow rider of the circus. Miss Shearer does a detectable impersonation and adds further weight to the prediction that she will stand among the most admirable figures of the screen.

The ironic analogy between the academy of science which laughingly permits the fove's life work to be polluted and the circus crowd which gibbers at the clown's tragic entertainment is particularly impressive.

LON CHANEY

A smashing revenge culminates the piece when the clown looses a circus lion upon his tormentors, one of whom has just mortally wounded him so that "He" may have one final laugh not at his own expense.

"He Who Gets Slapped" is a picture of exceptional quality. It holds and haunts. It picks resentment against hero and villain alike, as life does. And it provokes thought as well as entertainment, without obvious effort.

thing that will perhaps surprise you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of her husband, but of her everyday life, her beautiful home her lovely baby—yes and that charming, if narrow minded, old woman for a mother in law and her friend, Ruth Ellington, who loves me devotedly. Even you, Bee the dearest friend I have ever had have never cared for me as Ruth Ellington does for you. I think I am being a little malicious because I am a little jealous of

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

Houses For Sale 81
N. DIVISION ST.—805 7 room mod ern house. Tel. 1190W.

Lots For Sale 85
LOTS—In all parts of the city. Improved and unimproved. Reasonable prices. Gates, 651 Superior-st.
Tel. 1552.

To Exchange—Real Estate 88
APARTMENT HOUSE—in city of 6,000 population. Will exchange for farm. Write F. W. Klunn, Shiocton, R-2.

FARM—High grade dairy farm located near town. Good set of farm buildings, also, with personal property. Will exchange for retail store proposition, cheese factory or city property. Write R-2, co. Post Crescent.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

RENT A FORD

Open or closed cars.
10c A MILE
New 1924 models.

Gibson's FORD RENTAL CO., Inc.

Oshkosh Fond du Lac
APPLETON

A MESSAGE TO FARMERS

We are in the market daily for live or dressed

HOGS, CHICKENS, VEAL

and we guarantee to pay the current prices as listed in market reports.
The amount of business carried on in our 4 retail markets makes it necessary for us to buy in the neighborhood of 100 to 125 hogs, 50 calves, and 400 to 500 chickens a week.

Write or Phone
HOPFENSBERGER BROS., Inc.

Appleton Phone 224
Neenah Phone 4240

Legal Notices 91

STATE OF WISCONSIN, County Court for Outagamie County.

In the matter of the estate of Michael Hunter, deceased, in probate.
Furnish to the order made in this matter for the county court for Outa-gamie County on the day of September, 1924.

Notice is hereby given that at a Special term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton in said county, on the third Tuesday, being the twenty-first day of October, 1924, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, he heard and considered the petition of Katherine Hunter for the appointment of an administrator of the estate of Michael Hunter, late of the City of Kaukauna, in said county, deceased.

Notice is hereby also given that all claims for allowance against said deceased must be presented to said court on or before the thirty-first day of January, 1925, which is the time limited therefor, or be forever barred,
and

Notice is hereby also given that at a Regular term of said court to be held at the court house aforesaid on the first Tuesday, being the third day of February, 1925, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, he heard, examined and adjusted all claims against said deceased then presented to said court.

Provided, That all claims for necessary funeral expenses, expenses for the last sickness of said deceased and for debts having a preference under the laws of the United States, which shall have been represented to said court within sixty days from the date of said order, will be heard, examined and adjusted at a Regular term of said court to be held at the court house aforesaid, on the first Tuesday being the fourth day of December, 1924, on the opening of the court on that day or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard.

Dated September 29, 1924.
By Order of the Court:
FRED W. HEINEMANN,
County Judge.

RYAN & CARY,
Attorneys for the Estate.
Sept. 29, Oct. 6-13

DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED States of the Eastern District of Wisconsin—In the matter of Floyd
H. Joslin, bankrupt.

The above named bankrupt, having filed his petition to be discharged, the court made the following order thereon to wit:

On the thirteenth day of October A.
D. 1925, on reading the foregoing petition it is ordered by the court that a hearing be had upon the same on the twenty-second day of November,
A. D. 1924, before said court in the city of Milwaukee in said district, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice thereof be published in the Appleton Post-Crescent, a newspaper published in said district, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the hearing, and place and show cause, if any they have why the prayer of said petition
should not be granted.

It is further ordered by the court that the clerk shall send by mail to
all known creditors copies of said petition and this order addressed to them at their places of residence, as stated.

Witness, the Hon. Ferdinand A.
Gogger, Judge of said court, and the seal thereof, at Milwaukee, in said district, on the thirteenth day of October, A. D. 1924.
C. D. WESTFAHL, JR., Clerk.
Oct. 15-16.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, County Court for Outagamie County.

In the matter of the estate of Peter
J. Laux, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that at a regular term of the county court to be held in said county at the court house
in the city of Appleton in said county
on the first Tuesday, being the fourth day of November A. D. 1924, at the opening of the court on that day, to-wit: at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the following matter will be heard and considered.

The application of Joseph Laux and George B. Laux as the executors of the last will and testament of Peter

AUCTIONEER RICH
BUT HE CONTINUES TO SELL RELICS

David Jacobs is Original Character of Warfield Play,
"The Auctioneer"

Boston.—He came to this country with ambition, knowledge of six languages, and two glass bottle knickknacks.

The knickknacks brought him fame and riches.

David Abraham Jacobs, immortalized by David Warfield in his famous play "The Auctioneer" has continued his undeviating way despite the fame and despite the riches. Surely, to look at him and to look at his dusty little shop in Cambridge street here one would think he had neither.

At he still sells gate-leg tables, samovars, brass candlesticks, miniature ships blown in glass bottles, windsor chairs, gewgaws galore to those who want—and these include notables from all parts of the country.

Henry Ford just stepped in to buy a round-top table. He paid $11 for it.
Jacobs gave him a receipt. Ford went out. If a crowd hadn't gathered outside Jacobs would not have known it was the same way when David Warfield came in some time ago. He came again and again. And then one day Jacobs received a fare to New York and tickets for "The Auctioneer."
He went and saw himself characterized on the stage selling brass candlesticks and he went seven times more.
But he returned to his shop, "just making a living."

"I don't care for money," he tells you, but one could hardly say that Jacob passed up any opportunities to make money. In fact he has proved that his "junk shop" is pretty much of a mine.

With his two bottle antiques brought over from Poland, he started his career as an antique dealer in 1897. The two antiques he sold for $5 each.

"Ach, this is a good cuntry," he thought "to make money so easily." Then he bought 400 cigars for $1 and sold them for $4.

"Ach, this is a good cuntry beyond doubt!"

So Jacobs bought and sold and bought and sold and bought and sold until he became famous for his bargaining. David Warfield discovered him. Antiques collectors called at his door. Prominent merchants, doctors, lawyers, manufacturers came to him for bits of period furniture, brass ornaments and various other relics of another age which Jacobs salvaged from attics and cellars.

Yet the shop has remained the same —they call it a "junk shop" along Cambridge street.

In the meantime Jacobs' two sons have completed college courses, he has bought valuable property in Boston, he owns a mansion, he owns a big car.

And he wears his same old black frock and sits in a dark corner of his shop waiting for the Fords and the Warfields and the Morris Gestas to come for his wares.

"The antique business is good," he admits, "but you have to watch what's going on. A year ago I couldn't sell a sailing ship in a bottle for any price. Today I can't supply the demand."

METAL WORKERS OF U. S. HOLD CONCLAVE

Milwaukee.—Metal workers from all parts of the United States are here upon the twenty-eighth annual meeting of the American Foundry-men's association. In conjunction with the convention the Institute of Metals, division of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, will hold several conferences looking to a better system of standardization in the industry.

G. H. Clamer, Philadelphia, president of the association, and E. K.
Elliot, chairman of the institute, will be chairmen of the joint meetings.
Advancement of Metallurgy and foundry work, better production methods, waste elimination and efficiency are the principal subjects to come before the convention which closes Oct. 16.

DAWES STARTS DRIVE FOR KENTUCKY VOTES

Louisville, Ky.—Beginning a two day drive for Kentucky's 12 electoral votes, Charles C. Dawes, Republican nominee for vice president, had on his program here a noon luncheon, meeting with party leaders, followed by a reception a radio speech at 3 o'clock and a formal address at the Jefferson country Monday night.

Frederick M. Sackett, Republican nominee for United States Senator, and place and show cause, if any they have why the prayer of said petition
should not be granted.

It is further ordered by the court
that the clerk shall send by mail to
all known creditors copies of said petition and this order addressed to them
at their places of residence, as stated.

Witness, the Hon. Ferdinand A.
Gogger, Judge of said court, and the seal thereof, at Milwaukee, in said
district, on the thirteenth day of October, A. D. 1924.
C. D. WESTFAHL, JR., Clerk.
Oct. 15-16.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, County Court for Outagamie County.

In the matter of the estate of Peter
J. Laux, deceased.

Notice is hereby given, that at a regular term of the county court to be held in said county at the court house
in the city of Appleton in said county
on the first Tuesday, being the fourth day of November A. D. 1924, at the opening of the court on that day, to-wit: at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the following matter will be heard and
considered.

The application of Joseph Laux and George B. Laux as the executors of the last will and testament of Peter

LEGAL NOTICE

J. Laux late of the City of Appleton in said county, deceased, for the examination and allowance of his final account (which account is now on file in said court), and for the allowance of debts, claims and other matters in good faith without having been first filed, approved or allowed by the court, as required by law, and for the assignment of the residue of the estate of said deceased to such persons as are by law and said last will entitled thereto, and for the determination and adjudication of the inheritance tax, if any, payable in said estate.

Dated October 11th, 1924
BY THE COURT
FRED W. HEINEMANN,
County Judge

ALFRED C. ROSSER,
Attorney for Executors,
Appleton, Wisconsin.
Oct. 13-20-27.

FIGHTS SON

DO NOT VOTE for MY SON

DEATHS

AGNES HOPFENSBERGER
Agnes Hopfensberger infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hopfenberger, died at her home, 672 Lincoln st., Sunday morning. Burial was made Monday morning at Dalbey

MRS. ANNA JOCHMAN
Mrs. Anna Jochman, age 66, died Sunday morning at the home of her son, John, at Grand Chute. She survived by one daughter, Mrs. John Heck, Edgemoor, four sons, Henry, Center, John, Grand Chute; Peter, Greenville, and Alois, Baraboo; two daughters, Mrs. Francis Besch, Appleton, and Mrs. Henry Appleton, Freedom; two brothers, John Heckel, Appleton, and Anton Heckel, Grand Chute.
Twenty grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Mary church at Greenville. Interment will take place in St. Mary cemetery. The Rev. Edward Schimberg will be in charge.

SANE DURING DAY; IN CELL AT NIGHT

Philadelphia.—When the sun is high, and the birds are singing and men go about their daily tasks, James E. Macusker is sane.

But when the moon comes out when the days work is done and all is hushed, James E. Macusker—yes, the same man—is insane.

Through a strange, fearful of legal red tape, Macusker has a daily paradox between the hours of 8 a. m. and 9
p. m. when he would be allowed, unattended, to go to his business. After 3 p. m. he was again to return to the asylum, and for the night the state was to be his keeper.

And so every day Macusker goes alone to his business. He works hard and again the business is becoming valuable. But when other men go home, he may not. For with the stroke of night he automatically becomes insane, though as says he's no more insane than he has been all day.

A touch of irony is added to the strange case. Although Macusker is not permitted final word in the management of his estate, letters reach him, he says, asking his advice on what to do.

"Fortunately," Macusker says,
"these letters reach me in the daytime, when I am sane. What a tragedy it would be if they came at night, and my answers would be those of a crazy man."

Many here feel Macusker's delicate position is enough in itself to make a man insane.

KNOWS OF WILDS EXPLORER FORGOT

Kara-Korum Mountains Are Barren, Ice Covered and Seldom Visited

BY VISSER-HOOFT

Explorer and Mountain Climber Stockholm—If unknown regions beckon you, if you would walk where a white man never walked, you have plenty of opportunity.

The greater part of the world has been mapped and equipped with tourist hotels, pays taxes, buys furs, but there still are regions to lure the explorer.

One of the most important of these regions is in central Asia, where the great mountain ranges, the Himalayas and the Kara-Korum, run parallel. The first is widely known. But the Kara-Korum, rival of the Himalayas, has been seldom visited.

COOLIE TRANSPORTS

On the Kara-Korum ranges are the greatest glaciers on earth. The Cho-gori peak is 28,250 feet high, only 83 feet lower than Mount Everest.

Many great sections of the Kara-Korum mountains have never been visited by white men. Even the natives regard the mountains with superstitious fear and dare not venture up the icy slopes.

My wife and I have just returned after spending four months in the Kara-Korum mountains. We climbed to a height of 17,000 feet, climbed until intense cold and rarity of the air forced us to turn back.

Travel was most difficult. Our horses and yaks had utmost difficulty in crossing the high mountain passes and the swiftly running streams.

At the 15,000 foot elevation we had to leave our pack animals for they could climb no higher.

In the boulder strewn valley and on the glaciers it was often nearly impossible to find a suitable place to pitch our tents.

NATIVES FEARFUL

For several days while in the southern Kara-Korum mountains were forced to stay within our tents because of the intense cold. Had we ventured outside them we would have been frozen.

The country—even the valleys—lacks vegetation.

We found it most difficult to deal with the natives, the Lushis, who resemble their Tibetan neighbors. Although they are good-natured and honest they are in constant fear of devils. They were afraid to venture out on the glaciers.

One day as we were climbing a dangerous place on a deep ice slope, two of the coolies were seized with a sudden fit of madness.

It was only with difficulty that we managed to help them and prevent them from leaping over the precipice. They were suffering from the effects of the rarified air.

HIS FAME GROWING FOR T-B VACCINE

Dr. Albert Calmette Bids Fair to Be World's Great Benefactor

Paris.—French medical men are hoping the name of Dr. Albert Calmette will be added to the galaxy of immortal scientists, by reason of a vaccine for tuberculosis with which he and his collaborators have been experimenting for some years.

Following the modest doctor's own injunctions, and not desiring to raise any false hopes among the world's suffering masses, they are all qualifying what they say and write about the Calmette vaccine with a very big
"if."

Calmette, vice director of the Pasteur Institute here, has communicated the results of his experiments to the conservative Academy of Medicine, where his modest remarks have been received with unusual applause.

Briefly, Calmette has worked out a living culture of tubercular bacilli, so attenuated by laboratory processes that it will not give any animal tuberculosis. On the other hand, his experiments lead him to believe that it is administered to a young animal, up to now immune from tuberculosis, the vaccine will confer upon it complete immunity.

This wonder worker has briefly been named "B. C. G."

Calmette began his experiments with animals subject to tuberculosis.
He inoculated young calves born of tubercular cattle.

They were unharmed by the vaccine and were thereafter revaccinated once a year. One hundred and twenty-seven underwent the treatment, thanks to the intelligent co-operation of French farmers. All these animals have remained in good health.

The tests seemed to establish the vaccine as inoffensive and efficacious.

Calmette then experimented with anthropoid apes whose reactions to microbes and toxins resemble those of man. The same success attended these trials.

Embodied by this and with the consent of the parents, he then vaccinated 24 nursing children. All are in good health, although many of them live in localities where children are liable to tuberculosis.

It is not claimed that the vaccine will cure tuberculosis in adults.

POLICE WILL CARRY SMALL RADIO SETS

By Associated Press
Cleveland.—Radio-casting for the prevention of crime and detection of criminals is soon to be employed here,
Chief of Police Graul has announced.

Small sets with headphones are to be installed on every squad car and motorcycle. Radio sets will have only one wave length, but will enable motorcycle officers in outlying districts to listen in on bulletins from the central station.

CONSCIENCE FUND
GIFTS ADD $600,000
TO U. S. TREASURY

Little Contributions Here and There Show People to Be Generally Honest

Washington.—Most people, at heart, are honest.

Their conscience won't let them be otherwise.

So believes Frank J. Thiel, assistant U. S. treasurer, who has charge of the federal conscience fund, now totalling more than $600,000.

The total fund is made up of money sent the government by individuals who have at one time or another defrauded the government. And their conscience will not give them peace.

Fear is in no way a factor, for in almost every case the money is mailed in long after possibility of detection has passed.

STARTED FUND

The fund was started in 1811. A contribution of $5 was sent in by a man who gave no name, but explained he owed the money to the government.

Treasury officials pondered long over the entry, finally deciding to put it down as "conscience."

Since that time anonymous contributions have totaled nearly $600, 000, the largest item being a contribution of $30,000 in gold certificates.

Frank J. Thiel, assistant U. S. treasurer, keeps a watchful eye on the fund, partly because of official duty and partly because of personal interest.

"The conscience fund shows a wholesome condition," he says. "It indicates that people aren't so bad after all."

"A man will defraud the government. That, of course, is wrong. But the point is he knows it's wrong, and the thought won't let him rest.
Years later, even after chance of discovery is past, his 'guilt, small voice' moves him to restitution."

$14,250 FROM LONDON

"We receive many remittances from ministers who forward them in behalf of penitents. Once we received $14,250 from St. Paul's Church in London.

"Once we published the fact that the fund's smallest remittance was 2 cents. Shortly afterward, we received a long letter from a Chicago man, saying he was the individual who had sent it."

"It was conscience money," he explained, for a bet he had made when a boy that he could send a letter through the mail without using a stamp.

"He won the bet—and his conscience hurt him ever since."

Another man once sent half of eight $1000 bills, which he had cut in two, explaining he owed the government $8,000 and would mail the other half when he saw a notice in the newspapers that the first half had been received. He did.

BANKNOTES USED AS DECORATION

Zagreb, Croatia.—Village maidens in Croatia now carry their dowries in the shape of trimming sewn on the bodice, instead of jingling necklaces and buttons of gold coin as of old.
The new fashion results from the governmental ban on the possession of gold coins, which are no longer legal even as a medium of purchase.

Adapting themselves to the new order, the girls now sew bank notes of as large denominations as they can afford in decorative lines on either side of the bodice as a token of their rating in the matrimonial market. The man who marries a girl displaying half a million dinars, for instance, knows that she brings him a dowry of about $10,000, and not a few young women display just much on feast days.

The remarkable thing about this display of such amounts of money is that here, as through the Balkans, the young women are perfectly safe from robbery, as even professional thieves regard the stealing of a girl's dowry as unethical.

Markets

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET
(Chicago, Ill.)—Hogs 49,000. Generally 15 @ 25 lower desirable grades show minimum losses, underweights 25 cents off demand broad top 11.70 weight 11.40 @ 11.65; desirable 140 to 150 pound averages largely 9.75 @ 10.35; bulk packing sows 10.45 @ 10.75 majority better strong weight slaughter pigs 9.00 @ 9.25. Average cost of packers and shippers droves of hogs were Saturday 11.30 average weight 228 pounds; average cost last week 11.02, weight 230 pounds, heavyweight hogs 11.15 @ 11.70, medium 11.25 @ 11.70 light 10.30 @ 11.60 light light 8.25 @ 11.00; packing hogs smooth 10.40 @ 10.85; packing hogs rough 10.10 @ 10.40; slaughter pigs 8.50 @ 9.50.

Sheep 41,000 very slow few early sales fed natives and comeback weas terns 25 to 30 lower natives 13.25 @ 13.50 comeback 18.00, talking 25 to 30 lower on westerns no early sales sheep and feeding lambs steady for owes 5.00 @ 6.25.

Cattle 31,000 practically all grades yearlings active steady good to choice handweight steers moving narrow demand for weighty kind others ad-lower grades medium weight bullock weak to 25 lower, western Gruber sharpen decline approximately 11.00 Range steers liberal proportion Oklahoma and Kansas fat she stock tending lower, bulls steady vealers light sorting considered about 25 lower bulk around 10.00 @ 10.50 best fed yearlings mixed steers and heifers

LABOR LOST

Miss Helen McCaffee, 16 and from Pittsburg, the only girl among 1,000 persons to pass entrance examinations to Princeton University, can not enter because no women are admitted.

12.25 numerous loads 10.75 to 11.75 feeder dealers taking hold well bred northwestern range steers about 6.00 head early 7.00 @ 7.15, less desirable kind 6.00 @ 6.50.

CHICAGO CHEESE MARKET
Chicago.—The cheese market Saturday was steady and firm at unchanged prices. Trading was quiet as usual for a Saturday with buyers confining their purchases to small lots.
Daisies and longhorns were firmer than any other styles and prices on these were well maintained. The held cheese market was quiet with prices irregular.

MINNEAPOLIS FLOUR MARKET
Minneapolis.—Flour unchanged to 10 cents lower. In cutted lots family patents quoted at $9.95 @ 10.5 barrel in 35 pound cotton sack. Shipments 39,515 barrels. Bran 25.00 @ 25.50.

CHICAGO POTATO MARKET
Chicago.—Potatoes—Trading moderate market fair on Ohio unsettled on white receipts 170 cars total United States shipments Saturday 174 Sunday 58, Minnesota and North Dakota sacked Red River Ohio 100 @

1.05 Minnesota sacked round whites
85 @ 90; Wisconsin sacked round whites 70 @ 85, few fancy .90; bulk 65 @ 85; few fancy .90.

GRAIN MARKETS CLOSED

Chicago.—On account of Columbus day, all grain markets in the United States are closed, except at Duluth and Minneapolis. Livestock markets are open as usual.

SOUTH ST. PAUL LIFESTOCK MARKET
South St. Paul.—Cattle 12,500 very slow, opening weak to 25 lower on killing classes, common kinds off most, top grass steers early 7.25 @, bulk 5.00 @ 6.50, fat and stock slow, weak 3.00 @ 5.25, canners and cutters 10 @ 25 lower, bulk 2.00 @ 2.15 on canners, cutters 2.50 @ 2.75, bologna bulls dull 3.00 @ 3.50, stockers and feeders liberal supply quality largely medium; yard traders inactive; few early sales on country account; top fleshy feeders 7.50; bulk 4.00 @ 4.75.

Calves 2,000 25 @ 50 lower; best lights to packers largely 8.00.

Hogs 20,000 mostly 25 @ 35 lower;
few choice offerings included, early top 10.75, bulk medium to good light and butchers 10.50 @ 10.75 packing sows mostly 10.00 considerable portion of recent sales mixed at 10.25 @ 10.40 feeder pigs about .50 lower than Friday bulk best grades 3.00 Sheep 15,000; mostly 25 lower on far limbs other classes about steady bulk fat lambs 12.00 @ 13.00; culis mostly 9.50 best light ewes in packers 12 @ 15 00 one load choice 65 pound feeders lambs 12.50; run include about 6,000 westerns going through

MILWAUKEE LIVESTOCK MARKET
Milwaukee.—Cattle 700 15 to 25 lower butcher cows and heifers 2.75 @ 3.00; medium cows 4.00 @ 5.00 canners and cutters 2.00 @ 3.15 calves
5.00 25 @ 50 lower, 9.00 @ 10.00
Hogs 1,000 25 lower, 200 pounds and down 10.50 @ 11.40, 200 pounds and up 10.75 @ 11.50.
Sheep 500, .25 @ .50 lower 10.50 @
13.00.

APPLETON MARKETS PRODUCE
(Prices Paid Producers)
Corrected Daily by W. C. Fish

Green onions 45c doz; beets with tops, 45c doz, carrots, 45c doz bunches beets $1 bu carrots, $1 bu kohlrabi 25c doz, peas 6c lb rutabagas and turnips $1 bu, rye tomatoes $2 bu navy beans 7 cull flower 15 to 25c and a 50c cabbage $1 per 100 lbs potatoes 80c bu eggs c/c comb honey 25c lb hand picked wealthy apples $1 bu

Corrected Daily by HOPFENSBERGER BROS.
Livestock

CATTLE—
Steers good to choice

Cows, good to choice 1
Canners ... 2, Cutters 4
VEAL (Dressed)—
Fancy to choice (80 to 100 lbs) 14-15
Good (65 to 80 lbs) per lb 13-14
Small (50 to 60 lbs, per lb 10-12
VEAL (Live)—
Fancy to choice (130 to 150 lbs) 10-11
Good calves, (100 to 130 lbs) lb 8-10
Small calves, per lb 7
HOGS (Live)—
Choice to light butchers 10
Medium weight butchers 10-11
Heavy butchers 8-9
HOGS (Dressed)—
Choice to light butchers 11
Medium weight butchers 14-15
Heavy butchers 11-12
SHEEP—
Live 5; Dressed 10
Lambos, live 11, dressed 20
POULTRY—
Hens, live 23-27
Hens, dressed 23-27
Spring chickens, live 17-20
Dressed 24-27

Grain (Corrected by The Western Elevator Co.)

(Prices Paid Farmers.)
Wheat per bu. $1.25 @ $1.30, oats,
52c, rye, per 60 lbs, 90c barley 90c buckwheat, cwt $2, corn, highest market price

Corrected daily by E. Latham Grain Co.

Retain Prices
Buckwheat, cwt $2.00.
Standard bran cwt $1.45, pure oats cwt, $2.10 ground feed $2.25
bran $1.50 middlings in sacks $1.65;
cracked corn $2.00, oil meal $2.50;
gluten feed $2.25 salt, bul, $3; ground

Hay and Straw
(Prices paid Farmers)
Timothy hay, baled ton $18 @ $19;
straw baled, ton $5 @ $9.

Cabbage
(Corrected by W. C. Williams)
Cabbage, Copenhagen, $3 per ton;
Holland, $10 per ton.

PLIMOUTH CHEESE MARKET
Plymouth.—Six thousand eight hundred boxes of cheese were offered on the cat board of the Wisconsin cheese exchange Friday Oct 10. Sales 6-$00, dairies 15. Fifteen factories offered one thousand, two hundred and thirty three boxes of cheese on the farmers call board. Sales 549 squares 18 1/2 50c average odds passed; 67 longhorns 15 1/2, 422 longhorns,
15 1/2.

PLYMOUTH CHEESE MARKET
Plymouth.—Plymouth board cheese quotations for the week, market higher. Daisies 13, others not quoted.
Farmers' Cooperative board quotations for the week market higher:
Longhorns 15 1/2, squares 19 1/2; others 61 not quoted.

A. E. BRIGGS CHIROPODIST

R. V. & R. C.
807-809 College Avenue
Office Phone 795

Treatments of Foot Ailments Only Residence Phone 2759

The Parking Place for Auto Opportunities

It's just as easy for you to look over the best used car offers of the season as it would be if the best used cars that are for sale were lined up along a curb in front of you.

If you want to prove this—if you're interested in getting full dollar-for-dollar value in that used touring car or Sedan you're planning to buy this Fall.

Just turn to Classification 11—
"Automobiles for Sale"—in today's A-B-C Classified Section!

Then you'll know what we mean!

